Dear Mr. Gerstenberg,

I promised the lovely little Miss Gower - daughter of your sister-in-law - some Danish post-stamps, and not knowing her address I beg you will be kind enough to send her the enclosed envelope.

With sincere thanks for the pleasant day I spent in your house, and with respectful compliments to Mrs. Gerstenberg,

I remain, Dear Mr. Gerstenberg,

yours very faithfully

TRANSLATOR'S PREFACE.

THE present volume fulfils the promise which was made in the Second Series of the Lyra Germanica, that the hymns contained there should be brought out in another edition, accompanied by their proper tunes. It constitutes, however, at the same time, an independent work, with an object different from that of the two preceding volumes of translations from the German hymnology. The Lyra Germanica was intended chiefly for use as a work of private devotion; the Chorale Book for England is intended primarily for use in united worship in the church and family, as also in meetings for the practice of church music. This aim has throughout governed the choice of the hymns and tunes, and the form given to them; many beautiful hymns contained in the Lyra Germanica have thus been excluded, because their length or their purely reflective character rendered them ill-adapted for congregational singing, while a large number of new translations—about one-third of the whole—have been introduced, either for the sake of their tunes, or to supply necessary requirements of our services. These have been selected from various sources, chiefly from some very early German hymn-books, from the collections of Tucher and Wackernagel, from the new Bavarian hymn-book of the Lutheran Church, and from the Evangelisches Kirchengesangbuch, Stuttgart, 1855, published by the Church Conference held in Eisenach in 1853.

With regard to the form of the hymns, considerable difficulty has arisen on two points;—the great length of many of them, and the peculiarity of their metres involving the constant use of dissyllable rhymes. It has seemed best, in many cases, considerably to curtail the longer hymns, to bring them within limits which, though they may still appear long to those accustomed to the English allowance of four verses only, may yet, it is thought, be used without inconvenience. The hymn may frequently be found in its complete form in the Lyra Germanica. This course has, however, been deemed inadmissible, where the hymn was very well known, or its meaning would have been seriously injured by abbreviation, and it has then been omitted altogether, or given at full length, as is the case with Luther's version of the Lord's Prayer, his Christmas Carol, and the fine old hymn on the Seven Words of our Lord on the Cross, here assigned to Good Friday.

As a rule, the hymn and tune have been considered as one and indivisible, and the original metres therefore strictly preserved for the sake of the tunes, which would not admit of any deviation without detriment to their characteristic beauty. This has necessitated the frequent use of the double rhymes, which the structure of the German language renders as common, and indeed inevitable, in German, as monosyllabic rhymes are with us. The comparatively small number of the former in our language presents a serious obstacle to rendering the German hymns into English with the force and simplicity they possess in their own tongue, and without which they cannot become truly naturalized among us; yet it is one which must be encountered if the tunes also are to be introduced with them, as they ought to be, and in their proper form. In this work the question has been dealt with in detail, according to the special character of each hymn and tune; in some few instances, mostly of comparatively modern date, where the tune admitted without injury of adaptation to single rhymes, it has been thus arranged; in the greater number, the versions previously given in the Lyra Germanica have been remodelled to suit the music. Apart from the rhymes, it will be observed that these hymns possess a great variety of metres, some of which will at first, no doubt, strike an English ear as strange. But it must be remembered that by far the greater part of these hymns and tunes date from the earlier ages of German hymnology, when hymns were always written to be sung, not read; for this reason the long and monotonous lines which mark the compositions of a later period and of a more didactic character, were instinctively avoided, and metres of more complex movement, and capable of conveying more variety of sentiment, were invented. These metres will be found to follow a strict rule of their own, both in the varying number of feet, and the frequent alternation of Trochaic and Iambic lines; and it is believed that when the ear has once learnt to perceive this, and to associate them with the appropriate rhythm of their tune, there is no reason why they should not become naturalized in England. A few, included here for the sake of the tunes only, may probably always retain an alien sound to us ; but these are very few indeed, and, in general, it would certainly be greatly to the advantage of our hymn-books if we could widen the range both of form and thought which is now given to this class of compositions.

At the present time, when the whole subject of church music and congregational singing is receiving far more attention than ever before, it seems peculiarly desirable to seize the opportunity to enrich our own hymnology from the stores of a country so pre-eminently distinguished in this way. That these hymns and tunes first sprang up on a foreign soil is no reason why they should not take root among us ; all who use our Common Prayer know well how the unity of Christian sentiment is felt to swallow up all diversity of national origin. In truth, any embodiment of Christian experience and devotion, whether in the form of hymn or prayer or meditation, or whatever shape art may give it, if it do but go to the heart of our common faith, becomes at once the rightful and most precious inheritance of the whole Christian Church. Much more, then, where the country is so nearly akin to our own, may we feel that it is at once our privilege and our duty to appropriate all that she can bestow on us, and to hope that her gifts will find a welcome and a home here.

EDITORS' PREFACE.

IN laying before the public the "Chorale Book for England," the Editors desire that it should be accompanied by some observations explanatory of its contents, and also of the principles by which they have been guided in its compilation.

This work is based upon the translation of German hymns by Miss C. Winkworth, well known under the title of "Lyra Germanica," and contains¹ hymns and tunes chiefly of German origin, and belonging more especially to the 16th and two following centuries. Had the "Chorale Book" however been restricted to a republication of the "Lyra Germanica" with music, it would not have comprised all that is requisite to illustrate the beauty of German Hymnology and to fit the work for use in the Church of England. It will be found therefore that, in addition to the principal contents of the "Lyra Germanica," much fresh matter has been brought forward.

Though the "Chorale Book" contains hymns for all the festivals and services of the Church of England, the Editors have abstained, with one exception,² from inserting either hymns or tunes of English origin: to do so would have detracted from the special character which they believe the work to possess, as the first introduction into England of all that ranks as the essence of German Hymnology in words and music united.

During the 16th and 17th centuries Hymnology was in its height in Germany, and bore its most precious blossoms; hymn and tune were then justly considered indivisible, and, though the beauty and popularity of a tune would cause fresh hymns to be written for it, the tune still continued to be known by the name of the original hymn with which it was associated.

¹ Whenever in this work the term hymn occurs, it is applied to the words as distinguished from the music.

² Tune No. XCII.

EDITORS' PREFACE.

In accordance with this precedent, the same original connection between hymn and tune has—with few exceptions—been maintained in this book.¹

Many hymns rightly forming part of a German hymn-book, which in a great measure takes the place in Germany of the Book of Common Prayer in England, have for obvious reasons been excluded from this compilation, and the Editors have thus been enabled to limit the number to two hundred, believing, at the same time, that none have been omitted which are essential to the purpose in view.

While the "Chorale Book" contains no English tunes, it nevertheless includes some already well known in this country, such as the "Old Hundredth," the "Veni Creator," that called "Luther's Hymn,"² and others. The origin of every tune, as far as it can be traced, as also the names of the authors of the hymns, are given in the various Indexes at the end of the work, to which the reader is referred. It may however be desirable to give here a short sketch of the growth of hymnology on the continent, and more particularly in Germany, since the Reformation.

When Luther took up the cause of the Reformation, and had to remodel the services of the Church, he believed he could not better enhance their beauty than by appealing to his nation's love for song, and fostering the practice of congregational singing (Gemeindegesang). With this view he made translations from the Latin hymns previously in use in the Church, paraphrased several of the Psalms and Canticles of Holy Scripture, himself wrote many new hymns, and requested his friends to contribute others. As to music, he availed himself in many cases of tunes already existing in the Church, which he sparingly modified to suit his new metres; of other tunes the origin is unknown, and of those ascribed to Luther, three only can be traced with any certainty to him as the composer;³ two of which have been received into this work, No. 124, and No. VI. in the Appendix.

The first important German hymn-book, preceded in the same year by several smaller books, published under the name of "Enchiridion," Erfurt, &c. &c., appeared under the auspices of Luther in the year 1524. It was edited by his friend, Johann Walther,¹ and was accompanied by a preface from the pen of Luther himself.

¹ In these cases the term Original Tune is used, with the quotation of the first line of the corresponding hymn in German above it; whenever the same tune appears in the book again, it is quoted with the first line of the English translation. In the few exceptional cases alluded to, the German name of the tune has been given, and the Psalms of Goudimel have been quoted as they stand in his edition.

EDITORS' PREFACE.

Walther's work (printed with the music for five voices, the melody in the Tenor, as usual at that time), with successive additions, went through several editions (1537 and 1551), and was followed in rapid sequence by numerous similar works, of which those published at Wittenberg, Nürnberg, and Strasburg, are the most important.² Every new book brought fresh additions, and by the end of the 16th century the number of hymns introduced into the Church was counted by hundreds. Among the tunes of this century and the early part of the next, the Editors would especially name v, xiii, xxvi, xxxix, cvi, cxvii.

The first metrical versions of the Psalms were published in France and Switzerland about the same period. Among the best known, though not the earliest in appearance, is that edited (with the music for four voices) by Goudimel (1565). This work was introduced into Germany by Dr Lobwasser—the Psalms metrically translated by him—in 1573, and its contents soon found their way as a whole or in parts into the Lutheran Church.

Several of Goudimel's Psalm tunes are believed to be of secular origin, and the same should be stated with regard to some among the finest tunes of the 16th century appropriated to the Lutheran service. It speaks well for the character of the secular music of that period, that any of its melodies should have taken a place in the Church, and should have retained it undisputed to the present day. (See xi, xl, lxxxv.)

As another source from which the Lutheran Church gladly drew, the Editors must name the rich store of the early Moravian hymn-books; specimens from which, as well as tunes from Goudimel's edition of the Psalms, will be found in this work.

About the same time Lutheran hymn-books were introduced into Scandinavia, where, especially in Sweden, the hymns and tunes of Germany, with numerous additions of home growth, have remained up to the present time the stock of the national hymn-book. Courland, Livonia, and Finland also received these sacred strains into their service, and still retain them, and it should be mentioned here that a Lutheran hymn-book was printed and published in the Icelandic language at Skalholt in Iceland, in the year 1594, of which a sixth edition appeared in 1691.¹

Towards the middle of the following century (the 17th) Music enters into a new phase. Until then its sole purpose was to serve the Church, through the medium of the human voice and the organ. But now instrumental music, though at first subordinate, begins to make its appearance. Secular Cantatas, forerunners of the Opera, are produced on festive occasions at the courts, particularly of Italy; and German musicians, like those of other countries, who had gone to Italy for study or other purposes, on their return spread the influence which they had themselves received.

In Protestant Germany, Church music gradually became less an object of ambition to composers; fewer tunes, and most of them inferior in quality and vigour to those of the first century after the Reformation, sprung up; nor did the nation at large any longer set its seal upon them by adopting or rejecting them, as before. In the hymn-books of the latter part of the 17th and beginning of the 18th century we also find some of the best old tunes omitted, others deprived of the triple time ($\frac{3}{2}$) peculiar to them, others again without their distinct rhythm, all levelled to a general standard of lifeless uniformity.

Before passing on to the last period which calls for notice in this place, the Editors would direct the attention of readers to the most prominent tune-composer of the 17th century, Johann Crüger (1598—1662), of whose writing many specimens will be found in this work; also to the tunes composed by Schein, H. Albert, and Schop, and lastly to the celebrated hymn and tune of G. Neumark,² „Wer nur den lieben Gott läßt walten“ (No. 134).

In the beginning of the 18th century, Freylinghausen of Halle published a hymn-book which soon became widely circulated. Further reference being made to it in another place, few words respecting it will suffice here. Among the numerous tunes published for the first time in that work, and of which the individual authors are not known, some are very fine, though differing in character from those of an earlier date.

² The tune became so popular, that within 100 years after its appearance no less than 400 hymns had been written to be sung to it.

EDITORS' PREFACE.

With the exception of one or two tunes most probably composed by Bach, one by Kühnau, one by Layriz¹ of a still more recent date, and some few others, which need not be specified, Freylinghausen's work in its several enlarged editions is the latest source from which materials for the "Chorale Book for England" have been drawn; nor could it be otherwise, as from that time sacred tunes of real worth rarely make their appearance; and with the diminished interest which Religion commanded in Germany towards the close of the 18th century, the distinctive outward feature of its Church, the hymn-book, also decays. The old standard hymns are improved, as it is termed, by recasting them; the tunes disappear from the hymn-books and are collected separately for the use of the organist, and, the control of the congregation having thus ceased, it is with the organist and the precentor alone that the responsibility for their correct performance rests in future.² If we further remember the many Principalities of which Germany is made up, each with sovereign authority in Church as well as State, and each possessing its own distinct hymn-book, we can hardly wonder at the unsettled and unsatisfactory state into which the congregational singing of Germany fell.

Of late years however Christian men interested in the services of the Church have raised their voices, trying to revive the interest of the Protestant part of the German nation in their congregational music, and urging a complete revision of the existing hymn-books. Recent publications, the result of these efforts, clearly show, that owing to the desire to see these tunes re-introduced with their exact rhythm and harmony as originally composed, too little allowance is made either for the progress of music or for the musical feelings prevalent in our own time. Much however had to be remedied, and these praiseworthy endeavours have not only already borne fruit, but will doubtless continue to do so.

In this sketch, some brief mention of John Sebastian Bach, the great master, whose name, in the minds of all interested in the subject, is so closely associated with the Chorales of Germany, must necessarily find a place.

While during the 17th century the strictly congregational Church music

¹ Kühnau and Layriz have both compiled very good Chorale books.

² One of the immediate consequences was the predominance of the organ in the service at the expense of the singing of the congregation. This led eventually to a practice in every respect to be deprecated, and which we still find all over Germany, that of introducing between every line of the hymn an Interlude performed by the organist.

EDITORS' PREFACE.

declined, the sacred Cantata (subsequently expanding into the Oratorio) arose; not only did the solemn festival of the Passion offer the opportunity for cultivating it, as we find from Bach's "Passionsmusik," the text of which, with slight modifications, was set to music by his predecessors and contemporaries, Keyser, Mattheson, and Handel; but the other festivals also recommended themselves to Bach for the exercise of his great powers, and Cantatas of his composition exist for nearly every Sunday in the year, many of which in all probability were performed during or after the evening service, from the Organ gallery of St Thomas's, Leipzig, by an orchestra and choir under his direction.

Bach, fully alive to the beauty of the tunes and hymns of his country, adopted the practice, in which he was followed by his successors, Mendelssohn and others, of introducing Chorales into all his numerous sacred works, either to their own words or to new ones suiting better the subject of the Cantata, thereby doubtless bringing it more readily home to the appreciation of the congregation, well acquainted with the old familiar tunes.

How Bach harmonized these Chorales is well known, and need not be dwelt upon here, but his introduction of them in the manner described has much contributed to the confusion of the titles of hymns, which has continued to the present time.

After J. S. Bach's death, his son, Ph. E. Bach, undertook to extract the Chorales from his father's work, and to publish them in a separate collection. One hundred of these, edited by him, appeared in 1765. A second volume containing another hundred was published in 1769 (though not with Ph. E. Bach's name as editor). Then followed in 1784 an edition compiled by Kirnberger, and subsequently several others, all with the title, "Joh. Seb. Bach's Vierstimmige Choralgefänge."

They are well known, and the impression generally prevails that Bach is the author of the tunes, which is not surprising, considering the manner in which these compilations, with the single exception of the most recent one by Erck, have been published. After what has been stated, this erroneous belief requires no further refutation, but it should be mentioned, that a few tunes, probably justly ascribed to Bach, and contained in the "Choralgefänge," have been inserted by the Editors in the "Chorale Book."

Under the circumstances the correctness of the version of the tunes given in the following work must not be judged of from a comparison with those in

EDITORS' PREFACE.

Bach's works, or elsewhere in the compositions of Mendelssohn and other great masters. These masters could handle such Chorales freely for their own purposes, but the Editors were bound to go back to the sources, from which their melodies might be obtained not only most accurately, but also in the form most suitable for their object. They have therefore drawn either from the works in which the tunes originally appeared, or from those of Winterfeld, Tucher, and others of high standing into which they had been literally copied.

In determining the form in which to admit these tunes, the Editors were naturally beset with doubts, in consequence of the unsettled state of hymnology in Germany at the present moment. For while one party there insists on retaining the tunes even more than the hymns in the state of lifeless uniformity into which they have fallen, the other calls for their complete restitution to their original form.

Without going into detail, the Editors wish to state that they deemed it best to select the middle path. They have treated the tunes individually, not collectively; those written in $\frac{3}{2}$ time (as, for example, V, LX, LXII, LXXXII, CXV, etc.) they have seen no right or reason to change, and in every case they have endeavoured to give the tune as nearly as possible according to its original version, and in a shape which might at the same time justify the hope of its being accepted by the English public. This however refers only to the rhythmical flow of the tune, not to the melody itself, which in no instance has been touched by the Editors, but is given according to the best-authenticated versions.¹

A few words have still to be said respecting the harmonization of the tunes in this work. The Editors have in many cases retained the harmonies of the authors of the tunes, and in general have striven to preserve as far as possible the character belonging to the period of their composition; thus the melodies of the 16th and 18th century called for different styles of harmony, clearly indicated by their different flow in respect of distances. In all cases, however, the Editors have endeavoured to combine solemnity with simplicity, and to give harmonies, which, though offering no difficulty in execution, should yet approach the strength and purity peculiar to the best Church music of all times.

¹ A few specimens of tunes are given in the Appendix to illustrate the form in which those of an early date were originally published, and in which it is desired in some quarters to re-introduce them. They will be found divided not into the musical bars of modern music, but according to the length of the lines of the poetry, which would appear the only way to render legibly tunes containing recurring mixtures of common and triple time, in Germany now called „Rhythmischer Wechsel.“

The Editors cannot bring this Preface to a close without pointing to the names of the meritorious inquirers into the interesting subject of Hymnology, who have of late years appeared in Germany, and without whose writings they believe no satisfactory hymn-book of modern times could be compiled; they mean G. von Tucher, P. Wackernagel, Layriz, and others, but particularly C. von Winterfeld, who, in his remarkable work on the „Evangelische Kirchengesang,“* and other smaller writings, has vindicated the real importance of this sacred branch of music, and shown its historical basis and development in a manner at once to raise it in general estimation and to guide all who follow him in this difficult path. To his memory the grateful thanks of the Editors are due, and from his works, as well as from those previously named, they have drawn freely—as was their duty—and as seemed best for this work.

That the “Chorale Book for England” may be received into the new sphere for which it is intended, and that its sacred strains may contribute to the comfort of the troubled soul, the sanctification of home, and the glory of God’s name in His Church on earth, is the earnest prayer of those who compiled it.

PRAISE AND THANKSGIVING.

We praise, we worship Thee, we trust,
And give Thee thanks for ever,
O Father, that Thy rule is just
And wise, and changes never :
Thy boundless power o'er all things reigns,
Done is whate'er Thy will ordains ;
Well for us that Thou rulest !

O Jesu Christ, our God and Lord,
Son of Thy heavenly Father,
O Thou who hast our peace restored
And the lost sheep dost gather,
Thou Lamb of God, to Thee on high
From out our depths we sinners cry,
Have mercy on us, Jesus !

O Holy Ghost, Thou precious Gift,
Thou Comforter unfailing,
O'er Satan's snares our souls uplift,
And let Thy power availing
Avert our woes and calm our dread,
For us the Saviour's blood was shed,
We trust in Thee to save us !

The third system of musical notation. It continues the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the notes.

The God who ev' - ry for - row fills ;

The fourth system of musical notation, which concludes the hymn. It continues the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the notes.

PRAISE AND THANKSGIVING.

The host of heaven thy praises tell,
 All powers and thrones bow down to Thee,
 And all who in Thy shadow dwell,
 Alike in earth and air and sea,
 Declare and laud their Maker's might,
 Whose wisdom orders all things right :
 Give glory then to Him, our God !

And for the creatures He hath made,
 Our God will ceaselessly provide,
 His grace will be their constant aid,
 And guard them round on every side ;
 His kingdom ye may surely trust,
 There all is equal, all is just ;
 Give glory then to Him, our God !

I fought Him in my hour of need,
 I cried,—Lord God, now hear my prayer !
 For death He gave me life indeed,
 And hope and comfort for despair ;
 For this my thanks shall endless be,
 O thank Him, thank Him too with me ;
 Give glory now to Him, our God !

The Lord is never far away,
 Is never fundered from His flock,
 He is their refuge and their stay,
 He is their peace, their trust, their rock ;
 And with a mother's watchful love
 He guides them wherefoe'er they rove :
 Give glory then to Him, our God !

Ah yes ! till life hath reached its bound,
 My faithful God, I'll worship Thee !
 The chorus of Thy praise shall sound
 From henceforth over land and sea.
 Oh soul and body, now rejoice,
 My heart, send forth a gladsome voice ;
 Give glory now to Him, our God !

All ye who name Christ's holy name,
 Give all the glory to our God !
 Ye who the Father's power proclaim,
 Give all the glory to our God !
 All idols under foot be trod,
 The Lord is God, the Lord is God !
 Give glory evermore to Him !

To Him Thy prais - es al - fo bring.

The fourth system of musical notation is for the fourth line of the hymn. It concludes the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics "To Him Thy prais - es al - fo bring." are written below the staff.

PRAISE AND THANKSGIVING.

Through Him the glorious Source of Day
Drives all the clouds of night away ;
The pomp of stars, the moon's soft light,
Praise Him through all the silent night.

Behold, how He hath everywhere
Made earth so wondrous rich and fair ;
The forest dark, the fruitful land,
All living things do show His hand.

Behold, how through the boundless sky
The happy birds all swiftly fly ;
And fire and wind and storm are still
The ready servants of His will.

Behold the waters' ceaseless flow,
For ever circling to and fro ;
The mighty sea, the bubbling well,
Alike their Maker's glory tell.

My God, how wondrously dost Thou
Unfold Thyself to us e'en now !
O grave it deeply on my heart
What I am, Lord, and what Thou art !

PRAISE AND THANKSGIVING.

PRAISE AND THANKSGIVING.

Bitter anguish have I borne,
Keen regret my heart hath torn,
Sorrow dimm'd my weeping eyes,
Satan blinded me with lies;
Yet at last am I set free,
Help, protection, love, to me
Once more true companions be.

None was ever left a prey,
None was ever turn'd away,
Who had given himself to God,
And on Him had cast his load.
Who in God his hope hath placed
Shall not life in pain outwaste,
Fullest joy he yet shall taste.

Though to-day may not fulfil
All thy hopes, have patience still,
For perchance to-morrow's sun
Sees thy happier days begun;
As God willeth march the hours,
Bringing joy at last in showers,
When whate'er we ask'd is ours.

Now as long as here I roam,
On this earth have house and home,
Shall this wondrous gleam from Thee
Shine through all my memory.
To my God I yet will cling,
All my life the praises sing
That from thankful hearts outspring.

Every sorrow, every smart,
That the Eternal Father's heart
Hath appointed me of yore,
Or hath yet for me in store,
As my life flows on, I'll take
Calmly, gladly for His sake,
No more faithless murmurs make.

I will meet distress and pain,
I will greet e'en Death's dark reign,
I will lay me in the grave,
With a heart still glad and brave;
Whom the Strongest doth defend,
Whom the Highest counts His friend,
Cannot perish in the end.

PRAISE AND THANKSGIVING.

(LXXVIII.—„O daß ich tausend Zungen hätt'.“)

5.

Original Tune.

Oh would, my God, that I could praise Thee
How many a song my lips should raise Thee,

The first system of the hymn, featuring a treble and bass staff in G major (one sharp) and common time. The melody is in the treble staff, and the bass staff provides a simple harmonic accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the notes.

With thou - sand tongues, by day and night!
Who or - der'd all things here a - right;

The second system of the hymn, continuing the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the notes.

My thank - ful heart would ev - er be

The third system of the hymn, continuing the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the notes.

Tell - ing what God hath done for me.

The fourth system of the hymn, concluding the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the notes.

PRAISE AND THANKSGIVING.

O all ye powers that He implanted,
Arise, keep silence thus no more,
Put forth the strength that He hath granted,
Your noblest work is to adore ;
O soul and body, make ye meet
With heartfelt praise your Lord to greet.

Ye forest leaves so green and tender,
That dance for joy in summer air ;
Ye meadow grasses bright and slender,
Ye flowers so wondrous sweet and fair ;
Ye live to show His praise alone,
Help me to make His glory known.

O all things that have breath and motion,
That throng with life earth, sea, and sky,
Now join me in my heart's devotion,
Help me to raise His praises high,
My utmost powers can ne'er aright
Declare the wonders of His might.

But I will tell, while I am living,
His goodness forth with every breath,
And greet each morning with thanksgiving,
Until my heart is still in death,
Nay, when at last my lips grow cold,
His praise shall in my sighs be told.

O Father, deign Thou, I beseech Thee,
To listen to my earthly lays ;
A nobler strain in heaven shall reach Thee,
When I with angels hymn Thy praise,
And learn amid their choirs to sing
Loud hallelujahs to my King.

PRAISE AND THANKSGIVING.

(Index of Tunes, LXXVIII.)

6.

Tune.—"Oh would, my God, that I could praise Thee."

I praise Thee, O my God and Fa - ther,
The bleff - ings that we dai - ly ga - ther,

For all I am and all I have,
Ev'n from our cra - dle to our grave;

For Thy rich grace hath scat - ter'd here

What - e'er we need to help and cheer.

PRAISE AND THANKSGIVING.

I praise Thee, Saviour, whose compassion
Hath brought Thee down to succour me ;
Thy pitying heart fought my salvation,
Though keenest woes were heaped on Thee,
Wrought me from bondage full release,
Made me Thine own, and gave me peace.

Thee too I praise, O Holy Spirit,
By whose deep teachings I am made
A heavenly kingdom to inherit,
Who art my Comforter, my aid ;
Whate'er of good by me is done
Is of Thy grace and light alone.

And as my life is onward gliding,
With each fresh scene anew I mark
How Thou art holding me and guiding,
Where all seems troubled, strange, and dark ;
When cares oppress and hopes depart,
Thy light hath never failed my heart.

Shall I not then be filled with gladness,
Shall I not praise Thee evermore ?
And triumph o'er all fears and sadness,
E'en when my cup of woe runs o'er ?
Though heaven and earth may pass away,
I know Thy word stands fast for aye.

PRAISE AND THANKSGIVING.

(LXXIV—„Nun lob' mein' Seel' den Herren.“)

7.

Original Tune.

My soul, now praise thy Mak - er ! Let all with-in me blefs His name,
Who mak-eth thee par - tak - er Of mer-cies more than thou dar'ft claim !

For - get Him not, whose meek - nefs Still bears with all thy fin,

Who heal-eth all thy weak - nefs, Re-news thy life with - in,

Whose grace and care are end - less, And fav'd thee thro' the past ;

PRAISE AND THANKSGIVING.

He shows to man His treasure
Of judgment, truth, and righteousness,
His love beyond our measure,
His yearning pity o'er distress ;
Nor treats us as we merit,
But lays His anger by,
The humble contrite spirit
Finds His compassions nigh ;
And high as heaven above us,
As break from close of day,
So far, since He doth love us,
He puts our sins away.

For as a tender father
Hath pity on his children here,
He in His arms will gather
All who are His in childlike fear ;
He knows how frail our powers,
Who but from dust are made,
We flourish as the flowers,
And even so we fade,
A storm-wind o'er them passes,
And all their bloom is o'er,—
We wither like the grasses,
Our place knows us no more.

His grace alone endureth,
And children's children yet shall prove
How God with strength assureth
The hearts of all that seek His love.
In heaven is fixed His dwelling,
His rule is over all,
Angels in might excelling,
Bright hosts, before Him fall !
Praise Him who ever reigneth,
All ye who hear His word ;
Nor our poor hymns disdaineth,—
My soul, O praise the Lord !

PRAISE AND THANKSGIVING.

Tell me, if no dread e'er seizes
You, who lean on some frail man?
Can you build on waves and breezes?
Dare you trust your wisest plan?
Soon 'tis past, cannot last,
Nought that earth has standeth fast.

But His goodness still shall flourish
Evermore, nought changes here;
Man and beast His hand doth nourish
Day by day through all the year;
Morn and eve, doth He give
All they need to all that live.

Are we not by gifts surrounded
More than we dare ask of good?
For His mercies are unbounded,
Flowing like a mighty flood;
Earth and air to us bear
Tokens of His loving care.

Let not then His gifts upbraid us,
Who His very Son hath given;
Thank, O thank Him who hath made us
From the dust, yet heirs of heaven.
God is our shield and tower,
Great in wisdom, love, and power.

Shelters thee under His wings, yea so gently sustaineth;
Hast thou not seen
How thy desires have been Granted in what He ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord! who doth prosper thy work and defend thee,
Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee;
Ponder anew
What the Almighty can do,
If with His love He befriend thee!

Praise to the Lord! Oh let all that is in me adore Him!
All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him!
Let the Amen
Sound from His people again,
Gladly for aye we adore Him!

PRAISE AND THANKSGIVING.

As the eagle o'er her nest
 Spreads her sheltering wings abroad,
 So from all that would molest
 Doth Thine arm defend me, Lord ;
 From my youth up e'en till now
 Of the being Thou didst give,
 And the earthly life I live,
 Faithful Guardian still wert Thou.
 All things else have but their day,
 God's love only lasts for aye.

When I sleep my Guardian wakes,
 And revives my wearied mind ;
 Every morning on me breaks
 With some mark of love most kind ;
 Had my God not stood my Friend,
 Had His countenance not been Here my guide, I had not seen
 Many a trial reach its end.
 All things else have but their day,
 God's love only lasts for aye.

As a father ne'er withdraws
 From a child his all of love,
 Though it often break his laws,
 Though it careless, wilful, prove :
 Even so my loving Lord
 Doth my faults with pity see ;
 With His rod He chastens me,
 Not avenging with His sword.
 All things else have but their day,
 God's love only lasts for aye.

When His strokes upon me light,
 Bitterly I feel their smart,
 Yet are they, if seen aright,
 Tokens that my Father's heart
 Yearns to bring me back again
 Through these crosses to His fold,
 From the world that fain would hold
 Soul and body in its chain.
 All things else have but their day,
 God's love only lasts for aye.

All my life I still have found,
 And I will forget it never,
 Every sorrow hath its bound,
 And no cross endures for ever.
 After all the winter's snows
 Comes sweet summer back again ;
 Patient souls ne'er wait in vain,
 Joy is given for all their woes.
 All things else have but their day,
 God's love only lasts for aye.

Since then neither change nor end
 In Thy love can e'er have place,
 Father ! I beseech Thee send Unto me Thy loving grace.
 Help Thy feeble child, and give Strength to serve Thee day and night,
 Loving Thee with all my might,
 While on earth I yet must live ;
 So shall I, when Time is o'er,
 Praise and love Thee evermore.

To Thy living waters lead me,
Thou from earth my soul release
And with grace and mercy feed me ;
Bless Thy word that it may prove
Rich in fruits that Thou dost love.

Kindle Thou the sacrifice
That upon my lips is lying ;
Clear the shadows from mine eyes,
That, from every error flying,
No strange fire may in me glow
That Thine altar doth not know.

Let me with my heart to-day,
Holy, Holy, Holy, singing,
Rapt awhile from earth away,
All my soul to Thee upspringing,
Have a foretaste inly given
How they worship Thee in Heaven.

Rest in me and I in Thee,
Build a Paradise within me ;
Oh reveal Thyself to me,
Blessed Love, who diedst to win me ;
Fed from Thine exhaustless urn,
Pure and bright my lamp shall burn.

Hence all care, all vanity,
For the day to God is holy ;
Come, Thou glorious Majesty,
Deign to fill this temple lowly ;
Nought to-day my soul shall move,
Simply resting in Thy love.

Behold, the mountains melt away
Like wax beneath Thine ardent ray!

O Life-dew of the Churches, come,
And bid this arid desert bloom!
The sorrows of Thy people see,
And take our human flesh on Thee.

Refresh the parch'd and drooping mind,
The broken limb in mercy bind,
Us sinners from our guilt release,
And fill us with Thy heavenly peace.

O wonder! night no more is night!
Comes then at last the long'd-for light?
Ah yes, Thou shinest, O true Sun,
In whom are God and man made one!

ADVENT.

Thy Zion strews before Thee
Her fairest buds and palms,
And I too will adore Thee
With sweetest songs and psalms;
My soul breaks forth in flowers
Rejoicing in Thy fame,
And summons all her powers
To honour Jesus' name.

ADVENT.

Nought, nought, dear Lord, could move Thee
To leave Thy rightful place
Save love, for which I love Thee ;
A love that could embrace
A world where sorrow dwelleth,
Which sin and suffering fill,
More than the tongue e'er telleth ;—
Yet Thou couldst love it still !

O ye sad hearts that sicken
With hope deferred, and see
The gloom around you thicken,
The joys ye hoped for flee,—
Despair not, He is near you,
Yea, at the very door,
Who best can help and cheer you,
He will not linger more.

Nor sin shall make you fearful,
Ashamed to see His face,
The contrite heart and tearful
He covers with His grace ;
He comes to heal the spirit
That mourneth sin-oppressed,
And raise us to inherit :
With Him our proper rest.

He comes to judge the nations,
A terror to His foes,
A light of consolations
And blessed hope to those Who love the Lord's appearing :
O glorious Sun, now come,
Send forth Thy beams of cheering
And guide us safely home !

ADVENT.

Look up, ye drooping hearts, to-day !
The King is very near,
Oh cast your griefs and fears away,
For lo ! your Help is here ;
And comfort rich and sweet
In many a place for us is stored,
Where in His sacraments and word
Our Saviour we can meet.

Look up, ye souls weigh'd down with care !
The Sovereign is not far ;
Look up, faint hearts, from your despair,
Behold the Morning Star !
The Lord is with us now,
Who shall the sinking spirit feed
With strength and comfort at its need,
To whom e'en Death shall bow.

Hope, O ye broken hearts, at last !
The King comes on in might,
He loved us in the ages past
When we sat wrapp'd in night ;
Now are our sorrows o'er,
And fear and wrath to joy give place,
Since God hath made us in His grace
His children evermore.

O rich the gifts Thou bringest us,
Thyself made poor and weak ;
O love beyond compare that thus
Can foes and sinners seek !
For this to Thee alone
We raise on high a gladsome voice,
And evermore with thanks rejoice
Before Thy glorious throne.

Original Tune.

Re - deem - er of the na - tions, come! Ran - som of earth, here make Thy home! Bright Sun, oh dart Thy flame to earth, For so shall God in Christ have birth!

Thou comest from Thy kingly throne,
O Son of God, the Virgin's Son!
Thou Hero of a twofold race,
Dost walk in might earth's darkest place.

Thou stoopest once to suffer here,
And risest o'er the starry sphere;
Hell's gates at thy descent were riven,
Thy ascent is to highest Heaven.

One with the Father! Prince of might!
O'er nature's realm assert Thy right,
Our sickly bodies pine to know
Thy heavenly strength, Thy living glow.

How bright Thy lowly manger beams!
Down earth's dark vale its glory streams,
The splendour of Thy natal night
Shines through all time in deathless light.

ADVENT.

24.

Original Tune.

Let the earth now praise the Lord, Who hath tru-ly kept His word,

And the fin-ner's help and Friend Now at last to us doth send.

What the fathers most desired,
What the prophets' heart inspired,
What they long'd for many a year,
Stands fulfill'd in glory here.

Abram's promised great reward,
Zion's Helper, Jacob's Lord,
Him of twofold race behold,
Truly come, as long foretold.

Welcome, O my Saviour, now!
Hail! my portion, Lord, art Thou!
Here too in my heart, I pray,
Oh prepare Thyself a way.

Enter, King of Glory, in!
Purify the wastes of sin
As Thou hast so often done;
It belongs to Thee alone.

As Thy coming was in peace,
Noiseless, full of gentleness,
Let the same mind dwell in me
That was ever found in Thee.

Bruise for me the serpent's head,
That, set free from doubt and dread,
I may cleave to Thee in faith,
Safely kept through life and death:

And when Thou dost come again
As a glorious King to reign,
I with joy may see Thy face,
Freely ransom'd by Thy grace.

25.

Original Tune.

Lift up your heads, ye migh - ty gates, Be - hold the King of glo - ry waits ;

The first system of the hymn is written in 3/2 time with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). It consists of a treble and bass staff joined by a brace. The melody is in the treble staff, and the bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the notes.

The King of kings is draw - ing near, The Sa - viour of the world is here ;

The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the notes.

Life and sal - va - tion doth He bring, Wherefore re - joice and glad - ly sing :

The third system continues the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the notes.

We praise Thee, Fa - ther, now ! Cre - a - tor, wise art Thou !

The fourth system concludes the hymn. The lyrics are written below the notes.

ADVENT.

The Lord is just, a Helper tried,
Mercy is ever at His side,
His kingly crown is holiness,
His sceptre, pity in distress,
The end of all our woe He brings;
Wherefore the earth is glad and sings:
We praise Thee, Saviour, now,
Mighty in deed art Thou!

Oh blest the land, the city blest,
Where Christ the Ruler is confessed!
Oh happy hearts and happy homes
To whom this King in triumph comes!
The cloudless Sun of joy He is,
Who bringeth pure delight and bliss:
O Comforter Divine,
What boundless grace is Thine!

Fling wide the portals of your heart,
Make it a temple set apart
From earthly use for Heaven's employ,
Adorn'd with prayer and love and joy;
So shall your Sovereign enter in,
And new and nobler life begin:
To Thee, O God, be praise,
For word and deed and grace!

Redeemer, come! I open wide
My heart to Thee,—here, Lord, abide!
Let me Thy inner presence feel,
Thy grace and love in me reveal,
Thy Holy Spirit guide us on Until our glorious goal is won!
Eternal praise and fame
We offer to Thy name.

ADVENT.

Still He comes within us,
Still His voice would win us
From the sins that hurt us ;
Would to Truth convert us
From our foolish errors,
Ere He comes in terrors.

Thus if thou hast known Him,
Not ashamed to own Him,
Nor dost love Him coldly,
But wilt trust Him boldly,
He will now receive thee,
Heal thee, and forgive thee.

But through many a trial,
Deepest self-denial,
Long and brave endurance,
Must thou win assurance
That His own He makes thee,
And no more forsakes thee.

He who thus endureth
Bright reward secureth ;
Come then, O Lord Jesus,
From our sins release us.
Let us here confess Thee,
Till in heaven we bless Thee.

ADVENT.

- 2 Awake ! thou careless world, awake !
 For none can tell how soon our God may please
 That suddenly that day should break,
 No human wisdom fathoms depths like these :
 O flee earth's base delights and pride,
 For as the bird is in the snare,
 Or ever of its foe aware,
 So comes that day so long denied.
- 3 Yet He in love delayeth long
 That awful day, and grants the sinner space
 To turn away from sin and wrong,
 And mourning seek in time His love and grace.
 He holdeth back that best of days
 Until the righteous shall approve
 Their faith and hope, their constant love ;
 So gentle us-ward are His ways !
- 4 And those found faithful then shall see
 That glorious morning dawn in love and joy,
 Their Saviour comes to set them free,
 Their Judge Himself shall all their bonds destroy ;
 He the true Joshua then shall bring
 His people with a mighty hand
 Into their promised fatherland,
 Where songs of victory they shall sing.
- 5 Arise, and let us night and day
 Watch for our Lord, and study o'er His word,
 And in the Spirit ever pray,
 That we be ready when His call is heard ;
 Arise, and let us haste to meet
 The Bridegroom standing at the door,
 That with the angels evermore
 We too may worship at His feet.

For thinking on that sound
That once shall pierce the ground
And make its slumb'ers tremble,— “ Arise ! the Day of Doom
Is come at last,—is come !
Before the Judge assemble ! ”

Ah God ! no tempest's shock
That cleaves the solid rock
Could make my spirit shiver
As doth that awful tone ;
Were my heart steel or stone
’T would hear that voice and quiver.

I eat, or wake, or sleep,
I talk, or smile, or weep,
Yet still that voice of thunder
Is sounding through my heart,—
“ Forget not what thou art,
The doom thou liest under ! ”

For daily do I see
How many deaths there be,
How swiftly all things wither ;
How sickness fills the grave,
Or fire, or sword, or wave
Is sweeping thousands thither.

My turn will soon be here,
The end is drawing near,
I hear its warning plainly ;
Death knocketh at my door
And tells me all is o'er,
And I would fly him vainly.

Ah ! who in this my strait
Will be mine Advocate ?
Will all things leave me friendless ?
My wealth and power are dust,
This Judge is ever just,
His righteous doom is endless.

Lord Jesus Christ ! ’t is Thou
Alone canst help me now,
But ’t was for this Thou camest,
To save us in this hour ;—
Then show Thy mercy's power,
For they are safe Thou claimest.

Speak Thou for me ! Thou art
The refuge of my heart ;
With gladness let me hear Thee ;
Bid me to Thee ascend,
Where praise shall never end,
And love shall aye be near Thee.

The fourth line of the musical score continues the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the treble staff.

CHRISTMAS.

To you this night is born a child
Of Mary, chosen mother mild ;
This little child, of lowly birth,
Shall be the joy of all your earth.

'Tis Christ, our God, who far on high
Hath heard your sad and bitter cry ;
Himself will your Salvation be,
Himself from sin will make you free.

He brings those blessings, long ago
Prepared by God for all below ;
Henceforth His kingdom open stands
To you, as to the angel bands.

These are the tokens ye shall mark,
The swaddling clothes and manger dark ;
There shall ye find the young child laid,
By whom the heavens and earth were made.

Now let us all with gladsome cheer
Follow the shepherds, and draw near
To see this wondrous gift of God,
Who hath His only Son bestow'd.

Give heed, my heart, lift up thine eyes !
Who is it in yon manger lies ?
Who is this child, so young and fair ?
The blessed Christ-child lieth there.

Welcome to earth, Thou noble guest,
Through whom e'en wicked men are blest !
Thou com'st to share our misery,
What can we render, Lord, to Thee !

Ah Lord, who hast created all,
How hast Thou made Thee weak and small,
That Thou must choose Thy infant bed
Where ass and ox but lately fed !

10

Were earth a thousand times as fair,
Beset with gold and jewels rare,
She yet were far too poor to be
A narrow cradle, Lord, for Thee.

11

For velvets soft and silken stuff
Thou hast but hay and straw so rough,
Whereon Thou King, so rich and great,
As 'twere Thy heaven, art throned in state.

Thus hath it pleased Thee to make plain
The truth to us poor fools and vain,
That this world's honour, wealth, and might
Are nought and worthless in Thy sight.

Ah ! dearest Jesus, Holy Child,
Make Thee a bed, soft, undefiled,
Within my heart, that it may be
A quiet chamber kept for Thee.

My heart for very joy doth leap,
My lips no more can silence keep ;
I too must raise with joyful tongue
That sweetest ancient cradle-song—

15

Glory to God in highest heaven,
Who unto man His Son hath given !
While angels sing with pious mirth
A glad New Year to all the earth.

CHRISTMAS.

Soft and sweet,
Doth entreat,
"Flee from woe and danger ;
Brethren, come, from all doth grieve you
You are freed,
All you need
I will surely give you."

CHRISTMAS.

- 3 Come then, let us hasten yonder ;
 Here let all,
 Great and small,
Kneel in awe and wonder.
Love Him who with love is yearning ;
 Hail the Star
 That from far
Bright with hope is burning !
- 4 Ye who pine in weary sadness,
 Weep no more,
 For the door
Now is found of gladness.
Cling to Him, for He will guide you
 Where no cross,
 Pain or loss,
Can again betide you.
- 5 Hither come, ye heavy-hearted,
 Who for sin
 Deep within,
Long and fore have smarted ;
For the poison'd wounds you're feeling
 Help is near,
 One is here
Mighty for their healing !
- 6 Hither come, ye poor and wretched ;
 Know His will
 Is to fill
Every hand outstretched ;
Here are riches without measure,
 Here forget
 All regret,
Fill your hearts with treasure.
- 7 Thee, dear Lord, with heed I'll cherish,
 Live to Thee,
 And with Thee
Dying, shall not perish ;
But shall dwell with Thee for ever,
 Far on high,
 In the joy
That can alter never.

CHRISTMAS DAY.

Oh hearken to their singing,
 " This Child shall be your Friend,
The Father so hath will'd it,
 That thus your woes should end ;
The Son is freely given,
 That in Him ye may have
The Father's grace and blessing,
||: And know He loves to save. :||

Nor deem the form too lowly
 That clothes Him at this hour ;
For know ye what it hideth ?
 'Tis God's almighty power.
Though now within the manger
 So poor and weak He lies,
He is the Lord of all things,
||: He reigns above the skies. :||

Sin, Death, and Hell, and Satan
 Have lost the victory ;
This Child shall overthrow them,
 As ye shall surely see ;
Their wrath shall nought avail them,
 Fear not, their reign is o'er ;
This Child shall overthrow them,—
||: Oh hear and doubt no more." :||

CHRISTMAS.

Joy, O joy, be-yond all glad-ness! Christ hath done a-way with sad-ness!

Hence, all for-row and re-pin-ing, For the Sun of grace is shin-ing.

See, my soul, thy Saviour chooseth
Weakness here and poverty,
In such love He comes to thee,
Nor the hardest couch refuses;
All He suffers for thy good,
To redeem thee by His blood:
Joy, then, joy beyond all gladness!
Christ hath done away with sadness!
Hence, all sorrow and repining,
For the Sun of grace is shining.

Lord, how shall I thank Thee rightly?
I acknowledge that from Thee
Every blessing flows to me.
Let me not forget it lightly,
But to Thee through all things cleave;
So shall heart and mind receive
Joy, yea, joy beyond all gladness!
Christ hath done away with sadness!
Hence, all sorrow, all repining,
For the Sun of grace is shining!

Jesu, guard and guide Thy members,
Fill Thy brethren with Thy grace,
Hear their prayers in every place,
Quicken now life's faintest embers;
Grant all Christians, far and near,
Holy peace, a glad New Year!
Joy, O joy, beyond all gladness!
Christ hath done away with sadness!
Hence, all sorrow, all repining,
For the Sun of grace is shining!

CHRISTMAS.

O wondrous joy, that God most high
Should take our flesh, and thus our race should honour ;
A virgin mild hath borne this Child,
Such grace and glory God hath put upon her.

Sin brought us grief, but Christ relief,
When down to earth He came for our salvation ;
Since God with us is dwelling thus,
Who dares to speak the Christian's condemnation ?

Then hither throng, with happy song
To Him whose birth and death are our assurance ;
Through whom are we at last set free
From sins and burdens that surpassed endurance.

Yes, let us praise our God and raise
Loud hallelujahs to the skies above us -
The bliss bestowed to-day by God,
To ceaseless thankfulness and joy should move us.

Tune.—"Ere yet the dawn hath fill'd the skies."

Thee, O Im - man - u - el, we praise, The

This system contains the first two lines of the hymn. The music is written in G major (one sharp) and 3/2 time. The melody is in the treble clef, and the bass line is in the bass clef. The lyrics are: "Thee, O Im - man - u - el, we praise, The".

Prince of Life and Fount of Grace, The Morn - ing

This system contains the third and fourth lines of the hymn. The melody continues in the treble clef, and the bass line continues in the bass clef. The lyrics are: "Prince of Life and Fount of Grace, The Morn - ing".

Heav'nly Flower,
Star, the Heav'n - ly Flower, The Vir - gin's

This system contains the fifth and sixth lines of the hymn. The melody continues in the treble clef, and the bass line continues in the bass clef. The lyrics are: "Heav'nly Flower, Star, the Heav'n - ly Flower, The Vir - gin's".

Son, the Lord of Power. Hal - le - lu - jah.

This system contains the seventh and eighth lines of the hymn. The melody continues in the treble clef, and the bass line continues in the bass clef. The lyrics are: "Son, the Lord of Power. Hal - le - lu - jah.".

CHRISTMAS.

With all Thy faints, Thee, Lord, we sing,
Praise, honour, thanks to Thee we bring,
That Thou, O long-expected guest,
Hast come at last to make us blest !

Hallelujah.

Since first the world began to be,
How many a heart hath long'd for Thee ;
Long years our fathers hoped of old
Their eyes might yet Thy Light behold :

Hallelujah.

The prophets cried ; " Ah, would He came
To break the fetters of our shame :
That help from Zion came to men,
Israel were glad, and prosper'd then ! "

Hallelujah.

Now art Thou here ; we know Thee now,
In lowly manger lieth Thou ;
A child, yet makest all things great,
Poor, yet is earth Thy robe of state.

Hallelujah.

From Thee alone all gladness flows,
Who yet shalt bear such bitter woes ;
Earth's light and comfort Thou shalt be,
Yet none shall watch to comfort Thee.

Hallelujah.

All heavens are Thine, yet Thou dost come
To sojourn in a stranger's home ;
Thou hangeest on Thy mother's breast
Who art the joy of spirits blest.

Hallelujah.

Now fearless I can look on Thee,
From sin and grief Thou sett'st me free ;
Thou bearest wrath, Thou conquere'st Death,
Fear turns to joy Thy glance beneath.

Hallelujah.

Thou art my Head, my Lord Divine,
I am Thy member, wholly Thine,
And in Thy Spirit's strength would still Serve Thee according to Thy will.

10

Thus will I sing Thy praises here
With joyful spirit year by year ;
And they shall sound before Thy throne,
Where time nor number more are known.

Hallelujah.

- 2 Thou here my Comfort, there my Crown,
Thou King of Heaven, who camest down
To dwell as man beside me ;
My heart doth praise Thee o'er and o'er,
If Thou art mine I ask no more,
Be wealth or fame denied me ;
Thee I seek now ; None who proves Thee,
None who loves Thee
Finds Thee fail him ;
Lord of life, Thy powers avail him !
- 3 Through Thee alone can I be blest,
Then deep be on my heart imprest
The love that Thou hast borne me ;
So make it ready to fulfil
With burning zeal Thy holy will,
Though men may vex or scorn me ;
Saviour, let me Never lose Thee,
For I choose Thee,
Thirst to know Thee ;
All I am and have I owe Thee !
- 4 O God, our Father far above,
Thee too I praise, for all the love
Thou in Thy Son dost give me ;
In Him am I made one with Thee,
My Brother and my Friend is He ;
Shall aught affright or grieve me ?
He is Greatest, Best, and Highest,
Ever nighest
To the weakest ;
Fear no foes, if Him thou seekest !
- 5 O praise to Him who came to save,
Who conquer'd death and burst the grave ;
Each day new praise resoundeth
To Him the Lamb who once was slain,
The Friend whom none shall trust in vain,
Whose grace for aye aboundeth ;
Sing, ye Heavens, Tell the story
Of His glory,
Till His praises
Flood with light Earth's darkest places.

To Thee the Morning Star doth lead,
To Thee th' inspired Word,
We hail Thee, Saviour in our need,
We worship Thee, the Lord.

Ah look on me with pity,
Though I am weak and poor,
Admit me to Thy kingdom
To dwell there blest and sure.
Oh rescue me from all my woes,
And shield me with Thine arm
From Sin and Death, the mighty foes
That daily seek our harm.

And bid Thy Word within us
Shine as the fairest Star ;
Keep sin and all false doctrine
From all Thy people far :
Let us Thy name aright confess,
And with Thy Christendom,
Our King and Saviour own and bless

Ah, how blindly did we stray,
Ere this sun our earth had brightened !
Heaven we sought not, for no ray
Had our 'wilder'd eyes enlighten'd ;
All our looks were earthward bent,
All our strength on earth was spent.

But the day-spring from on high
Hath arisen with beams unclouded,
And we see before it fly
All the heavy gloom that shrouded
This sad earth, where sin and woe
Seem'd to reign o'er all below.

Thy appearing, Lord, shall fill
All my thoughts in sorrow's hour ;
Thy appearing, Lord, shall fill
All my dread of death's dark power ;
Whether joy or tears be mine,
Through them still Thy light shall shine.

EPIPHANY.

With the fages from afar
Journey on o'er sea and land,
Till thou see the Morning Star
O'er thy heart unchanging stand,
Then shalt thou behold His face
Full of mercy, truth, and grace.

For if Christ be born within,
Soon that likeness shall appear
Which the heart had lost through sin,
God's own image fair and clear,
And the soul serene and bright
Mirrors back His heavenly light.

Jesus, let me seek for nought
But that Thou shouldst dwell in me;
Let this only fill my thought,
How I may grow liker Thee,
Through this earthly care and strife,
Through the calm eternal life.

With the wise who know Thee right,
Though the world accounts them fools,
I will praise Thee day and night;
I will order by Thy rules
All my life, that it may be
Fill'd with praise and love of Thee.

Out of the depths I cry to Thee, Lord,
Bend down Thy gra - cious ear to me, Let hear me, I im - plore Thee! If Thou re - mem - b'rest

LENT.

Our pardon is Thy gift, Thy love
And grace alone avail us ;
Our works could ne'er our guilt remove,
The strictest life must fail us,
That none may boast himself of aught,
But own in fear Thy grace hath wrought
What in him seemeth righteous.

And thus my hope is in the Lord,
And not in mine own merit ;
I rest upon His faithful word
To them of contrite spirit ;
That He is merciful and just—
Here is my comfort and my trust,
His help I wait with patience.

And though it tarry till the night,
And round till morning waken,
My heart shall ne'er mistrust His might,
Nor count itself forsaken.
Do thus, O ye of Israel's seed,
Ye of the Spirit born indeed,
Wait for our God's appearing.

Though great our sins and fore our woes,
His grace much more aboundeth ;
His helping love no limit knows,
Our utmost need it soundeth ;
Our kind and faithful Shepherd, He
Who shall at last set Israel free
From all their sin and sorrow.

Show me now a Father's love,
And His tender patience,
Heal my wounded soul, remove
These too sore temptations;
I am weak,
Father, speak
Thou of peace and gladness,
Comfort Thou my sadness.

LENT.

Weary am I of my pain,
Weary with my sorrow,
Sighing still for help in vain,
Longing for the morrow ;
Why wilt Thou
Tarry now ?
Wilt Thou friendless leave me,
And of hope bereave me ?

Hence, ye foes ! He comes in grace,
God hath deign'd to hear me ;
I may come before His face,
He is inly near me ;
He o'erthrows
All my foes,
Death and hell are vanquish'd
In whose bonds I languish'd.

Father, hymns to Thee we raise,
Here and once in heaven ;
And the Son and Spirit praise,
Who our bonds have riven ;
Evermore
We adore
Thee whose grace hath stirr'd us,
And whose pity heard us.

My secret prayers and sighs Thou hearest plainly,
My tears are ever known to Thee ;
Ah God, my God, and shall I seek Thee vainly ?
How long wilt Thou be far from me ?

Lord, not according to my guilt requite me,
But deal with me in tender grace ;
Thy patience and long-suffering still invite me,
I come : Ah hide Thou not 'Thy face !

Make me to sing once more of joy and gladness,
Father of mercies, hear my voice !
For Thy name's sake, oh raise me from this sadness,
Thou, God, dost love that we rejoice.

Teach me Thy law, with spirit glad and fervent
Let me go forth upon my way ;
Thou art my God, I am Thy willing servant
To do Thy pleasure day by day.

Oh haste Thou, my Defence, be now beside me !
Behold, the Lord hath heard my prayer !
Now on a plainer path His hand shall guide me,
My soul is safe beneath His care

The joyful sun may bring another morning,
I wake to care, to conscience' voice of warning ;
The soft moon comes with silent night and sleep,
And bringeth nought to me but time to weep.

My heart and soul faint, smitten by Thine arrow,
Keen as a fire that pierceth to the marrow ;
From morn to eventide where'er I flee
I find no hiding-place, great God, from Thee.

Vain are my prayers, vainly I weep my errors,
While Thou dost strive against me with Thy terrors ;
The zeal of Thy just anger and Thy might
Have plunged my soul in blackest depths of night.

Oh that I had a dove's swift wings ! I'd hie me
To some far mountain-top where none came nigh me !
Yet could I not escape His mighty hand
Before whom all things bare and open stand.

Nay, all He sends me let me suffer rather,
Though still His angry storms around me gather ;
A willing heart and patient mind, O God,
I bring to Thy severe but righteous rod.

Much have I sinn'd, and utterly I perish,
If memory of my sin Thou still will cherish ;
Yet, Lord of Hosts, doth not Thy Word proclaim
The Merciful is Thy most glorious name !

But from Thee how can I hide me,
Thou, O God, art everywhere ;
Refuge from Thee is denied me,
Or by land or sea or air ;
Nor death's darkness can enfold me
So that Thou shouldst not behold me.

Yet though conscience' voice appall me,
Father, I will seek Thy face ;
Though Thy child I dare not call me,
Yet accept me to Thy grace ;
Do not for my sins forsake me,
Let not yet Thy wrath o'ertake me.

For Thy Son hath suffer'd for me,
And the blood He shed for sin,
That can heal me and restore me,
Quench this burning fire within ;
'Tis alone His cross can vanquish
These dark fears and soothe this anguish.

Then on Him I cast my burden,
Sink it in the depths below !
Let me feel Thy inner pardon,
Wash me, make me white as snow.
Let Thy Spirit leave me never,
Make me only Thine for ever !

My heart hath cherish'd sin, and fear'd no morrow,
Loved the broad, easy road that ends in forrow ;
Till now I learn, O sin, how keen thy smart,
O wrath of God, how terrible thou art !

Can I escape no more ? will no one find me
Some help to break the heavy chains that bind me ?
Will man nor creature show me any place
Where I may flee and hide me from God's face ?

Nay, I must flee to Him who can deliver,
In whom our life and hope are hid for ever ;
What all the world must unaccomplish'd leave,
Thou, for Thou art Almighty, canst achieve.

Think on the covenant Thou hast never broken,
Think on the steadfast word Thyself hast spoken,
Know that I am a God, Thy promise faith,
Who hath no pleasure in a sinner's death.

Then let the arms of love be thrown around me ;
Have pity on me, Thou who thus hast found me,
Call back Thy sheep that, wandering far astray,
Was lost in sin, nor knew the homeward way.

O God, most merciful ! my thankful spirit
Adores the goodness that I did not merit ;
'Tis meet in praising Thee my time I spend,
Here, and above, where praise shall never end.

Thousand, thousand thanks shall be,
Blessed Jesus, brought to Thee.

Thou didst bear the sinning only
That it might not fall on me ;
Stoodest falsely charged and lonely,
That I might be safe and free ;
Comfortless that I might know
Comfort from Thy boundless woe ;

Then for all that wrought our pardon,
For Thy sorrows deep and sore,
For Thine anguish in the garden,

Thank Thee with my latest breath
For Thy sad and cruel death,
For that last most bitter cry,
And shall praise Thee, Lord, on high.

Thou noble Face, whose anger
Shall make a world to quail,
That glance is quench'd in languor
To which the sun were pale;
How hath its brightness vanish'd!
Those gracious eyes how dim!
What foe their light hath banish'd,
Who dared to scoff at Him?

All lovely hues have faded
That glow'd with warmth and life
As He endures unaided
The last and mortal strife;
The Mighty One of valour
Must yield Him as a prey,
Death triumphs in his pallour
O'er all His strength to-day.

Ah Lord, this cruel burden
Of right belongs to me;
Of my misdeeds the guerdon
Hath all been laid on Thee;
I cast me down before Thee,
Wrath were my rightful lot,
Yet hear me, I implore Thee,
Redeemer, spurn me not!

My Guardian, deign to own me,
My Shepherd, I am Thine;
What goodness hast Thou shown me,
O Fount of Love Divine!
How oft Thy lips have fed me
On earth with angels' food!
How oft Thy Spirit led me
To stores of heavenly good!

Ah would that I were bidden
To share Thy cross and woes!
There all true joy lies hidden,
Thence all true comfort flows.
Ah well for me, if lying
Here at Thy feet, my Life,
I too with Thee were dying,
And thus might end my strife!

My soul doth melt within me,
O Jesus, dearest Friend,
That Thou shouldst bear to win me
Such woes, for such an end!
Ah make me cling the firmer
To One so true to me,
And sink without a murmur
To sleep at last in Thee.

Yes, when I hence betake me,
Lord, do not Thou depart;
Oh! never more forsake me
When death is at my heart,
And faith and hope are sinking,
O'erwhelm'd with dread dismay;
Thou barest all unshrinking,—
Oh chase my fears away!

Appear then, my Defender,
My Comfort, ere I die!
This life I can surrender
If but I see Thee nigh;
My dim eyes shall behold Thee,
Upon Thy cross shall dwell,
My heart by faith enfold Thee;
Who dieth thus, dies well!

GOOD FRIDAY.

(XLI.—„Herzliebster Jesu was hast Du verbrochen.“)

52.

Original Tune.

A - las, dear Lord, what law then hast Thou bro - ken,

That such sharp sen - tence should on Thee be spo - ken? Of what great crime hast Thou to make con - fel - sion— What dark trans - gres - sion?

2 They crown His head with thorns, they smite, they scourge Him,
With cruel mockings to the cross they urge Him,
They give Him gall to drink, they still decry Him,—
They crucify Him.

3 Whence come these sorrows, whence this mortal anguish
It is my sins for which my Lord must languish;
Yes, all the wrath, the woe He doth inherit,
'T is I do merit!

4 What strangest punishment is suffer'd yonder!—
The Shepherd dies for sheep that loved to wander!
The Master pays the debts His servants owe Him,
Who would not know Him.

GOOD FRIDAY.

- 5 There was no spot in me by sin untainted,
Sick with its venom all my heart had fainted;
My heavy guilt to hell had well-nigh brought me,
Such woe it wrought me.
- 6 O wondrous love! whose depths no heart hath founted,
That brought Thee here by foes and thieves surrounded;
All worldly pleasures, heedless, I was trying,
While Thou wert dying!
- 7 O mighty King! no time can dim Thy glory!
How shall I spread abroad Thy wondrous story?
How shall I find some worthy gift to proffer?
What dare we offer?
- 8 For vainly doth our human wisdom ponder—
Thy woes, Thy mercy still transcend our wonder.
Oh how should I do aught that could delight Thee!
Can I requite Thee?
- 9 Yet unrequited, Lord, I would not leave Thee,
I can renounce whate'er doth vex or grieve Thee,
And quench with thoughts of Thee and prayers most lowly,
All fires unholy.
- 10 But since my strength alone will ne'er suffice me
To crucify desires that still entice me,
To all good deeds, oh let Thy Spirit win me,
And reign within me!
- 11 I'll think upon Thy mercy hour by hour,
I'll love Thee so that earth must lose her power;
To do Thy will shall be my sole endeavour
Henceforth for ever.
- 12 Whate'er of earthly good this life may grant me
I'll risk for Thee,—no shame, no crosses shall daunt me;
I shall not fear what man can do to harm me,
Nor death alarm me.
- 13 But worthless is my sacrifice, I own it,
Yet, Lord, for love's sake Thou wilt not disown it;
Thou wilt accept my gift in Thy great meekness,
Nor shame my weakness.
- 14 And when, dear Lord, before Thy throne in heaven
To me the crown of joy at last is given,
Where sweetest hymns Thy saints for ever raise Thee,
I too shall praise Thee!

GOOD FRIDAY.

"Father, forgive these men," He spake;
"For lo! they know not what they do,
Nor of my sufferings vengeance take!"
And when we sin in error too,
For us, dear Lord, this prayer renew!

He thought upon the thief, and said,—
"Thou shalt behold my Paradise
With me, ere yet this day be fled."
Lord, see us too with pitying eyes,
And raise us from our miseries!

His mother stood beside Him there;
"Behold thy son! Oh let her find
A son, O John, in thy true care."
Lord, care for those we leave behind,
Nor let the world prove all unkind!

Once more He saith,—"I thirst, I thirst!"
O Prince of Life! that we might be Rescued from death, Thou dar'st the worst.
So dost Thou long to set us free!
Not fruitless be that thirst in Thee!

Again, "My God, My God," He cried,
"Ah why dost Thou forsake me thus?"
Thou art forsaken at this tide,
To win acceptance, Lord, for us;
Oh comfort deep and marvellous!

He saith,—"Lo! it is finish'd now!"
Saviour, Thy perfect work is done!
O make us faithful, Lord, as Thou,
No trial and no cross to shun
Till all Thou lay'st on us be done.

And last,—"My Father, to Thine hands
My parting soul I now commend."
Lord, when my spirit trembling stands
Upon life's verge, this cry I send
To Thee, and with Thy words I end.

Who-so shall ponder oft these words
When long-past sins his soul alarm,
Shall find the hope Thy cross accords,
And in Thy grace a healing balm
That brings the wounded conscience calm

How calm and bleſt
The dead now reſt
Who in the Lord departed!
All their works do follow them,
Yes, they ſleep glad-hearted.

O lead us Thou
To reſt e'en now,
With all who, ſorely anguiſh'd
'Neath the burden of their ſins,
Long in woe have languish'd.

O Bleſſed Rock!
Soon grant Thy flock
To ſee Thy Sabbath morning!
Strife and pain will all be paſt
When that day is dawning.

Ere yet the dawn hath fill'd the skies Be - hold my Sa - viour

Christ a - rise, He chaf - eth from us sin and night,

And brings us joy and life and light. Hal - le - lu - jah.

2 O stronger Thou than Death and Hell,
Where is the foe Thou canst not quell?
What heavy stone Thou canst not roll
From off the prison'd anguish'd soul?

Hallelujah.

3 If Jesus lives, can I be sad?
I know He loves me, and am glad;
Though all the world were dead to me,
Enough, O Christ, if I have Thee!

Hallelujah.

4 He feeds me, comforts and defends,
And when I die His angel sends
To bear me whither He is gone,
For of His own He loseth none.

Hallelujah.

5 No more to fear or grief I bow,
God and the angels love me now;
The joys prepared for me to-day
Drive fear and mourning far away;

Hallelujah.

6 Strong Champion! For this comfort see
The whole world brings her thanks to Thee;
And once we too shall raise above
More sweet and loud the song we love:

Hallelujah.

He who gave for us His life,
Who for us endured the strife,
Is our Paschal Lamb to-day!
We too sing for joy, and say :
Hallelujah.

He who bore all pain and loss
Comfortless upon the cross,
Lives in glory now on high,
Pleads for us and hears our cry :
Hallelujah.

He whose path no records tell,
Who descended into hell,
Who the strong man arm'd hath bound,
Now in highest heaven is crown'd :
Hallelujah.

He who slumber'd in the grave
Is exalted now to save ;
Now through Christendom it rings
That the Lamb is King of kings !
Hallelujah.

Now He bids us tell abroad
How the lost may be restored,
How the penitent forgiven,
How we too may enter heaven.
Hallelujah.

Thou our Paschal Lamb indeed,
Christ, to-day Thy people feed ;
Take our sins and guilt away,
That we all may sing for aye,
Hallelujah.

Original Tune.

Je - sus Christ, my sure De - fence
Know - ing this, my con - fi - dence

The first system of the hymn is written in C major, common time. It consists of a treble and bass staff. The melody is in the treble staff, and the bass staff provides a simple harmonic accompaniment. The lyrics are: "Je - sus Christ, my sure De - fence Know - ing this, my con - fi - dence".

And my Sa - viour, the ev - er liv - - eth;
Refts up - on the hope it giv - - eth,

The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are: "And my Sa - viour, the ev - er liv - - eth; Refts up - on the hope it giv - - eth,". The melody features a descending line in the final measure.

Though the night of death be fraught

The third system continues the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are: "Though the night of death be fraught". The melody features a rising line in the final measure.

Still with many an anx - ious thought.

The fourth system concludes the hymn. The lyrics are: "Still with many an anx - ious thought." The melody ends with a final cadence.

EASTER.

Jefus, my Redeemer, lives !
I too unto life muft waken ;
He will have me where He is,
Shall my courage then be shaken ?
Shall I fear ? Or could the Head
Rife and leave its members dead ?

Nay, too clofely am I bound
Unto Him by hope for ever ;
Faith's ftrong hand the Rock hath found,
Grasped it, and will leave it never ;
Not the ban of death can part
From its Lord the trufting heart.

What now fickens, mourns, and fighs,
Chrift with Him in glory bringeth ;
Earthly is the feed and dies,
Heavenly from the grave it fpringeth ;
Natural is the death we die,
Spiritual our life on high.

Then take comfort, nay, rejoice,
For His members Chrift will cherish ;
Fear not, they will know His voice,
Though awhile they feem to perifh,
When the final trump is heard,
And the deaf, cold grave is ftrirred.

Laugh to fcorn the gloomy grave,
And at death no longer tremble,
For the Lord, who comes to fave,
Round Him fhall His faints affemble,
Raifing them o'er all their foes,
Mortal weaknefs, fear, and woes.

Only draw away your heart
Now from pleasures bafe and hollow ;
Would ye there with Chrift have part,
Here His footfteps ye muft follow ;
Fix your heart beyond the fkies,
Whither ye yourfelves would rife !

The fourth system concludes the hymn. The lyrics are: "And praise our God with cheer - ful voice, And".

EASTER.

No son of man could conquer Death,
Such mischief sin had wrought us,
For innocence dwelt not on earth,
And therefore Death had brought us
Into thralldom from of old,
And ever grew more strong and bold,
His shadow lay athwart us.—Hallelujah !

But Jesus Christ, God's only Son,
Hath come to conquer for us,
Hath put away our sins, and won
Death's power and title o'er us.
Now 'tis but his form is left,
For of his sting he is bereft
Since Jesus will restore us.—Hallelujah !

It was a wondrous war, I trow,
When Life and Death contended ;
But Life hath triumphed o'er the foe,
The reign of Death is ended ;
Yea, 'tis as the Scripture faith,
That Christ in dying conquered Death,
And from his realm ascended.—Hallelujah !

Then let us keep the feast to-day
That God Himself hath given ;
And His pure Word shall do away
The old and evil leaven ;
Christ to-day will meet His own,
And faith will feed on Him alone,
The Living Bread from heaven.—Hallelujah !

EASTER.

The third system of musical notation concludes the hymn. The lyrics 'in Thy life A - round Thine emp - ty grave.' are written below the notes.

EASTER.

The dwellings of the just resound
With songs of victory ;
For in their midst, Lord, Thou art found,
And bringest peace with Thee.

Oh share with us the spoils, we pray,
Thou diedst to achieve ;
We meet within Thy house to-day
Our portion to receive :

We die with Thee ; oh let us live
Henceforth to Thee aright ;
'The blessings Thou hast died to give,
Be daily in our fight.

Fearless we lay us in the tomb,
And sleep the night away,
If Thou art there to break the gloom,
And call us back to day.

Death hurts us not ; his power is gone,
And pointless all his darts ;
Now hath God's favour on us shone,
And joy fills all our hearts.

Once Death, our foe, Had laid Thee low,

Now haft Thou rent his bonds in twain,

EASTER.

Oh that to know Thy victory
To us were inly granted,
And these cold hearts might catch from Thee
The glow of faith undaunted ;
Thy quenchless light,
Thy glorious might
Still comfortless and lonely leave
The soul that cannot yet believe.

Then break through our hard hearts Thy way,
O Jesus, Lord of glory !
Kindle the lamp of faith to-day,
Teach us to sing before Thee
For joy at length,
That in Thy strength
We too may rise whom sin had slain,
And Thine eternal rest attain.

And when our tears for sin o'erflow,
Do Thou in love draw near us,
Thy precious gift of peace bestow,
Let Thy bright presence cheer us,
That so may we,
O Christ, from Thee
Drink in the life that cannot die,
And keep true Easter feasts on high.

As I watch Thee far ascending
To the right hand of the throne,
See the host before Thee bending,
Praising Thee in sweetest tone,
Shall not I too at Thy feet
Here the angels' strain repeat,
And rejoice that heaven doth ring
With the triumph of my King ?

Power and Spirit are o'erflowing,
On me also be they pour'd ;
Every hindrance overthrowing,
Make Thy foes Thy footstool, Lord !
Yea, let earth's remotest end
To Thy righteous sceptre bend,
Make Thy way before Thee plain,
O'er all hearts and spirits reign.

Lo ! Thy presence now is filling
All Thy Church in every place ;
Fill my heart too, make me willing
In this season of Thy grace ;
Come, Thou King of glory, come,
Deign to make my heart Thy home,
There abide and rule alone,
As upon Thy heavenly throne !

Thou art leaving me, yet bringing
God and heaven most inly near ;
From this earthly life upspringing,
As though still I saw Thee here,
Let my heart, transplanted hence,
Strange to earth and time and sense,
Dwell with Thee in heaven e'en now,
Where our only joy art Thou !

From Thy ascension let such grace,
Dear Lord, be ever found in me,
That steadfast faith may guide my ways
With step unfault'ring up to Thee,
And at Thy voice I may depart
With joy to dwell where Thou, Lord, art :
O Saviour, grant this prayer to me !

Heavenward ! doth His Spirit cry,
Oft as in His word I hear Him ;
Pointing to the rest on high
Where I shall be ever near Him.
When His word fills all my thought,
Oft to heaven my soul is caught.

Heavenward still I long to haste,
When Thy supper, Lord, is given ;
Heavenly strength on earth I taste,
Feeding on the Bread of Heaven ;
Such is e'en on earth our fare,
Who Thy marriage feast will share.

Heavenward ! To that blessed home
Death at last will surely lead me ;
All my trials overcome,
Christ with life and joy will feed me ;
Who Himself hath gone before
That we too might heavenward soar.

Passing earth's allurements by

Let me choose the better part,
And though mortal chains yet bind me,
Heavenly be my thoughts and heart ;
That my time through faith may be

Upon Thy hands doth rest,
Our wayward hearts Thou turnest
As it may seem Thee best ;
Once more Thy power make known !
As Thou hast done so often,
Convert the wicked, soften
To tears the heart of stone.
- 7 With holy zeal then fill us,
To keep the faith still pure ;
And bless our lands and houses
With wealth that may endure ;
And make that foe to flee
Who in us with Thee striveth,
From out our heart he driveth
Whate'er delighteth Thee.
- 8 Order our path in all things
According to Thy mind,
And when this life is over,

Thou art shed like gentlest showers
From the Father and the Son,
Bringing to us quicken'd powers,
Purest blessing from their throne ;
Suffer then, O noble Guest,
That rich gift by Thee possessest,
That Thou givest at Thy will,
All my being now to fill.

Thou art ever true and holy,
Sin and falsehood Thou dost hate ;
But Thou comest where the lowly
And the pure Thy presence wait ;
Wash me then, O Well of grace,
Every stain and spot efface,
Let me flee what Thou dost flee,
Grant me what Thou lov'st to see.

Well content am I if only
Thou wilt deign to dwell with me ;
With Thee I am never lonely,
Never comfortless with Thee ;
Thine for ever make me now,
And to Thee, my Lord, I vow
Here and yonder to employ
Every power for Thee with joy.

Guide us, Lord, from day to day,
Keep us in the paths of grace,
Clear all hindrances away
That might foil us in the race ;
When we stumble hear our call,
Work repentance for our fall.

Witness in our hearts that God
Counts us children through His Son,
That our Father's gentle rod
Smites us for our good alone ;
So when tried, perplex'd, distressed,
In His love we still may rest.

Quicken us to seek His face
Freely, with a trusting heart,
In our prayers oh breathe Thy grace,
Go with us when we depart ;
So shall our requests be heard,
And our faith to joy be stirr'd.

Lord, preserve us in the faith,
Suffer nought to drive us thence,
Neither Satan, scorn, nor death ;
Be our God and our defence ;
Though the flesh resist Thy will,
Let Thy word be stronger still.

And at last when we must die,
Oh assure the sinking heart
Of the glorious realm on high
Where Thou healest every smart,
Of the joys unspeakable
Where our God would have us dwell.

TRINITY SUNDAY.

(cxx.—„Wir glauben all an einen Gott, Vater.“)

75.

Original Tune.

We all be-lieve in One true God, Fa-ther, Son, and Ho-ly Ghost,

Strong De-liv'-rer in our need, Praised by all the heav'n-ly host,

By whose might-y power a-lone All is made, and wrought, and done.

And we believe in Jesus Christ,
Son of man and Son of God;
Who, to raise us up to heaven,
Left His throne, and bore our load;
By whose cross and death are we
Rescued from our misery.

And we confess the Holy Ghost,
Who from both for ever flows;
Who upholds and comforts us
In the midst of fears and woes.
Blest and holy Trinity,
Praise shall aye be brought to Thee!

Original Tune.

Most High and Ho - ly Tri - ni - ty! O Thou, who of Thy Haft form'd me here in time, to be Thy im - age and Thy mer - cy mild Oh let me love Thee day and night, With lov - ing child,

all my soul, with all my might; Oh come, Thyself my soul prepare, And make Thy dwell - ing ev - er there.

TRINITY.

Father ! replenish with Thy grace
This longing heart that would be Thine,
Make it Thy quiet dwelling-place,
Thy inner consecrated shrine !
Forgive that oft my spirit wears
Her time and strength in trivial cares,
Enfold her in Thy changeless peace,
So she from all but Thee may cease !

O God the Son ! Thy wisdom's light
Now on my darken'd reason pour ;
Forgive that things of sense and sight
Have been her only joy of yore ;
Henceforth let every thought and deed
On Thee be fix'd, from Thee proceed ;
Draw me to Thee, for I would rise
Above these earthly vanities !

O Holy Ghost ! Thou fire of love !
Enkindle with Thy flame my will ;
Come with Thy strength, Lord, from above
Help me Thy bidding to fulfil :
Forgive that I so oft have done
What I as sinful ought to shun ;
Let me with pure and quenchless fire
Thy favour and Thyself desire.

Most High and Holy Trinity !
O draw me now away far hence,
And fix upon eternity
All powers alike of soul and sense !
Make me at one within ; at one
With Thee on earth ; when life is done
Take me to dwell in light with Thee,
Most High and Holy Trinity !

SAINTS' DAYS.

(Index of Tunes, xcviii.)

77.

Tune.—"Open now Thy gates of beauty."

Who are those that, far be - fore me, Round the Shin - ing as the stars in glo - ry, Crown'd with throne of God I see, Hal - le - lu - jahs, light and pu - ri - ty?

hark! they sing, So - lemn praise to God they bring.

Who are those array'd in brightness,
Clothed in righteousness divine,
Wearing robes of dazzling whiteness,
That unfain'd shall ever shine,
And can never more decay,—
Whence came all this fair array?

SAINTS' DAYS.

They are those whose hearts were riven
Here with sorrow, grief, and care,
Who by day and night have striven
With the mighty God in prayer;
Now their warfare finds its close,
God hath ended all their woes.

They are those who, daily serving
Here as priests before their Lord,
Offer'd up with faith unswerving
Soul and body at His word;
Now within the Holy place
They behold Him face to face.

As the hunted hart hath panted
For the river fresh and clear,
So their hearts with longing fainted
For the Living Fountain here.
Now their thirst is quench'd, they dwell
With the Lord they loved so well.

I too stretch my hands with longing
Thither, Jesus, day by day,
While my foes are round me thronging,
In Thy house on earth I pray,—
Let me sink not in the war,
Drive for me my foes afar.

Thus, O Lord, in earth and heaven
With Thy servants cast my lot,
Let my sins be all forgiven,
In my need forsake me not;
Near the throne where Thou dost shine
May a place at last be mine!

SAINTS' DAYS.

78.

Tune.—"Deal with me, God, in mercy now."

Rise, fol - low Me! our Mas - ter faith, All ye who De - ny your - selves, be true to death, Fol - low wher - make My yoke your choice; For - sake the world, nor count it

e'er ye hear My voice;

lofs, Tread in My steps, and bear My crofs.

2 Though heavy it may seem, yet think
I went before, I still am near,
I fought the fight, and did not shrink,
I trod the path of suffering here;
My banner still is in the field,
Would ye, faint hearts, then fly or yield?

3 For he who seeks to save his life
Shall find his care without Me vain;
Who seems to lose it in the strife
Shall find it in his God again;
Who follows not My crofs through all,
He is not worthy of My call.

4 Then let us follow Thee, dear Lord,
As Thy true servants did of old,
Forfaking all things at Thy word,
In suffering calm, in danger bold;
'Tis only he who wins the fight
May hope to wear their crown of light.

Tune.—"Ye servants of the Lord, who stand."

True Shep - herd, who in love most deep Didst

watch and suf - fer for Thy sheep, And didst ap - point Thy faints of old To teach and rule and serve Thy fold ;

We thank Thee for that gracious care,
And pray that now and everywhere
Thy servants call'd to preach Thy Word
Be faithful shepherds, like their Lord.

Yea, all who own Thee for their Head,
Oh let them in Thy footsteps tread,
Owning and loving more Thy cross
Through persecution, shame, or loss.

No better trophy hath this day
Than hearts new-kindled to obey
The call, for Thee that bids them live,
And gladly yield all earth can give.

Nor for ourselves we pray alone,
In Thee Thy Church is ever one.
Unite us here in faith and love
Until we worship Thee above.

PRESENTATION IN THE TEMPLE.

2 Yes, Lord, Thy servants meet Thee,
 Ev'n now, in ev'ry place,
 Where Thy true word hath promised
 That they should see Thy face.
 Thou yet wilt gently grant us,
 Who gather round Thee here,
 In faith's strong arms to bear Thee,
 As once that aged seer.

3 Be Thou our joy, our brightness,
 That shines 'mid pain and loss,
 Our Sun in times of terror,
 The glory round our cross;
 A glow in sinking spirits,
 A sunbeam in distress,
 Physician, friend in sickness,
 In death our happiness.

4 Let us, O Lord, be faithful
 With Simeon to the end,
 That so his dying song may
 From all our hearts ascend:
 "O Lord, now let Thy servant
 Depart in peace for aye,
 Since I have seen my Saviour,
 Have here beheld His day."

5 My Saviour, I behold Thee
 Now with the eye of faith;
 No foe of Thee can rob me,
 Though bitter words he faith;
 Within Thy heart abiding,
 As Thou dost dwell in me,
 No pain, no death has terrors
 To part my soul from Thee!

Original Tune.

In peace and joy I now de - part,

The first system of the hymn is written in C major, 4/4 time. It consists of a treble and bass staff. The melody is in the treble staff, starting on a half note G4, followed by quarter notes A4, B4, C5, D5, E5, and F5. The bass staff provides a simple accompaniment with half notes and quarter notes.

The fourth system concludes the hymn. The treble staff has a half note G4, quarter notes A4, B4, C5, D5, E5, and a half note F5. The bass staff continues with half notes and quarter notes, ending with a final cadence.

'T is Christ hath wrought this work for me,
Thy dear and only Son,
Whom Thou hast suffer'd me to see,
And made Him surely known
As my Help when trouble's rife,
And even in death itself my Life.

For Thou in mercy unto all
Hast set this Saviour forth ;
And to His kingdom Thou dost call
The nations of the earth
Through His blessed wholesome Word,
That now in every place is heard.

He is the heathens' saving Light,
And He will gently lead
Those who now know Thee not aright,
And in His pastures feed ;
While His people's joy He is,
Their Sun, their glory, and their bliss.

ANNUNCIATION.

My faith, alas ! is weak,
And where it fees not plainly
It strives to grasp but vainly,
And scarcely cares new strength to seek ;
Seeing now what God can do,
May my faith grow stronger too !

Thou Pearl of women, here
Hast to His will resign'd thee,
Thou wilt not look behind thee ;
Thy tender heart, towards one so dear
To thy friends, doth warmly glow,
Loving service fain would show.

God ! I lament to Thee,
My will towards good is idle,
And yet I scarce can bridle
Its sinful impulses in me ;
May my course hereafter prove
Rich in good works and in love !

At last thou goest forth,
Most loving soul and fairest,
With thee thy Lord thou bearest,
The Father's Word come down to earth.
Happy thou ! that He will be
Thus companion unto thee.

The world is such a place,
Where we are pilgrims only,
And we must fear, if lonely
We meet the end that comes apace.
Jesus ! let me then by faith
Walk with Thee through life and death !

ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST.

Yea, her sins our God will pardon,
Blotting out each dark misdeed ;
All that well deserved His anger
He will no more see nor heed.
She hath suffer'd many a day,
Now her griefs have passed away,
God will change her pining sadness
Into ever-springing gladness.

For Elijah's voice is crying
In the desert far and near,
Bidding all men to repentance,
Since the kingdom now is here.
Oh that warning cry obey,
Now prepare for God a way ;
Let the valleys rise to meet Him,
And the hills bow down to greet Him.

Make ye straight what long was crooked,
Make the rougher places plain,
Let your hearts be true and humble,
As befits His holy reign ;
For the glory of the Lord
Now o'er earth is shed abroad,
And all flesh shall see the token
That His Word is never broken.

ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST.

Oh fet your ways in order
When fuch a gueft is nigh ;
Make plain the paths before Him
That now deferted lie.
Forfake what He doth hate,
Exalt the lowly valleys,
Bring down all pride and malice,
And make the crooked ftraight.

The heart that's meek and lowly
Is higheft with our God ;
The heart now proud and lofty
He humbles with His rod ;
The heart that's unenticed
By fin, and fears to grieve Him,
Is ready to receive Him,
To fuch comes Jefus Chrift.

'Twas thus St. John hath taught us,
'Twas thus he preach'd of yore ;
And they will feel God's anger
Who lift not to his lore.
Ah God ! now let his voice
To Thy true fervice win us,
That Chrift may come within us,
And we in Him rejoice !

ST. MICHAEL AND ALL ANGELS.

'T is your office, Spirits bright,
 Still to guard us night and day,
 And before your heavenly might
 Powers of darkneſs flee away ;
 Ever doth your unſeen hoſt
 Camp around us, and avert
 All that ſeeks to do us hurt,
 Curbing Satan's malice moſt.
 Lord, who then can worthily
 For ſuch goodneſs honour Thee !

And ye come on ready wing,
 When we drift toward ſheer deſpair,
 Seeing nought where we might cling,
 Suddenly, lo, ye are there !
 And the wearied heart grows ſtrong,
 As an angel ſtrengthen'd Him,
 Fainting in the garden dim
 'Neath the world's vaſt woe and wrong.
 Lord, who then can worthily
 For ſuch mercy honour Thee !

Right and ſeemly is it then
 We ſhould glory, that our God
 Hath ſuch honour put on men,
 That He ſends o'er earth abroad
 Princes of the realm above,
 Champions, who by day and night
 Shield us with His holy might ;
 Come, behold how great His love !
 Lord, who then can worthily
 For ſuch favour honour Thee !

Praife and thanks to Thee be ſung,
 Mighty God, in ſweeteſt tone !
 Lo ! from ev'ry land and tongue
 Nations gather round Thy throne,
 Praiſing Thee that Thou doſt ſend,
 Hourly from Thy glorious ſphere,
 Angels down to help us here,
 And Thy threaten'd Church defend.
 Let us henceforth worthily,
 Lord of angels, honour Thee.

EMBER WEEKS.

(CR.—“Veni Creator Spiritus.”)

86.

Original Tune.

Come, Ho - ly Ghost, Cre - a - tor, come,

The first system of the hymn is written in 4/2 time. The melody is in the treble clef, and the bass line is in the bass clef. The lyrics are: 'Come, Ho - ly Ghost, Cre - a - tor, come,'.

And vi - fit all the souls of Thine :

The second system continues the melody and bass line. The lyrics are: 'And vi - fit all the souls of Thine :'. The word 'Thine' is followed by a colon.

Thou haft in - spired our hearts with life ;

The third system continues the melody and bass line. The lyrics are: 'Thou haft in - spired our hearts with life ;'. The word 'life' is followed by a semicolon.

In - spire them now with life di - vine.

The fourth system concludes the hymn. The lyrics are: 'In - spire them now with life di - vine.'.

EMBER WEEKS.

Thou art the Comforter, the gift
Of God most high ; the fire of love,
The everlasting spring of joy,
And holy unction from above.

Thy gifts are manifold ; Thou writ'st
God's laws in every faithful heart ;
The promise of the Father, Thou
Dost heavenly eloquence impart.

Enlighten our dark souls, till they
Thy love, Thy heavenly love embrace ;
And since we are by nature frail
Assist us with Thy saving grace.

Drive far from us the mortal foe,
And grant us to have peace within ;
That, with Thy light and guidance blest,
We may escape the snares of sin.

Teach us the Father to confess,
And Son, who from the grave revived ;
And, with the Father and the Son,
Thee, Holy Ghost, from both derived.

With Thee, O Father, therefore may
The Son, who was from death restor'd,
And sacred Comforter, One God,
To endless ages be adored !

EMBER WEEKS.

(Index of Tunes, xxiii.)

87.

Tune.—"Jehovah, let me now adore Thee."

The musical score is written for a piano accompaniment, featuring a grand staff with a treble and bass clef. The time signature is common time (C). The key signature has one sharp (F#), indicating D major or B minor. The melody is primarily in the treble clef, with the bass clef providing harmonic support. The lyrics are printed below the notes, with some words split across lines. The score consists of four systems of music, each with a treble and bass staff. The lyrics are as follows:

Wake, Spi - rit, who in times now old - en
 And a - gainst ev - 'ry foe em - bold - en,
 Didst fire the watch - men of the Church - 's youth,
 To wit - nefs day and night th'e - ter - nal truth,
 Whose voi - ces through the world are ring - ing still,
 And bring - ing hosts to know and do Thy will:

EMBER WEEKS.

Soon may that fire from heaven be lent us,
That swift from land to land its flame may leap !
Soon, Lord, that priceless boon be sent us
Of faithful servants, fit for Thee to reap
The harvest of the soul,—look down and view
How great the harvest, but the labourers few.

Lord, to our earnest prayer now hearken,
The prayer we offer at Thy Son's command,
For, lo ! while storms around us darken,
Thy children's hearts are stirr'd in every land,
To cry for help, with fervent soul, to Thee ;
O hear us, Lord, and speak : " Thus let it be ! "

Oh speedily that help be granted !
Send forth evangelists, in spirit strong,
Arm'd with Thy Word, a host undaunted,
Bold to attack the rule of ancient wrong,
And let them all the earth for Thee reclaim,
To be Thy kingdom and to know Thy name !

Grant that for which Thy people calleth !
Send down Thy promised Spirit, Lord, in might,
Before whom every barrier falleth,
And let it thus at evening-time be light ;
Oh rend the heavens, and make Thy presence felt,
The chains that bind us at Thy touch would melt.

Let Zion's paths lie waste no longer,
Remove the hindrances that there have lain,
And let Thy Word go forth to conquer ;
Destroy false doctrine, root out notions vain,
Set free from hirelings, let the Church and school
Bloom as a garden 'neath thy prospering rule.

Wash'd in the blood that gushes
From out His wounded heart,
Wrapp'd in the peace that hushes
All earthly woe and smart,
Begin thy pilgrimage,
And seek, as more thou learnest,
With wisdom glad yet earnest,
Thy proper heritage.

Oh sweet shall sound the voices
That hail thee from above,
Where heaven's bright host rejoices
Before the Eternal Love:
"Now past is all thy strife,
And thou canst wander never,
Then blest the hour for ever
That call'd thee into life!"

Tune.—"Blessed Jesus, at Thy word."

Bless - - ed this Je - fus, here we stand,
And this child at Thy com - mand

Met to do as Thou haft spo - - ken,
Now we bring to Thee, in to - - ken

That to Christ it here is giv - - en,

For of such shall be His Hea - - ven.

BAPTISM.

Yes, Thy warning voice is plain,
And we fain would keep it duly,
“He who is not born again,
Heart and life renewing truly,
Born of water and the Spirit,
Will My kingdom ne’er inherit.”

Therefore hasten we to Thee,
Take the pledge we bring, oh take it!
Let us here Thy glory see,
And in tender pity make it
Now Thy child, and leave it never—
Thine on earth, and Thine for ever.

Turn the darkness into light,
To Thy grace receive and save it;
Heal the serpent’s venom’d bite,
In the font where now we lave it;
Let Thy Spirit pure and lowly
Banish thought or taint unholy.

Make it, Head, Thy member now,
Shepherd, take Thy lamb and feed it,
Prince of Peace, its peace be Thou,
Way of life, to Heaven oh lead it,
Vine, this branch may nothing sever,
Grafted firm in Thee for ever.

Now upon Thy heart it lies,
What our hearts so dearly treasure,
Heavenward lead our burden’d sighs,
Pour Thy blessing without measure,
Write the name we now have given,
Write it in the book of Heaven.

CONFIRMATION.

Thou our hearts prepare,
Shed Thy gladness there,
That we boldly may confess Thee
As our only Lord, and bless Thee
Whose most precious blood
Flow'd to work our good.

Draw our hearts above,
Fill them with Thy love,
So to keep the vows we offer,
Scorning all that earth can proffer,
Truly day by day
Walking in Thy way.

And as we draw near
For Thy blessing here,
May Thy grace in heavenly showers
Quicken all our inner powers,
And Thy light and peace
In our hearts increase.

Let Thy Spirit, Lord,
Promised in Thy Word,
Keep us steadfastly in union
With Thy faithful saints' communion,
Till in yon blest place
We behold Thy face !

CONFIRMATION.

My loving Father here doth take me
To be henceforth His child and heir ;
My faithful Saviour now doth make me
The fruit of all His sorrows share ;
My Comforter will comfort me
When darkest clouds around I see.

And I have vowed to fear and love Thee,
And to obey Thee, Lord, alone ;
I felt Thy Spirit inly move me,
And dared to pledge myself Thy own,
Renouncing sin to keep the faith,
And war with evil to the death.

My faithful God, Thou failest never,
Thy covenant surely will abide ;
Oh cast me not away for ever,
Should I transgress it on my side,
If I have sore my soul defiled,
Yet still forgive, restore Thy child.

Yea, all I am and love most dearly
To Thee I offer now the whole ;
Oh let me make my vows sincerely,
Take full possession of my soul,
Let nought within me, nought I own,
Serve any will but Thine alone.

And never let my purpose falter,
O Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
But keep me faithful to Thine altar,
Till Thou shalt call me from my post ;
So unto Thee I live and die,
And praise Thee evermore on high.

My God, Thou here hast led me
Within Thy temple's holiest place,
And there Thyself hast fed me
With all the treasures of Thy grace ;
Oh boundless is Thy kindness,
And righteous is Thy power,
While I in sinful blindness
Am erring hour by hour ;
And yet Thou comest, dost not spurn
A sinner, Lord, like me !
Ah how can I Thy love return,
What gift have I for Thee ?

A heart that hath repented,
And mourns for sin with bitter sighs,—
Thou, Lord, art well-contented
With this my only sacrifice.
I know that in my weakness
Thou wilt despise me not,
But grant me in Thy meekness
The favour I have sought ;
Yes, Thou wilt deign in grace to heed
The song that now I raise,
For meet and right is it indeed
That I should sing Thy praise.

Grant what I have partaken
May through Thy grace so work in me,
That sin be all forsaken,
And I may cleave alone to Thee,
And all my soul be heedful
How she Thy love may know,
For this alone is needful,
Thy love should in me glow ;
Then let no beauty please mine eyes,
No joy allure my heart,
But what in Thee, my Saviour, lies,
What Thou dost here impart.

O well for me that, strengthen'd
With heavenly food and comfort here,
Howe'er my course be lengthen'd,
I now may serve Thee free from fear.
Away then earthly pleasure,
All earthly gifts are vain,
I seek a heavenly treasure,
My home I long to gain,
Where I shall live and praise my God,
And none my peace destroy,
Where all the soul is overflow'd
With pure eternal joy.

HOLY COMMUNION.

For ever will I love Him
 Who saw my hopeless plight,
 Who felt my sorrows move Him,
 And brought me life and light ;
 Whose arm shall be around me
 When my last hour is come,
 And suffer none to wound me,
 Though dark the passage home.

He gives me pledges holy,
 His body and His blood,
 He lifts the scorn'd, the lowly,
 He makes my courage good,
 For He will reign within me,
 And shed His graces there ;
 The heaven He died to win me
 Can I then fail to share ?

In joy and sorrow ever
 Shine through me, Blessed Heart,
 Who bleeding for us, never
 Didst shrink from forest smart !
 Whate'er I've lov'd, or striven,
 Or borne, I bring to Thee,
 Now let Thy heart and heaven
 Stand open, Lord, to me.

BURIAL OF THE DEAD.

BURIAL OF THE DEAD.

And so to earth again we trust
What came from dust, and turns to dust,
And from the dust shall surely rise
When the last trumpet fills the skies.

His soul is living now in God
Whose grace his pardon hath bestow'd,
Who through His Son redeem'd him here
From bondage unto sin and fear.

His trials and his griefs are past,
A blessed end is his at last ;
He bore Christ's yoke, and did His will,
And though he died he liveth still.

He lives where none can mourn and weep,
And calmly shall this body sleep
Till God shall Death himself destroy
And raise it into glorious joy.

He suffer'd pain and grief below,
Christ heals him now from all his woe ;
For him hath endless joy begun ;
He shines in glory like the sun.

Then let us leave him to his rest,
And homeward turn, for he is blest,
And we must well our souls prepare,
When death shall come, to meet him there.

So help us, Christ, our Hope in loss !
Thou hast redeem'd us by Thy cross
From endless death and misery ;
We praise, we bless, we worship Thee !

BURIAL OF THE DEAD.

- 2 Coffin and grave we deck with care,
His body reverently we bear,
It is not dead but rests in God,
And softly sleeps beneath the sod.
 - 3 It seems as all were over now,—
The heavy limbs, the soulless brow,—
Yet through these rigid limbs once more
A nobler life, ere long, shall pour.
 - 4 These dead dry bones again shall feel
New warmth and vigour through them steal,
Reknit and living they shall soar
On high where Christ lives evermore.
 - 5 This body, lying stiff and stark,
Shall rise unharm'd from out the dark,
And swiftly mount up through the skies,
Even as the spirit heavenwards flies.
 - 6 The buried grain of wheat must die,
Wither'd and worthless long must lie,
Yet springs to light all sweet and fair,
And proper fruits shall richly bear:
 - 7 Even so this body made of dust,
To earth we once again entrust,
And painless it shall slumber here,
Until the Last Great Day appear.
 - 8 God breathed into this house of clay
The spirit that hath pass'd away,
Christ gave the true courageous mind,
The noble heart, ye no more find.
 - 9 Now earth has hid it from our eyes,
Till God shall bid it wake and rise,
Who ne'er the creature will forget,
On whom His image He hath set.
 - 10 Ah would that promised Day were here,
When Christ shall once again appear;
When He shall call, nor one be lost,
To endless life earth's buried host!

BURIAL OF THE DEAD.

He has what we are wanting,
He sees what we believe,
The sins on earth so haunting
Have there no power to grieve;
Safe in His Saviour's keeping,
Who sent him calm release,—
'Tis only we are weeping,
He dwells in perfect peace.

The crown of life he weareth,
He bears the shining palm,
The "Holy, holy," shareth,
And joins the angels' psalm;
But we poor pilgrims wander
Still through this land of woe,
Till we shall meet him yonder,
And all his joy shall know.

Enter thine eternal home ;"
Asking not if we can spare
This dear soul it summons there.
- 3 Had he ask'd us, well we know
We should cry, oh spare this blow !
Yes, with streaming tears should pray,
" Lord, we love him, let him stay ! "
- 4 But the Lord doth nought amiss,
And since He hath order'd this,
We have nought to do but still Rest in silence on His will.
- 5 Many a heart no longer here,
Ah ! was all too inly dear ;
Yet, O Love, 't is Thou dost call,
Thou wilt be our All in all.

WORD OF GOD.

(Index of Tunes, LXXXII.)

100.

Tune.—"Lord Jesus Christ, my Life, my Light."

O Christ, our true and on-ly Light, Il - lu - mine those who sit in night;

Let those a - far now hear Thy voice, And in Thy fold with us re - joice.

Fill with the radiance of Thy grace
The souls now lost in error's maze,
And all whom in their secret minds
Some dark delusion hurts and blinds.

And all who else have strayed from Thee,
Oh gently seek! Thy healing be
To every wounded conscience given,
And let them also share Thy heaven.

Oh make the deaf to hear Thy word,
And teach the dumb to speak, dear Lord,
Who dare not yet the faith avow,
Though secretly they hold it now.

Shine on the darkened and the cold,
Recall the wanderers from Thy fold,
Unite those now who walk apart,
Confirm the weak and doubting heart.

So they with us may evermore
Such grace with wondering thanks adore,
And endless praise to Thee be given
By all Thy Church in earth and heaven.

THE WORD OF GOD.

Falſe teachings now men ſpread abroad,
Mere ſchemes of men's invention,
Not grounded on God's own true Word,
And ſo they breed diſſenſion ;
Their outward ſeeming may be fair,
But one goes here, another there,
And rends the Church aſunder.

Therefore, faith God, I will ariſe,
Theſe men my poor are wronging,
I hear my people's bitter ſighs,
And I will grant their longing ;
My ſaving Word ſhall take the field,
Shall be the poor man's ſtrength and ſhield,
And all my foes ſhall conquer.

As ſilver that through fire hath paſſed
Is pure from all its drosses,
So ſhall God's Word ſhine forth at laſt
The brighter for theſe croſſes ;
Through trial is its power made known,
Till all men far and near ſhall own
How pure and ſtrong its glory.

Therefore, O God, preſerve it pure
From all that would abuſe it,
And in the Faith our hearts ſecure,
That we may never loſe it ;
For trouble and rebuke ſhall be
Among the people,—when we ſee
Ungodly men exalted.

Thy Word is like a flaming sword,
A sharp and mighty arrow,
A wedge that cleaves the rock, that Word
Can pierce through heart and marrow;
O fend it forth
O'er all the earth,
The darken'd heart to cleanse and win,
And shatter all the might of sin.

Thy Word, a wondrous Star, supplies
True guidance when we need it,
It points to Christ, it maketh wise
All simple hearts that heed it;
Let not its light
E'er sink in night,
But still in every spirit shine,
That none may miss that light divine.

THE WORD OF GOD.

(xxvii.—„Erhalt uns Herr bei Deinem Wort.“)

103.

Original Tune.

The musical score is written for a grand piano, featuring a treble and bass staff joined by a brace on the left. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is common time (C). The melody is primarily in the treble staff, with the bass staff providing harmonic support. The lyrics are printed below the notes.

Lord, keep us stead - fast in Thy word; Curb those who fain by craft or sword Would wrest the king - dom from Thy Son, And set at nought all He hath done.

Lord Jesu Christ, Thy power make known,
For Thou art Lord of lords alone;
Defend Thy Christendom, that we May evermore sing praise to Thee.

O Comforter, of priceless worth,
Send peace and unity on earth,
Support us in our final strife,
And lead us out of death to life.

He His Church hath firmly founded,
He will guard what He began;
We, by sin and foes surrounded,
Build her bulwarks as we can.

Frail and fleeting are our powers,
Short our days, our foresight dim,
And we own the choice not ours,
We were chosen first by Him.

Onward then! for nought despairing,
Calm we follow at His word,
Thus through joy and sorrow bearing
Faithful witnesses to our Lord.

Though we here must strive with weakness,
Though in tears we often bend,
What His might began in meekness
Shall achieve a glorious end.

THE CHURCH ON EARTH.

- 2 Children of His realm, draw near,
 Make your covenant stronger still,
From your hearts allegiance swear
 Unto Him who conquer'd ill.
If your bonds are yet too weak,
 If but fragile yet they prove,
Help from His good Spirit seek
 Who can steel the chains of love.
 - 3 Only such love will suffice,
 As the love that dwells in Him,
Love that from the cross ne'er flies,
 Love that spares not life or limb :
'T was for sinners He was slain,
 'T was for foes He shed His blood,
That His death for all might gain
 Endless life,—the Highest Good.
 - 4 Thus, O truest Friend, unite
 All Thy consecrated band,
That their hearts be set aright
 To fulfil Thy last command.
Each must onward urge his friend,
 Helping him in word and deed,
Love's blest pathway to ascend,
 Following where Thou dost lead.
 - 5 Thou who dost command that all
 Practise love who bear Thy name,
Wake the dead, new followers call,
 Touch the slothful with Thy flame.
Let us live, O Lord, at one,
 As Thou with the Father art,
That through all the world be none
 Of Thy members left apart.
 - 6 Then were given what Thou hast sought,
 In the Son were all men freed,
And the world at last were taught
 That Thy rule is blest indeed.
Father of all souls, we praise
 Thee who shinest in the Son ;
Lord, to Thee our hymns we raise,
 Who hast all men to Thee drawn !

THE CHURCH ON EARTH.

Let Thy living Spirit flow
Through Thy members all below,
 With its warmth and power divine ;
Scatter'd far apart they dwell,
Yet in every land, full well,
 Lord, Thou knowest who is Thine.

Those who serve Thee I would serve,
Never from their union swerve,
 Here I cry before Thy face,—
Zion, God give thee good speed,
Christ thy footsteps ever lead,
 Make thee steadfast in His ways ! ”

Those o'er whom Thy billows roll
Strengthen Thou to leave their soul
 In Thy hands, for Thou art Love ;
Make them through their bitter pain
Pure from pride and sinful stain,
 Fix their hopes and hearts above.

And from those I love, I pray,
Turn not, Lord, Thy face away,
 Hear me while for them I plead ;
Be Thou their Eternal Friend,
Unto each due blessing send,
 For Thou knowest all they need.

Ah Lord, at this gracious hour
Visit all our souls with power ;
 Let Thy gladness in them shine ;
Draw them with Thy love away
From vain pleasures of a day,
 Make them wholly ever Thine.

Dearly were we purchased, Lord,
When Thy blood for us was pour'd ;
 Think, O Christ, we are Thine own !
Hold me, guide me, as a child,
Through the battle, through the wild,
 Leave me never more alone,

8

Till at last I meet on high
With the faithful host who cry
 Hallelujah night and day ;
Pure from stain we there shall see
Thee in us, and us in Thee,
 And be one in Thee for aye.

PENITENCE.

(11.—„Ach Gott und Herr.“)

107.

Original Tune.

A - las! my God! my sins are great,

My con - science doth up - braid me;

And now I find that at my strait

No man hath pow'r to aid me.

PENITENCE.

And fled I hence, in my despair,
In some lone spot to hide me,
My griefs would still be with me there,
Thy hand still hold and guide me.

Nay, Thee I seek ;—I merit nought,
Yet pity and restore me ;
Be not Thy wrath, just God, my lot,
Thy Son hath suffer'd for me.

If pain and woe must follow sin,
Then be my path still rougher,
Here spare me not ; if heaven I win,
On earth I gladly suffer.

But curb my heart, forgive my guilt,
Make 'Thou my patience firmer,
For they must miss the good Thou wilt,
Who at Thy teachings murmur.

Then deal with me as seems Thee best,
Thy grace will help me bear it,
If but at last I see Thy rest,
And with my Saviour share it.

PENITENCE.

I see the threatening danger,
And shrink in sore alarm,
As were I yet a stranger
To Thy protecting arm ;
As though the woes that grieve me
To Thee were all unknown ;
Nor Thou wouldst then relieve me
When other aid is gone.

O Father, look upon me,
So tried within, without ;
With pitying grace look on me,
Forgive my faithless doubt ;
My heart for grief doth languish,
Thou seest it, my God !
O soothe my conscience' anguish,
Lift off my sorrows' load.

I know Thy thoughts are ever
Of peace and love towards me,
Thy purpose changes never,
Could I but build on Thee !
That Thou fulfillest surely
Thy promises, dear Lord,
Here I can stand securely,
My life is in Thy Word

Then let thy faith be stronger,
My soul, shake off thy fears ;
Thou soon shalt weep no longer
Though bitter now thy tears ;
Thy Saviour's love hath found thee,
He comes, He comes at last ;
His light is breaking round thee,
The clouds and storms are past !

Sin of courage hath bereft me,
And hath left me
Scarce a spark of faith or hope;
Bitter tears my heart oft sheddeth
As it dreadeth
I am past Thy mercy's scope.

PENITENCE.

Peace I cannot find, oh take me,
Lord, and make me
From the yoke of evil free ;
Calm this longing never-sleeping,
Still my weeping,
Grant me hope once more in Thee.

Lord, wilt Thou be wroth for ever ?
Oh deliver
Me from all I most deserved ;
'Tis Thyself, dear Lord, hast sought me,
Thou hast taught me
Thee to seek from whom I swerved.

Thou, my God and King, hast known me,
Yet hast shown me
True and loving is Thy will ;
Though my heart from Thee oft ranges,
Through its changes,
Lord, Thy love is faithful still.

Bless my trials thus to sever
Me for ever
From the love of self and sin ;
Let me through them see Thee clearer,
Find Thee nearer,
Grow more like to Thee within.

In the patience that Thou lendest
All Thou sendest
I embrace, I will be still ;
Bend this stubborn heart, I pray Thee,
To obey Thee,
Calmly waiting on Thy will.

Here I bring my will, oh take it,
Thine, Lord, make it,
Calm this troubled heart of mine ;
In Thy strength I too may conquer,
Wait no longer,
Show in me Thy grace Divine.

PENITENCE.

True, I have transgress'd Thy will,
Oft have grieved Thee by my sin,
Yet I know Thou lov'st me still,
For I hear Thy voice within ;
Then, though sin accuses me,
Jefus, I will cleave to Thee.

Here the Christians oft must bear
Many a crofs and bitter smart ;
If their lot in this I share,
Shall I waver or depart ?
Loyal still my heart shall be,
Jefus, still I cleave to Thee.

Well I know this life of ours
Is but as a fleeting dream ;
Round us darknefs ever lowers,
Death is nearer than we deem ;
Who knows what to-day may fee ?
Jefus, I will cleave to Thee.

If I die, I do but ceafe
Sooner from this toil and care,
And I reft in perfect peace
In the grave, fince Thou wert there ;
There Thy light fhall comfort me,
There too I will cleave to Thee.

Then, Lord Jefu, Thou art mine,
Till Thou bring me to that place
Where I fhall for ever fhine
In Thy light, and fee Thy face :
Bleffed will that haven be !
Jefus, I will cleave to Thee.

III.

Tune.—"Heart and heart together bound."

Thou who break-est ev' - ry chain, Thou who still art ev - er near,
Thou with whom dis-grace and pain Turn to joy and heav'n e'en here ;

Let Thy fur-ther judg - ments fall On the A - dam strong with - in,

Till Thy grace hath freed us all From the pri - son - house of sin.

2 'Tis Thy Father's will towards us
Thou shouldst end Thy work at length ;
Hence in Thee are centred thus
Perfect wisdom, love, and strength,
That Thou none shouldst lose of those Whom He gave Thee, though they roam
'Wilder'd here amid their foes,
Thou shouldst bring them safely home.

PENITENCE.

- 3 Look upon our bonds, and see
How doth all creation groan
'Neath the yoke of vanity,
Make Thy full redemption known.
Still we wrestle, cry, and pray,
Held in bitter bondage fast,
Though the soul would break away
Into higher things at last.
- 4 Lord, we do not ask for rest
For the flesh, we only pray
Thou wouldst do as seems Thee best,
Ere yet comes our parting day ;
But our spirit clings to Thee,
Will not, dare not, let Thee go,
Until Thou have set her free
From the bonds that cause her woe.
- 5 Ours the fault it is, we own,
We are slaves to self and sloth,
Yet oh leave us not alone
In the living death we loathe !
Crush'd beneath our burden's weight,
Crying at Thy feet we fall,
Point the path, though steep and strait,
Thou didst open once for all.
- 6 Ah how dearly were we bought
Not to serve the world or sin ;
By the work that Thou hast wrought
Must Thou make us pure within,
Wholly pure and free,—in us
Be Thine image now restored :
Fill'd from out Thy fulness thus
Grace for grace on us is pour'd.
- 7 Draw us to Thy cross, O Love,
Crucify with Thee whate'er
Cannot dwell with Thee above ;
Lead us to those regions fair !
Courage ! long the time may seem,
Yet His day is coming fast ;
We shall be like them that dream
When our freedom dawns at last.

PENITENCE.

My sin is very fore and great,
I weep and mourn its load beneath ;
O free me from this heavy weight,
My Saviour, through Thy precious death ;
And with my Father for me plead
That Thou hast suffer'd in my stead ;
From me the burden then is roll'd,
And I lay hold
On Thy dear promises of old.

And of Thy mercy now bestow
True Christian faith on me, O Lord !
That all the sweetness I may know
That in Thy holy cross is stored ;
Love Thee o'er earthly pride or pelf,
And love my neighbour as myself ;
And when at last is come my end,
Be Thou my Friend,
From all assaults my soul defend.

Glory to God in highest heaven,
The Father of eternal love ;
To His dear Son, for sinners given,
Whose watchful grace we daily prove ;
To God the Holy Ghost on high ;
Oh ever be His comfort nigh,
And teach us, free from sin and fear,
To please Him here,
And serve Him in the sinless sphere !

PENITENCE.

Since but the pure in heart are blest
With promised vision of their God,
Sore fear and anguish fill my breast,
Rememb'ring all the ways I trod ;
Mourning I see my lost estate,
And yet in faith I dare to cry,
Oh let my evil nature die,
Another heart in me create !

Enough, Lord, that my foe too well
Hath lured me once away from Thee ;
Henceforth I know his craft how fell,
And all his deep-laid snares I flee.
Lord, through the Spirit whom Thy Son
Hath bidden us in prayer to ask,
Arm us with might that every task,
Whate'er we do, in Thee be done.

Unworthy am I of Thy grace,
So deep are my transgressions, Lord,
And yet once more I seek Thy face ;
My God, have mercy, nor reward
My sins and follies, dark and vain ;
Reject, reject me not in wrath,
But let Thy sunshine now beam forth,
And quicken me with hope again.

The Holy Spirit Thou hast given,
The wondrous pledge of love divine,
Who fills our hearts with joys of heaven,
And bids us earthly toys resign ;
Oh let His seal be on my heart,
Oh take Him nevermore away,
Until this fleshly house decay,
And Thou shalt bid me hence depart.

But ah ! my coward spirit droops,
Sick with the fear that enters in
Whene'er a soul to bondage stoops,
And wears the shameful yoke of sin ;
Oh quicken with the strength that flows
From out the Eternal Fount of Life,
My soul half-fainting in the strife,
And make an end of all my woes.

I cling unto Thy grace alone,
Thy steadfast oath my only rest ;
To Thee, Heart-searcher, all is known
That lieth hidden in my breast ;
Thy joy, O Spirit, on me pour,
Thy fervent will my sloth inspire,
So shall I have my heart's desire,
And serve and praise Thee evermore.

PRAYER.

The third system continues the melody and harmony. The lyrics are: "And cry for all we need to Thee; Teach us to".

mean the words we say, And from the in - most heart to pray.

The fourth system concludes the hymn. The lyrics are: "mean the words we say, And from the in - most heart to pray.".

PRAYER.

All hallow'd be Thy name, O Lord !
Oh let us firmly keep Thy Word,
And lead, according to Thy name,
A holy life, untouch'd by blame ;
Let no false teachings do us hurt—
All poor deluded souls convert.

Thy kingdom come ! Thine let it be
In time, and through eternity !
Oh let Thy Holy Spirit dwell
With us, to rule and guide us well ;
From Satan's mighty power and rage
Preserve Thy Church from age to age.

Thy will be done on earth, O Lord,
As where in heaven Thou art adored !
Patience in time of grief bestow,
Obedience true through weal and woe ;
Strength, tempting wishes to control
That thwart Thy will within the soul.

Give us to-day our daily bread,
Let us be duly clothed and fed,
And keep Thou from our homes afar
Famine and pestilence and war,
That we may live in godly peace,
Unvex'd by cares and avarice.

Forgive our sins, that they no more
May grieve and haunt us as before,
As we forgive their trespasses
Who unto us have done amiss ;
Thus let us dwell in charity,
And serve each other willingly.

Into temptation lead us not,
And when the foe doth war and plot
Against our souls on every hand,
Then, arm'd with faith, oh may we stand
Against him as a valiant host,
Through comfort of the Holy Ghost.

Deliver us from evil, Lord,
The days are dark and foes abroad ;
Redeem us from the second death,
And when we yield our dying breath,
Console us, grant us calm release,
And take our souls to Thee in peace.

Amen ! that is, so let it be !
Strengthen our faith and trust in Thee,
That we may doubt not, but believe
That what we ask we shall receive ;
Thus in Thy name and at Thy word
We say Amen, now hear us, Lord !

PRAYER.

blame, A foul un - hurt by sin.

The fourth system concludes the hymn. The lyrics are: "blame, A foul un - hurt by sin.".

PRAYER.

And grant me, Lord, to do,
With ready heart and willing,
Whate'er Thou shalt command,
My calling here fulfilling,
And do it when I ought,
With all my strength, and blefs
The work I thus have wrought,
For Thou must give fucces.

And let me promise nought
But I can keep it truly,
Abstain from idle words,
And guard my lips still duly ;
And grant, when in my place
I must and ought to speak,
My words due power and grace,
Nor let me wound the weak.

If dangers gather round,
Still keep me calm and fearless ;
Help me to bear the cross
When life is dark and cheerless ;
To overcome my foe
With words and actions kind ;
When counsel I would know,
Good counsel let me find.

And let me be with all
In peace and friendship living,
As far as Christians may.
And if Thou aught art giving
Of wealth and honours fair,
Oh this refuse me not,
That nought be mingled there
Of goods unjustly got.

And if a longer life
Be here on earth decreed me,
And Thou through many a strife
To age at last wilt lead me,
Thy patience in me shed,
Avert all sin and shame,
And crown my hoary head
With pure untarnish'd fame.

Let nothing that may chance,
Me from my Saviour sever ;
And dying with Him, take
My soul to Thee for ever ;
And let my body have
A little space to sleep
Beside my fathers' grave,
And friends that o'er it weep

And when the Day is come,
And all the dead are waking,
Oh reach me down Thy hand,
Thyself my slumbers breaking ;
Then let me hear Thy voice,
And change this earthly frame,
And bid me aye rejoice
With those who love Thy name.

PRAYER.

(XLVI.—„Ich ruf' zu Dir Herr Jesu Christ.“)

116.

Original Tune.

Lord, hear the voice of and my com - plaint, To Let not my heart and hope grow faint, But

Thee I now com - mend me, 'True faith from Thee, my God, I seek,
deign Thy grace to send me;

The faith that loves Thee sole - ly, Keeps me low - ly, And prompt to aid the weak, And mark each word that Thou dost speak.

PRAYER.

Yet more from Thee I dare to claim,
Whose goodness is unbounded ;
Oh let me ne'er be put to shame,
My hope be ne'er confounded ;
But e'en in death still find Thee true,
And in that hour, else lonely,
Trust Thee only,
Not aught that I can do,
For such false trust I fore should rue.

Oh grant that from my very heart
My foes be all forgiven,
Forgive my sins and heal their smart,
And grant new life from heaven ;
Thy word, that blessed food, bestow,
Which best the soul canst nourish ;
Make it flourish
Through all the forms of woe
That else my faith might overthrow.

Then be the world my foe or friend,
Keep me to her a stranger,
Thy steadfast soldier to the end,
Through pleasure and through danger ;
From Thee alone comes such high grace,
No works of ours obtain it,
Or can gain it ;
Our pride hath here no place,
'Tis Thy free promise we embrace.

Help me, for I am weak ; I fight,
Yet scarce can battle longer ;
I cling but to Thy grace and might,
'Tis Thou must make me stronger ;
When sore temptations are my lot,
And tempests round me lower,
Break their power.
So, through deliverance wrought,
I know that Thou forsak'st me not !

PRAYER.

(XXIII.—„Dir dir Jehovah will ich fingen.“)

117.

Original Tune.

Je - ho - vah, let me now a - dore Thee,
With fongs I fain would come be - fore Thee;

For where is there a God fuch, Lord, as Thou?
Oh let Thy Spi - rit deign to teach me now

To praife Thee in His name, through whom a - lone

Our fongs can please Thee, through Thy bleff - ed Son.

PRAAYER.

- 2 Yes, draw me to the Son, O Father,
That so the Son may draw me up to Thee.
Let every power within me gather,
To own Thy sway, O Spirit,—rule in me,
That so the peace of God may in me dwell,
And I may sing for joy and praise Thee well.
- 3 Grant me Thy Spirit; then my praises
Will sound aright, no jarring tone or word;
Sweet are the songs the heart then raises,
Then I can pray in truth and spirit, Lord;
Thy Spirit bears mine up on eagles' wing,
To join the psalms the heavenly choirs now sing.
- 4 For He can plead for me with sighings
That are unutterable to lips like mine;
He bids me pray with earnest cryings,
Bears witness with my soul that I am Thine,
Co-heir with Christ, and thus may dare to say,
O Abba, Father, hear me when I pray.
- 5 When thus Thy Spirit in me burneth,
And makes this cry to break from out my heart,
Thy heart, O Father, toward me yearneth,
And longs all precious blessings to impart,
Thy ready love rejoiceth to fulfil
The prayer breathed out according to Thy will.
- 6 And what Thy Spirit thus hath taught me
To seek from Thee, must needs be such a prayer
As Thou wilt grant, through Him who bought me,
And raised me up to be Thy child and heir;
In Jesu's name fearless I seek Thy face,
And take from Thee, my Father, grace for grace.
- 7 O joy! our hope and trust are founded
On His sure Word, and witness in the heart;
I know Thy mercies are unbounded,
And all good gifts Thou freely wilt impart,
Nay, more is lavish'd by Thy bounteous hand,
Than we can ask or seek or understand.
- 8 O joy! In His name we draw near Thee,
Who ever pleadeth for the sons of men;
I ask in faith and Thou wilt hear me,
In Him Thy promises are all Amen.
O joy for me! and praise be ever Thine,
Whose wondrous love has made such blessings mine!

Tune.—"Lord Jesus Christ, be present now."

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It consists of three systems of music. Each system has a grand staff with a treble and bass clef. The key signature is one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is common time (C). The lyrics are written below the notes. The first system ends with a double bar line. The second system ends with a double bar line. The third system ends with a double bar line.

O God, I long Thy Light to see, My God, I hour - ly think on Thee; Oh draw me up, nor hide Thy face, But help me from Thy ho - ly place.

As toward her sun the sunflower turns,
Towards Thee, my Sun, my spirit yearns;
Oh would that free from sin I might Thus follow evermore Thy Light!

But sin hath so within me wrought,
Such deadly sickness on me brought,
My languid soul sits drooping here
And cannot reach the heavenly sphere.

PRAYER.

Ah how shall I my freedom win?
How break this heavy yoke of sin?
My fainting spirit thirsts for Thee,
Come, Lord, to help and set me free.

My heart is set to do Thy will,
But all my deeds are faulty still;
My best attempts are nothing worth,
But foil'd with cleaving taint of earth.

Remember that I am Thy child,
Forgive whate'er my soul defiled,
Blot out my sins, that I may rise
Freely to Thee beyond the skies.

Help me to love the world no more,
Be Master of my house and store,
The shield of faith around me throw,
And break the arrows of my foe.

Fain would my heart henceforward be
Fix'd, O my God, alone on Thee,
That heart and soul, by Thee possesst,
May find in Thee their perfect rest.

Begone, ye pleasures false and vain,
Untasted, undesired remain!
In heaven alone those joys abound,
Where all my true delight is found.

10

Oh take away whate'er has stood
Between me and the Highest Good;
I ask no better boon than this,
To find in God my only bliss.

PRAYER.

 Lord ! My God and Lord ! For - sake me not who trust Thy word !

Rich are Thy gifts ! 'Twas God that gave Body and soul, and all I have
 In this poor life of labour ;
 Oh grant that I may through Thy grace
 Use all my powers to show Thy praise,
 And serve and help my neighbour ;
 From all false doctrine keep me, Lord ;
 All lies and malice from me ward ;
 In every cross uphold Thou me,
 That I may bear it patiently ;
 Lord Jesus Christ !
 My God and Lord ! My God and Lord !
 In death Thy comfort still afford.

Ah Lord, let Thy dear angels come
 At my last end, to bear me home,
 That I may die unfearing ;
 And in its narrow chamber keep
 My body safe in painless sleep
 Until my Lord's appearing ;
 And then from death awaken me,
 That these mine eyes with joy may see,
 O Son of God, Thy glorious face,
 My Saviour, and my Fount of Grace !
 Lord Jesus Christ !
 Receive my prayer, receive my prayer,
 Thy love will I for aye declare.

Original Tune.

In Thee, Lord, have I put my trust,

Leave me not help - less in the dust, Let not my hope be brought to shame, But still sus - tain, Through want and pain, My faith that Thou art aye the same.

PRAYER.

Incline a gracious ear to me,
And hear the prayers I raise to Thee,
Show forth Thy power and haste to save !
For woes and fear
Surround me here,
Oh swiftly send the help I crave !

My God and Shield, now let Thy power
Be unto me a mighty tower,
Whence I may freely, bravely, fight
Against the foes
That round me close,
For fierce are they and great their might.

Thy Word hath said, Thou art my Rock,
The Stronghold that can fear no shock,
My help, my safety, and my life,
Howe'er distress
And dangers press ;
What then shall daunt me in the strife ?

The world for me hath falsely set
Full many a secret snare and net,
Dark lies, delusions sweet and vain ;
Lord, hear my prayers,
And break these snares,
And make my path before me plain.

With Thee, Lord, would I cast my lot ;
My God, my God, forsake me not,
O faithful God, for I commend
My soul to Thee ;
Deliver me
Both now, and when this life must end.

PRAYER.

It stands not in the power of man
To bring to pass the wisest plan
So surely that it cannot fail ;
Thy counsel, Highest, must ensure
That our poor wisdom shall avail.

A man oft thinks within his breast,
That lot for him were surely best,
This, that his Father may ordain,
Were hurtful ;—yet, behold, it proves
‘This is his blessing, that his bane.

Then, O my Father, hear my cry,
Grant me true judgment from on high,
On my own will I would not build ;
Be Thou my Friend and Counsellor,
So what is best shall be fulfilled.

And if this work be Thine, oh bless
Our poor weak efforts with success ;
If not, deny it, change our mind,—
Whate’er Thou workest not will soon
Disperse like sand before the wind.

Grant us what is our truest good,
And not what pleases flesh and blood ;
Our inmost spirits do Thou prove,
Our highest aim, our best delight,
Shall be Thy glory and Thy love.

Tears fast throng-ing, child-like long-ing, Son of Man, to Thee I bring.

Let me find Thee— let me find Thee ! - Me ^a poor and worthless thing.

2 Look upon me, Lord, I pray Thee,
Let Thy Spirit dwell in mine ;
Thou hast sought me, Thou hast bought me,
Only Thee to know I pine ;
Let me find Thee—let me find Thee !
Take my heart and grant me Thine.

3 Nought I ask for, nought I strive for,
But Thy grace so rich and free,
That Thou givest whom Thou lovest,
And who truly cleave to Thee ;
Let me find Thee—let me find Thee !
He hath all things who hath Thee.

4 Earthly treasure, mirth and pleasure,
Glorious name, or richest hoard,
Are but weary, void and dreary,
To the heart that longs for God ;
Let me find Thee—let me find Thee !
I am ready, mighty Lord.

Tune.—"Lord, keep us steadfast in Thy Word."

Faith is a liv - ing power from heav'n That grasps the prom - ise God hath given, A trust that can - not be o'er - thrown, Fix'd heart - i - ly on Christ a - lone.

2 Faith finds in Christ whate'er we need
To save or strengthen us indeed,
Receives the grace He sends us down,
And makes us share His cross and crown.

3 Faith in the conscience worketh peace,
And bids the mourner's weeping cease;
By Faith the children's place we claim,
And give all honour to One Name.

4 Faith feels the Spirit's kindling breath
In love and hope that conquer death;
Faith worketh hourly joy in God,
And trusts and blesses e'en the rod.

5 We thank Thee then, O God of heaven,
That Thou to us this faith hast given
In Jesus Christ Thy Son, who is
Our only Fount and Source of bliss

6 Now from His fulness grant each soul
The rightful faith's true end and goal,
The blessedness no foes destroy,
Eternal love and light and joy.

Through our own force we nothing can,
 Straight were we loft for ever ;
 But for us fights the proper Man,
 By God sent to deliver.
 Ask ye who this may be ?
 Jesus Christ is He,
 Of Sabaoth Lord,
 Sole God to be adored—
 'T is He must win the battle.

And were the world with devils fill'd,
 All eager to devour us,
 Our souls to fear should little yield,
 They cannot overpower us.
 Their dreaded Prince no more
 Harms us as of yore ;
 Look grim as he may,
 Doom'd is his ancient sway,
 A word can overthrow him.

Still shall they leave that Word His might
 And yet no thanks shall merit ;
 Still is He with us in the fight,
 By His good gifts and Spirit.
 E'en should they take our life,
 Wealth, name, child, or wife—
 Though all these be gone,
 Yet nothing have they won,
 God's kingdom ours abideth !

Tune.—"Not in anger, Mighty God."

The musical score is written for a piano accompaniment in G major (one sharp) and 4/2 time. It consists of three systems of staves. The first system contains the first line of the hymn, the second system contains the second line, and the third system contains the third line. The lyrics are printed below the notes.

Wake and watch, or else thy night
Christ can ne'er enlighten;
Far off still will seem the light
That thy path should brighten;
God demands
Willing hands,
Hearts His love confessing,—
Such He fills with blessing.

CHRISTIAN FAITH AND RESOLVE.

Watch against the world that frowns
Darkly to dismay thee ;
Watch, when she thy wishes crowns,
Smiling to betray thee ;
Watch and see
Thou art free
From false friends that charm thee,
While they seek to harm thee.

Watch against thyself, my soul,
See thou do not stifle
Grace that should thy thoughts control,
Nor with mercy trifle ;
Pride and sin
Lurk within,
All thy hopes to scatter ;
Lift not, when they flatter.

But while watching, also see
That thou pray unceasing,
For the Lord must make thee free,
Strength and faith increasing,
So to do
Service true ;
Let not sloth enslave thee,
Pray, and He will save thee.

Courage then, for He will give
All that we are needing,
Through the Son, in whom we live,
Who for us is pleading.
Day by day
Watch and pray,
While the tempests lower, .
Till He comes with power.

CHRISTIAN FAITH AND RESOLVE.

His arms are open, thither flee !
There rest and peace are waiting thee,
The deathless crown of righteousness,
The entrance to eternal bliss ;
He gives thee this !

Then combat well, of nought afraid,
For thus His follower thou art made,
Each battle teaches thee to fight,
Each foe to be a braver knight,
Arm'd with His might.

If storms of fierce temptation rise,
Unmoved I'll face the frowning skies ;
If but the heart is true indeed,
Christ will be with me in my need,—
His own could bleed.

I flee away to Thy dear cross,
For hope is there for every loss,
Healing for every wound and woe,
There all the strength of love I know,
And feel its glow.

Before the Holy One I fall,
The Eternal Sacrifice for all ;
His death has freed us from our load,
Peace on the anguish'd soul bestow'd,
Brought us to God.

How then should I go mourning on ?
I look to Thee,—my fears are gone,
With Thee is rest that cannot cease,
For Thou hast wrought us full release,
And made our peace.

8

Thy word hath still its glorious powers,
The noblest chivalry is ours ;
O Thou, for whom to die is gain,
I bring Thee here my all, oh deign
T'accept and reign !

CHRISTIAN FAITH AND RESOLVE.

My sins are more than I can bear,
Yet not for this will I despair,
I know to death and to the grave
The Father gave
His dearest Son, that He might save.

To Him I live and die alone,
Death cannot part Him from His own ;
Living or dying, I am His
Who only is
Our comfort, and our gate of bliss.

This is my solace, day by day,
When snares and death beset my way,
I know that at the morn of doom
From out the tomb
With joy to meet Him I shall come.

Then I shall see God face to face,
I doubt it not, through Jesu's grace,
Amid the joys prepared for me !
Thanks be to Thee
Who givest us the victory !

Amen, dear God ! now send us faith,
And at the last a happy death ;
And grant us all ere long to be
In heaven with Thee,
To praise Thee there eternally.

Wars with evil day and night,
Changes not for fear or favour,
Only cares to win the fight.

- 5 Perfect truth will love to follow
Watchfully our Master's ways;
Seeks not comfort poor and hollow,
Looks not for reward or praise.
- 6 Perfect truth from worldly pleasure,
Worldly turmoil, stands apart;
For in heaven is hid our treasure,
There must also be the heart.
- 7 Soldiers of the Cross, take courage!
Watch and war 'mid fear and pain;
Daily conquering sin and sorrow,
Till our King o'er earth shall reign.

CHRISTIAN FAITH AND RESOLVE.

(XLIII.—„Höchster Priester, der Du Dich.“)

129.

Original Tune.

Great High - priest, who deign'dst to be Once the fa - cri - fice for me, Take this liv - ing heart of mine, Lay it on Thy ho - ly shrine.

Love I know accepteth nought,
Save what Thou, O Love, hast wrought;
Offer Thou my sacrifice,
Else to God it cannot rise.

Slay in me the wayward will,
Earthly sense and passion kill,
Tear self-love from out my heart,
Though it cost me bitter smart.

Kindle, Mighty Love, the pyre,
Quick consume me in Thy fire,
Fain were I of self bereft,
Nought but Thee within me left.

So may God, the Righteous, brook
On my sacrifice to look,
In whose sight no gift has worth
Save a Christ-like life on earth.

CHRISTIAN FAITH AND RESOLVE.

He who hitherto hath fed me,
And to many a joy hath led me,
Is and shall be ever mine ;
He who did so gently school me,
He who still doth guide and rule me,
Will not leave me now to pine.

Shall I weary me with fretting
O'er vain trifles, and regretting
Things that never can remain ?
I will strive but that to win me
That can shed true rest within me,
Rest the world must seek in vain.

When my heart with longing sickens,
Hope again my courage quickens,
For my wish shall be fulfill'd,
If it please His love most tender ;
Life and soul I all surrender
Unto Him on whom I build.

Well He knows how best to grant me
All the longing hopes that haunt me ;
All things have their proper day ;
I would dictate to Him never,
As God wills so be it ever,
When He wills I will obey.

If on earth He bids me linger,
He will guide me with His finger
Through the years that now look dim ;
All that earth has fleets and changes
As a river onward ranges,
But I rest in peace on Him.

CHRISTIAN FAITH AND RESOLVE.

Hath my heart been wavering long,
Have I dallied oft with wrong,
Now at last I firmly say,—
All my will to this I give,
Only to my God to live,
And to serve Him night and day.

Lord, I offer at Thy feet
All I have most dear and sweet,
Lo ! I keep no secret hoard :
Try my heart, and lurks there aught
False within its inmost thought,
Take it hence this moment, Lord !

I will shun no toil or wo,
Where Thou leadest I will go,
Be my pathway plain or rough ;
If but every hour may be
Spent in work that pleases Thee,
Ah, dear Lord, it is enough !

Thee I make my choice alone,
Make for ever, Lord, Thine own
All my powers of soul and mind ;
Here I give myself away,
Let the cov'nant stand for aye
That my hand to-day hath sign'd.

132.

Original Tune.

Well for him who all things los-ing, E'en him-self doth count as nought,

Still the one thing need-ful choof-ing, That with all true blifs is fraught!

Well for him who nothing knoweth
But his God, whose boundless love
Makes the heart wherein it gloweth
• Calm and pure as saints above!

Well for him who all forsaking
Walketh not in shadows vain,
But the path of peace is taking
Through this vale of tears and pain!

Oh that we our hearts might sever
From earth's tempting vanities,
Fixing them on Him for ever
In whom all our fulness lies!

Oh that ne'er our eyes might wander
From our God, so might we cease
Ever o'er our sins to ponder,
And our conscience be at peace!

Thou abyfs of love and goodness,
Draw us by Thy cross to Thee,
That our senses, soul, and spirit,
Ever one with Christ may be!

Tune.—“Deal with me, God, in mercy now.”

The musical score is written for a piano accompaniment. It consists of three systems of music, each with a treble and bass staff joined by a brace. The key signature is two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is common time (C). The melody is primarily in the treble staff, with the bass staff providing harmonic support. The lyrics are written below the notes.

My God, in Thee all ful - nefs lies, All want in
In Thee my foul hath end - lefs joys, In me is me, from Thee a - part; Poor as the poor - est here I

but an ach - ing heart;

pine, In Thee a heav'n - ly king - dom's mine.

2 Thou see'st whatsoe'er I need,
Thou see'st it, and pitiest me;
Thy swift compassions hither speed,
Ere yet my woes are told to Thee;
Thou hearest, Father, ere we cry,
Shall I not still before Thee lie?

3 I leave to Thee whate'er is mine,
And in Thy will I calmly rest;
I know that richest gifts are Thine,
Thou canst and Thou wilt make me blest,
For Thou hast promised, and our Lord
Will never break His promised word.

4 Thou lov'st me, Father, with the love
Wherewith Thou loved'st Christ Thy Son,
And so a brightness from above
Still glads me though my tears may run,
For in Thy love I find and know
What all the world could ne'er bestow.

5 Then I can let the world go by,
And yet be still and rest in Thee,
I sit, I walk, I stand, I lie,
Thou ever watchest over me,
And when the yoke is pressing sore
I think, my God lives evermore!

If thou but suf - fer God to guide thee,
He'll give thee strength what - e'er be - tide thee,

And hope in Him through all thy ways,
And bear thee through the e - vil days.

SONGS OF THE CROSS AND CONSOLATION.

What can these anxious cares avail thee,
These never-ceasing moans and sighs ?
What can it help, if thou bewail thee
O'er each dark moment as it flies ?
Our cross and trials do but press
The heavier for our bitterness.

Only be still and wait His leisure
In cheerful hope, with heart content
To take whatever thy Father's pleasure
And all-deserving love hath sent,
Nor doubt our inmost wants are known
To Him who chose us for His own.

He knows the time for joy, and truly
Will send it when He sees it meet,
When He has tried and purged thee thoroughly
And finds thee free from all deceit,
He comes to thee all unaware
And makes thee own His loving care.

Nor think amid the heat of trial
That God hath cast thee off unheard,
That he whose hopes meet no denial
Must surely be of God preferred ;
Time passes and much change doth bring,
And sets a bound to everything.

All are alike before the Highest.
'Tis easy to our God, we know,
To raise thee up though low thou liest,
To make the rich man poor and low ;
True wonders still by Him are wrought
Who setteth up and brings to nought.

Sing, pray, and keep His ways unswerving,
So do thine own part faithfully,
And trust His Word, though undeserving,
Thou yet shalt find it true for thee ;
God never yet forsook at need
The soul that trusted Him indeed.

SONGS OF THE CROSS AND CONSOLATION.

- 2 Whate'er my God ordains is right,
 He never will deceive me ;
 He leads me by the proper path,
 I know He will not leave me,
 And take content
 What He hath sent ;
 His hand can turn my griefs away,
 And patiently I wait His day.
- 3 Whate'er my God ordains is right,
 His loving thought attends me ;
 No poison'd draught the cup can be
 That my Physician sends me,
 But medicine due ;
 For God is true,
 And on that changeless truth I build,
 And all my heart with hope is fill'd.
- 4 Whate'er my God ordains is right,
 Though now this cup in drinking
 May bitter seem to my faint heart,
 I take it all unshrinking ;
 Tears pass away
 With dawn of day,
 Sweet comfort yet shall fill my heart,
 And pain and sorrow shall depart.
- 5 Whate'er my God ordains is right,
 Here shall my stand be taken ;
 Though sorrow, need, or death be mine,
 Yet am I not forsaken,
 My Father's care
 Is around me there,
 He holds me that I shall not fall,
 And so to Him I leave it all.

The fourth system concludes the hymn. The lyrics are: "heav'n I gain! How hard to teach this flesh and blood".

SONGS OF THE CROSS AND CONSOLATION.

2 Ah whither now for comfort turn ?
For Thee, my Jesus, do I yearn,
In Thee have I, howe'er distressed,
Found ever counsel, aid, and rest ;
I cannot all forsaken be
While still my heart can trust in Thee.

3 Jesus, my only God and Lord,
What sweetness in Thy name is stored !
So dark and hopeless is no grief
But Thy sweet Name can bring relief,
So keen no sorrows' rankling dart
But Thy sweet Name can heal my heart.

4 The world can show no truth like Thine,
And therefore will I not repine ;
I know Thou wilt forsake me not,
Thy truth is fix'd, though dark my lot ;
Thou art my Shepherd, and Thy sheep
From every real harm Thou wilt keep.

5 Jesus, my boast, my light, my joy,
The treasure nought can e'er destroy,
No words, no song that I can frame
Speak half the sweetness of Thy name ;
They only all its power shall prove
Whose hearts have learnt Thy faith and love.

6 How many a time I've sadly said,
Far better were it I were dead,
Far better ne'er the light to see
If I had not this joy in Thee ;
For he who hath not Thee in faith,
His very life is merely death.

7 Jesus, my Bridegroom and my crown,
If Thou but smile, the world may frown
In Thee lie depths of joy untold,
Far richer than her richest gold ;
Whene'er I do but think of Thee,
Thy dew drops down and solace me ;

8 Whene'er I hope in Thee, my Friend
Thy comfort and Thy peace descend ;
Whene'er in grief I pray and sing,
I feel new courage in me spring ;
Thy Spirit witnesses that this
Is foretaste of the eternal bliss.

9 Then while I live this life of care
The cross for Thee I'll gladly bear
Grant me a patient, willing mood,
I know that it shall work my good ;
Help me to do my task aright,
That it may stand before Thy sight .

10 Let me this flesh and blood control,
From sin and shame preserve my soul,
And keep me steadfast in the faith,
Then I am Thine in life and death ;
Jesus, Comforter, bend to me,
Ah would I were e'en now with Thee !

SONGS OF THE CROSS AND CONSOLATION.

- 2 Do with me as it pleases
Thy heart, O Son of God ;
When anguish on me seizes,
Help me to bear my load ;
Nor then my sorrows lengthen,
But take me hence on high ;
My fearful heart, oh strengthen,
And let me calmly die.
- 3 When all around is darkling,
Thy name and cross, still bright,
Deep in my heart are sparkling,
Like stars in blackest night ;
Appear Thou in Thy sorrow,
For Thine was woe indeed,
And from Thy cross I borrow
All comfort heart can need.
- 4 Thou diedst for me,—oh hide me
When tempests round me roll ;
Through all my foes, oh guide me,
Receive my trembling soul :
If I but grasp Thee firmer,
What matters pain when past ?
Hath he a cause to murmur
Who reaches heaven at last ?
- 5 Oh write my name, I pray Thee,
Now in the book of life ;
So let me here obey Thee,
And there, where joys are rife,
For ever bloom before Thee,
Thy perfect freedom prove,
And tell, as I adore Thee,
How faithful was Thy love.

SONGS OF THE CROSS AND CONSOLATION.

And my soul repineth not,
Well content whate'er befall her ;
Murmurs, wishes, of self-will,
Doom'd to death, no more enthrall her ;
Restless thoughts, that fret and crave,
Slumber in her Saviour's grave.

And my soul doth cease from cares,
From the thoughts that fore perplex us,
That destroy the inner peace,
For like sharpest thorns they vex us ;
He who made her careth well,
She but seeks in peace to dwell.

And my soul despaireth not,
Loves Him most when sad and lonely ;
Grief that wrings and breaks the heart
Comes to those who hate Him only ;
They who love Him still possess
Comfort in their worst distress.

And my soul complaineth not,
For no pain or fears dismay her,
Still she clings to God in faith,
Trusts Him though He seem to slay her.
'Tis when flesh and blood repine,
Sun of joy, Thou canst not shine.

Thus my soul is still and waits,
Every murmuring word she hushes,
Conquering thus the pain or wrong
That the restless spirit crushes ;
Like a silent ocean, bright
With her Maker's praise and light.

SONGS OF THE CROSS AND CONSOLATION.

God ! Thou art my rock of strength,
And my home is in Thine arms,
Thou wilt send me help at length,
And I feel no wild alarms.
Sin nor Death can pierce the shield
Thy defence has o'er me thrown,
Up to Thee myself I yield,
And my sorrows are Thine own.

Thou my shelter from the blast,
Thou my strong defence art ever ;
Though my sorrows thicken fast,
Yet I know Thou leav'st me never ;
When my foe puts forth his might,
And would tread me in the dust,
To this rock I take my flight,
And I conquer him through trust.

When my trials tarry long,
Unto Thee I look and wait,
Knowing none, though keen and strong,
Can my faith in Thee abate.
And this faith I long have nurt,
Comes alone, O God, from Thee ;
Thou my heart didst open first,
Thou didst set this hope in me.

Christians ! cast on Him your load,
To your tower of refuge fly ;
Know He is the Living God,
Ever to His creatures nigh.
Seek His ever-open door
In your hours of utmost need ;
All your hearts before Him pour,
He will send you help with speed.

But hast thou some darling plan,
Cleaving to the things of earth ?
Leanest thou for aid on man ?
Thou wilt find him nothing worth.
Rather trust the One alone
Whose is endless power and love,
And the help He gives His own
Thou in very deed shalt prove.

Yea, on Thee, my God, I rest,
Letting life float calmly on,
For I know the last is best,
When the crown of joy is won.
In Thy might all things I bear,
In Thy love find bitters sweet,
And with all my grief and care
Sit in patience at Thy feet.

8

O my soul, why art thou vex'd ?
Let things go as e'en they will ;
Though to thee they seem perplex'd,
Yet His order they fulfil.
Here He is Thy strength and guard,
Power to harm thee here has none ;
Yonder will He each reward
For the works he here has done.

Let Thy mercy's wings be spread
O'er me, keep me close to Thee,
In the peace Thy love doth shed,
Let me dwell eternally :
Be my All ; in all I do
Let me only seek Thy will,
Where the heart to Thee is true,
All is peaceful, calm, and still.

If sorrow comes, He sent it,
In Him I put my trust;
I never shall repent it,
For He is true and just,
And loves to bless us still;
My life and soul, I owe them
To Him who doth bestow them,
Let Him do as He will.

Whate'er shall be His pleasure
Is surely best for me;
He gave His dearest treasure
That our weak hearts might see
How good His will t'ward us;
And in His Son He gave us
Whate'er could bless and save us;—
Praise Him who loveth thus!

Oh praise Him, for He never Forgets our daily need;
Oh blest the hour whenever
To Him our thoughts can speed;
Yea, all the time we spend
Without Him is but wasted,
Till we His joy have tasted,
The joy that hath no end.

For when the world is passing
With all its pomp and pride,
All we were here amassing
No longer may abide;
But in our earthy bed,
Where softly we are sleeping,
God hath us in His keeping,
To wake us from the dead.

Then though on earth I suffer
Much trial, well I know
I merit ways still rougher,
And 'tis to heaven I go;
For Christ I know and love,
To Him I now am hasting,
And gladness everlasting
With Him this heart shall prove

For such His will who made us,
The Father seeks our good;
The Son hath grace to aid us,
And save us by His blood;
His Spirit rules our ways,
By faith in us abiding,
To heaven our footsteps guiding;
To Him be thanks and praise.

Then this our comfort is alone,
That we may meet before Thy throne,
And cry, O faithful God, to Thee
For rescue from our misery :

To Thee may raise our hearts and eyes,
Repenting sore with bitter sighs,
And seek Thy pardon for our sin,
And respite from our griefs within :

4

For Thou hast promised graciously
To hear all those who cry to Thee,
Through Him whose Name alone is great,
Our Saviour and our Advocate.

And thus we come, O God, to-day,
And all our woes before Thee lay,
For tried, forsaken, lo ! we stand,
Perils and foes on every hand.

Ah ! hide not for our sins Thy face,
Absolve us through Thy boundless grace,
Be with us in our anguish still,
Free us at last from every ill,

That so with all our hearts we may
Once more our glad thanksgivings pay,
And walk obedient to Thy word,
And now and ever praise the Lord.

My help and my defence come, faithful God, from Thee,
By whom were fix'd the heavens, and laid the earth's foundation ;
Man cannot succour me,
Before Thy throne alone is refuge and salvation.

Thou watchest that my foot should neither slip nor stray,
Thou guidest me Thyself, though dark the course I travel ;
Thou pointest me the way,
The snares of sin and earth for me Thou dost unravel

Guardian of Israel, Thou no rest or sleep dost know,
Thy watchful eye beholds in earth's obscurest regions
Who bravely meets Thy foe,
And bears the Cross on high, still true to our allegiance.

And when Thou bidd'st me leave this world of strife and pain,
A steadfast hope in Thee, a quick release, oh grant me,
And let me rise again,
To dwell where death and war no more shall vex and haunt me.

Since Thou my God and Father art,
I know Thy faithful loving heart
 Will ne'er forget Thy child ;
See I am poor, I am but dust,
On earth is none whom I can trust.

The rich man in his wealth confides,
But in my God my trust abides ;
 Then laugh ye as ye will,
I hold this fast that He hath taught,—
Who trusts in God shall want for nought.

Yes, Lord, Thou art as rich to-day
As Thou hast been and shalt be aye,
 I rest on Thee alone ;
Thy riches to my soul be given,
And 't is enough for earth and heaven.

What here may shine I all resign,
If the eternal crown be mine,
 That through Thy bitter death
Thou gainedst, O Lord Christ, for me—
For this, for this, I cry to Thee !

All wealth, all glories, here below,
The best that this world can bestow,
 Silver or gold or lands,
But for a little time is given,
And helps us not to enter heaven.

8

I thank Thee, Christ, Eternal Lord,
That Thou hast taught me by Thy word
 To know this truth and Thee ;
O grant me also steadfastness
Thy heavenly kingdom not to miss.

Praise, honour, thanks, to Thee be brought,
For all things in and for me wrought

Original Tune.

Who puts his trust in God most just Hath built his house se - cure - ly ;
He who re - lies on Je - sus Christ, Shall reach His heav'n most sure - ly ;

Then fix'd on Thee my trust shall be, For Thy truth can-not al - ter ;

While mine Thou art, not death's worst smart Shall make my cour-age fal - ter.

Though fiercest foes my course oppose,
A dauntless front I'll show them ;
My champion Thou, Lord Christ, art now,
Who soon shalt overthrow them !
And if but Thee I have in me
With Thy good gifts and Spirit,
Nor death nor hell, I know full well,
Shall hurt me, through Thy merit.

I rest me here without a fear,
By Thee shall all be given
'That I can need, O Friend indeed,
For this life or for heaven.
O make me true, my heart renew,
My soul and flesh deliver !
Lord, hear my prayer, and in Thy care
Keep me in peace for ever.

Tune.—"Christ will gather in His own."

Seems it in my an-guish lone, As though God for-sook His own,

Yet I hold this know-ledge fast, God will sure-ly help at last.

2 Though awhile it be delay'd,
He denieth not His aid;
Though it come not oft with speed,
It will surely come at need.

3 As a father not too soon
Grants his child the long'd-for boon,
So our God gives when He will;
Wait His leisure and be still.

4 I can rest in thoughts of Him,
When all courage else grows dim,
For I know my soul shall prove
His is more than father's love.

5 Would the powers of ill affright,
I can smile at all their might;
Or the cross be pressing sore,
God, my God, lives evermore!

6 Man may hate me causelessly,
Man may plot to ruin me,
Foes my heart may pierce and rend;
God in heaven is still my Friend.

7 Earth may all her gifts deny,
Safe my treasure still on high,
And if heaven at last be mine,
All things else I can resign.

8 I renounce thee willingly,
World, I hate what pleases thee,
Baneful every gift of thine,
Only be my God still mine.

9 Ah Lord, if but Thee I have,
Nought of other good I crave,
Bright is even death's dark road,
If but Thou art there, my God.

2

My fins affail me fore,
But I despair no more ;
I build on Christ who loves me,
From this Rock nothing moves me,
Since I can all surrender
To Him, my soul's Defender.

If death my portion be,
Then death is gain to me,
And Christ my life for ever,
From whom death cannot sever ;
Come when it may, He'll shield me,
To Him I wholly yield me.

Ah, Jesus Christ, my Lord,
So meek in deed and word,
Thou diedst once to save us,
Because Thou fain wouldst have us
After earth's life of sadness
Heirs of Thy heavenly gladness.

5

'So be it,' then I say,
With all my heart each day ;
Guide us while here we wander,
Till safely landed yonder,
We too, dear Lord, adore Thee,
And sing for joy before Thee.

Tune.—"Lord Jefus, King of Glory."

A musical score for a hymn in G major (one sharp) and 4/2 time. The score is written for a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) and includes lyrics. The music features a simple, hymn-like melody with a steady bass line. The lyrics are: "A pil-grim here I wan-der, On earth have no a-My fa-ther-land is yon-der, My home is with my bode, God, For here I jour-ney to and fro, There in e-ter-nal rest Will God His gra-cious gift be-stow On all the toil-op-prefs'd."

My fa-ther-land is yon-der, My home is with my bode,
God, For here I jour-ney to and fro,
There in e-ter-nal rest Will God His gra-cious gift be-stow On all the toil-op-prefs'd.

SONGS OF THE CROSS AND CONSOLATION.

For what hath life been giving,
From youth up till this day,
But constant toil and striving?
Far back as thought can stray,
How many a day of toil and care,
How many a night of tears,
Hath pass'd in grief that none could share,
In lonely anxious fears!

How many a storm hath lighten'd
And thunder'd round my path!
And winds and rains have frighten'd
My heart with fiercest wrath:
And cruel envy, hatred, scorn,
Have darken'd oft my lot,
And patiently reproach I've born,
Though I deserved it not.

Then through this life of dangers
I onward take my way;
But in this land of strangers
I do not think to stay.
Still forward on the road I fare
That leads me to my home,
My Father's comfort waits me there,
When I have overcome.

Ah yes, my home is yonder,
Where all the angelic bands
Praise Him with awe and wonder,
In whose Almighty hands
All things that are and shall be, lie,
By Him upholden still,
Who casteth down and lifts on high
At His most holy will.

That home have I desired,
'Tis there I would be gone;
Till I am well-nigh tired,
O'er earth I've journey'd on;
The longer here I roam, I find
The less of real joy
That e'er could please or fill my mind,
For all hath some alloy.

The lodging is too cheerless,
The sorrow is too much;
Ah come, my heart is fearless,
Release it with Thy touch,
When Thy heart wills, and make an end
Of all this pilgrimage,
And with Thine arm and strength defend,
When foes against me rage.

8

Where now my spirit stayeth
Is not her true abode;
This earthly house decayeth,
And she will drop its load,
When comes the hour to leave beneath
What now I use and have;
And when I've yielded up my breath
Earth gives me but a grave.

But Thou, my Joy and Gladness,
O Thou, my Life and Light,
Wilt raise me from this sadness,
This long tempestuous night,
Into the perfect gladsome day,
Where bathed in joy divine,
Among Thy saints, and bright as they,
I too shall ever shine.

10

There shall I dwell for ever,
Not as a guest alone,
With those who cease there never
To worship at Thy throne;
There in my heritage I rest,
From baser things set free,
And join the chorus of the blest
For ever, Lord, to Thee!

Thou Heavenly Brightness ! Light Divine !
O deep within my heart now shine,
And make Thee there an altar !
Fill me with joy and strength to be
Thy member, ever join'd to Thee
In love that cannot falter ;
Toward Thee longing Doth possess me,
Turn and bless me,
For Thy gladness
Eye and heart here pine in sadness.

But if Thou look on me in love,
There straightways falls from God above
A ray of purest pleasure ;
Thy word and Spirit, flesh and blood,
Refresh my soul with heavenly food,
Thou art my hidden treasure ;
Let Thy grace, Lord, Warm and cheer me.
O draw near me ;
Thou hast taught us
Thee to seek since Thou hast fought us !

Here will I rest, and hold it fast,
The Lord I love is First and Last,
The End as the Beginning !
Here I can calmly die, for Thou
Wilt raise me where Thou dwellest now,
Above all tears, all sinning :
Amen ! Amen ! Come, Lord Jesus,
Soon release us,
With deep yearning,
Lord, we look for Thy returning !

LOVE TO THE SAVIOUR.

(XLVIII.—„Ich will dich lieben, meine Stärke.“)

150.

Original Tune.

The first system of the hymn is written in 3/4 time with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The melody is in the treble clef, and the bass line is in the bass clef. The lyrics are: "Thee will I love, my Strength, my Tow - er, Thee in Thy works, with all my pow - er,". The music features a simple, hymn-like melody with a steady bass line.

Thee will I love, my Strength, my Tow - er,
Thee in Thy works, with all my pow - er,

The second system of the hymn continues the melody and bass line. The lyrics are: "Thee will I love, my Hope, my Joy, With ar - dour Time shall ne'er de - stroy." The music maintains the same 3/4 time and key signature.

Thee will I love, my Hope, my Joy,
With ar - dour Time shall ne'er de - stroy.

The third system of the hymn continues the melody and bass line. The lyrics are: "Thee will I love, O Light Di - vine,". The music maintains the same 3/4 time and key signature.

Thee will I love, O Light Di - vine,

The fourth system of the hymn concludes the melody and bass line. The lyrics are: "So long as life is mine!". The music maintains the same 3/4 time and key signature.

So long as life is mine!

LOVE TO THE SAVIOUR.

Alas ! that I so late have known Thee,
Who art the Fairest and the Best ;
Nor sooner for my Lord could own Thee,
Our highest Good, our only Rest !
Now bitter shame and grief I prove
O'er this my tardy love.

I wander'd long in willing blindness,
I sought Thee, but I found Thee not,
For still I shunn'd Thy beams of kindness,
The creature light fill'd all my thought ;
And if at last I see Thee now,
'T was Thou to me didst bow !

I thank Thee, then, true Sun of heaven,
Whose shining hath brought light to me ;
I thank Thee, who hast richly given
All that could make us glad and free ;
I thank Thee that my soul is heal'd
By what Thy lips reveal'd.

Oh keep me watchful, then, and humble,
And suffer me no more to stray ;
Uphold me when my feet would stumble,
Nor let me loiter by the way ;
Fill all my nature with Thy light,
O Radiance strong and bright !

Thee will I love, my Crown of gladness,
Thee will I love, my God and Lord,
Amid the darkest depths of sadness,
Not for the hope of high reward,
For Thine own sake, O Light Divine,
So long as life is mine.

LOVE TO THE SAVIOUR.

(LIII.—, „Jesu meine Freude.“)

151.

Original Tune.

The musical score is written for a piano and voice. It consists of four systems of music, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The key signature is one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is common time (C). The lyrics are written below the vocal line.

In Thine arm I rest me,
Foes who would molest me
Cannot reach me here ;
Though the earth be shaking,
Every heart be quaking,
Jesus calms my fear ;
Sin and hell in conflict fell
With their bitter storms assail me,
Jesus will not fail me.

Wealth, I will not heed thee,
For I do not need thee,
Jesus is my choice ;
Honours, ye may glisten,
But I will not listen
To your tempting voice ;
Pain or loss, nor shame nor cross,
E'er to leave my Lord shall move me,
Since He deigns to love me.

Farewell, thou who choofest
Earth, and heaven refusest,
Thou wilt tempt in vain ;
Farewell, sins, nor blind me,
Get ye all behind me,
Come not forth again :
Past your hour, O Pride and Power ;
Worldly life, thy bonds I sever,
Farewell now for ever !

Hence, all fears and sadness,
For the Lord of gladness,
Jesus, enters in ;
They who love the Father,
Though the storms may gather,
Still have peace within ;
Yea, whate'er I here must bear,
Still in Thee lies purest pleasure,
Jesu, priceless treasure !

See how in this wilderness
Loft amid its waftes I wander ;
Take me hence to dwell in blifs
With the flock who, gather'd yonder,
Now Thy glory, Lord, behold,
Safe within the heavenly fold.

For I fain would gaze on Thee,
With the lambs, to whom 't is given
That they feed from danger free
In the happy fields of heaven,
Praising Thee, all terrors o'er,
Never can they leave Thee more.

Here I live in fore diftrefs,
Watching, fearing hour by hour,
For my foes around me prefs,
And I know their craft and power ;
Lord, Thy lamb can never be
Safe one moment but with Thee.

Then, Lord Jefus, let me not
Fall amid the wolves, but hear me,
As the faithful shepherd ought ;
Help me, keep me ever near Thee,
'Till Thou bear me in Thy breaft
Homeward to my endlefs reft.

For I shrink beneath the terrors
Of the law's tremendous sway;
All my countless crimes and errors
Stand before me night and day.
Oh the heavy, fearful load
Of the righteous wrath of God!
Oh the awful voice of thunder
Cleaving heart and soul afunder!

Would I then, to soothe my sorrow,
And my pain awhile forget,
From the world a comfort borrow,
I but sink the deeper yet;
She hath comforts that but grieve,
Joys that stinging memories leave,
Helpers that my heart are breaking,
Friends that do but mock its aching.

All delight, all consolation
Lies in Thee, Lord Jesus Christ,
Feed my soul with Thy salvation,
O Thou Bread of Life unpriced.
Blessed Light, within me glow,
Ere my heart breaks in its woe;
Oh refresh me and uphold me,
Jesus, come, let me behold Thee.

Joy, my soul, for He hath heard thee,
He will come and enter in;
Lo! He turns and draweth toward thee,
Let thy welcome-song begin;
Oh prepare thee for such guest,
Give thee wholly to thy rest,
With an open'd heart adore Him,
Pour thy griefs and fears before Him.

What would seem to hurt or shame thee
Shall but work thy good at last;
Since that Christ hath deign'd to claim thee,
And His truth stands ever fast;
And if thine can but endure,
There is nought so fixed and sure,
As that thou shalt hymn His praises
In the happy heavenly places.

- 2 Come, self-existent Word,
 And speak Thou in my spirit !
 The soul where Thou art heard
Doth endless peace inherit.
 Thou Light that lightenest all,
 Abide through faith in me,
 Nor let me from Thee fall,
 And seek no guide but Thee.
- 3 Ah ! what hath stirred Thy heart,
 What cry hath mounted thither,
 And reached Thy heavenly throne,
And drawn Thee, Saviour, hither ?
 It was Thy wondrous love,
 And my most utter need,
 Made Thy compassions move,
 Stronger than Death indeed.
- 4 Then let me give my heart
 To Him who loved me, wholly ;
 And live, while here I dwell,
To show His praises solely :
 Yes, Jesus, form anew
 This stony heart of mine,
 Make it till death still true
 To Thee, for ever Thine.
- 5 Let nought be left within
 But what Thy hand hath planted ;
 Root out the weeds of sin,
And quell the foe who haunted
 My soul, and set the tares ;
 From Thee comes nothing ill,
 O save me from his snares,
 Make plain my pathway still.
- 6 Thou art the Life, O Lord,
 And Thou its Light art only !
 Let not Thy blessed rays
Still leave me dark and lonely.
 Star of the East, arise !
 Drive all my clouds away,
 Till earth's dim twilight dies
 Into the perfect day !

On, still onward, mounting nigher
On the wings of faith to Him ;
On, still onward, ever higher,
Till the mournful earth grows dim !
God is thy Rock ;
Christ thy Champion cannot fail,
Though thy foes thy life assail,
Fear not their shock.

Hide thee, in His chamber hide thee,
Christ hath open'd now the door ;
Tell Him all that doth betide thee,
All thy sorrows there outpour ;
He hears thy cry ;
Men may hate thee and deceive,
Christ His own will never leave,
He still is nigh.

High, oh high, o'er all things earthy,
Raise thy thoughts, my soul, to heaven ;
One alone of thee is worthy,
All thou hast to Him be given ;
Thy Lord He is
Who so truly pleads for thee,
Who in love hath died for thee ;
Then thou art His.

5

Up then, upwards ! seek thou only
For the things that are above ;
Sin thou hatest, earth is lonely,
Rise to Him whom thou dost love,—
There art thou blest ;
All things here must change and die,
Only with our Lord on high
Is perfect rest.

Tune.—"Let the earth now praise the Lord."

No-thing fair on earth I see But I straightway think on Thee;

Thou art fair-est in mine eyes, Source in whom all beau-ty lies!

On Thy light I think at morn,
With the earliest break of dawn;
Think what glories lie in Thee,
Light of all Eternity!

When I watch the moon arise
'Mid heaven's thousand golden eyes,
Then I think, more glorious far
Is the Maker of yon star.

Or I cry in spring's sweet hours,
When the fields are gay with flowers,
As their varied hues I see,—
What must their Creator be!

When along the brook I wander,
Or beside the fountain ponder,
Straight my thoughts take wing and mount
Up to Thee, the purest Fount.

Sweetly all the air is stirr'd
When the Echo's call is heard;
But no sounds my heart rejoice
Like to my Beloved's voice.

Take away then what could blind
Unto Thee my soul and mind;
Henceforth ever let my heart
See Thee, Saviour, as Thou art!

MORNING.

God, I thank Thee! In Thy keeping
Safely have I slumber'd here ;
Thou hast guarded me while sleeping
From all danger, pain, and fear :
And the cunning of my foe
Hath not wrought my overthrow.

Let the night of sin that shrouded
All my life, with this depart ;
Shine on me with beams unclouded,
Jesu ! In Thy loving heart
Is my help and hope alone,
For the evil I have done.

Help me as the morn is breaking,
In the spirit to arise,
So from careless sloth awaking,
That when o'er the aged skies
Shall the morn of Doom appear,
I may see it free from fear.

Lead me, and forsake me never,
Guide my wand'rings by Thy Word ;
As Thou hast been, be Thou ever
My defence, my refuge, Lord.
Never safe except with Thee,
Thou my faithful Guardian be !

O my God, I now commend me
Wholly to Thy mighty hand ;
All the powers that Thou dost lend me
Let me use at Thy command ;
Thou my boast, my strength divine,
Keep me with Thee, I am Thine.

Thus afresh with each new morning
Save me from the power of sin,
Hourly let me feel Thy warning
Ruling, prompting me within,
Till my final rest be come,
And Thine angel bear me home.

Heir of heaven, to glories peerless.

MORNING.

(LXXXVIII.—Psalm 38, Goudimel.)
„Seele, du mußt munter werden.“

162.

First system of musical notation. The key signature is one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 4/2. The melody is written on a treble clef staff, and the bass line is on a bass clef staff. The lyrics are: "Come, my soul, a - wake, 't is morn - ing, Day is".

Second system of musical notation. The key signature is one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 4/2. The melody is written on a treble clef staff, and the bass line is on a bass clef staff. The lyrics are: "dawn - ing O'er the earth, a - rise and pray ;".

Third system of musical notation. The key signature is one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 4/2. The melody is written on a treble clef staff, and the bass line is on a bass clef staff. The lyrics are: "Come, to Him who made this splen - dour Thou must".

Fourth system of musical notation. The key signature is one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 4/2. The melody is written on a treble clef staff, and the bass line is on a bass clef staff. The lyrics are: "ren - der All thy fee - ble pow'rs can pay."

MORNING.

Soul, thy incense also proffer ;
Thou shouldst offer
Praise to Him, who from thy head
Kept afar the storms of sorrow,
And the morrow
Finds the night in peace hath fled.

Bid Him bless what thou art doing,
If pursuing
Some good aim ; but if there lurks
Ill intent in thine endeavour,
May He ever
Thwart and turn thee from thy works.

From God's glances shrink thou never,
Meet them ever ;
Who submits him to His grace,
Finds that earth no sunshine knoweth
Such as gloweth
O'er his pathway all his days.

Wakenest thou again to sorrow,
Oh ! then borrow
Strength from Him, whose sun-like might
On the mountain-summit tarries,
And yet carries
To the vales their mirth and light.

Pray that when thy life is closing,
Calm reposing
Thou mayst die, and not in pain ;
That, the night of death departed,
Thou, glad-hearted,
Mayst behold the Sun again.

MORNING.

(xviii.—„Dank sei Gott in der Höhe.“)

163.

Original Tune.

While yet the morn is a break - ing I
Be - neath whose care a - wak - ing I thank my God once more, I thank Him that He calls me find the night is o'er;

To life and health a - new, I know what - e'er be - falls me His care will still be true.

MORNING.

Guardian of Israel, hear me,
 Watch o'er me through the day,
In all I do be near me :
 For others too I pray,
To Thee I would commend them,
 Our Church, our youth, our land,-
Direct them and defend them
 When dangers are at hand.

O gently grant Thy blessing,
 That we may do Thy will,
No more Thy ways transgressing,
 Our proper task fulfil ;
With Peter's full affiance
 Let down our nets again,
If Thou art our reliance
 Our toil will not be vain.

Thou art the Vine,—oh nourish
 The branches graft in Thee,
And let them grow and flourish
 A fair and fruitful tree ;
Thy Spirit put within us,
 And let His gifts of grace
To all good actions win us,
 That best may show His praise.

MORNING.

(XII.—„Aus meines Herzens Grunde.“)

164.

Original Tune.

My in - most heart now rai - - fes, In
A song of thank - ful prai - - fes To this fair morn - ing hour, And as I have be - gun

Thine Al - migh - ty pow'r;

This day, my God, my life shall be Be - gun and closed with praise to Thee, Through Christ Thy on - ly Son.

MORNING.

For Thou from me hast warded
All perils of the night ;
From every harm hast guarded
My soul till morning's light ;
Humbly to Thee I cry,
Do Thou in grace the sins forgive
That anger Thee each day I live,
Have mercy, Lord most High !

3

And keep me of Thy kindness
From every harm to-day ;
Nor let me in my blindness
To Satan fall a prey.
My cup with good o'erflows,
My soul and body, goods and life,
My home and friends, my child and wife,
Thy bounteous hand bestows.

And so to Thy good pleasure
My all I now commend,
And most, what most I treasure ;
O Thou Almighty Friend,
Order my course for me,
And blest whate'er I undertake,
Since I in all my choice would make
As seemeth best to Thee.

Amen ! I say, not fearing
That God rejects my prayer,
I doubt not He is hearing
And granting me His care ;
And so I go my way,
And joyfully put forth my hands
To do the work that He commands,
And serve Him through the day.

EVENING.

(LXXVI.—„Nun sich der Tag geendet hat.“)

165.

Original Tune.

Now that the sun doth shine no more, And day hath reach'd its close,

They calm - ly sleep who wept be - fore, The wea - ried find re - pose.

But Thou, my God, no rest dost know
In Thy unslumb'ring might;
Thou hatest darkness as Thy foe,
For Thou Thyself art Light.

Then 'mid the blackness of these hours
Still think on me for good;
Refresh me,—let Thy heavenly powers
Now o'er my slumbers brood.

I know the evil I have done
Doth cry aloud to Thee;
But, ah! the mercy of Thy Son
Hath made amends for me.

And therefore now I close my eyes,
And sleep with tranquil breast;
Why waste the time in fears or sighs?
God watches o'er my rest.

Hence, vain and evil thoughts, depart!
Roam not, my soul, abroad,
For now I build within my heart
A temple to my God.

And if this night my last should prove
In this dark land, I pray
Then take me to Thy heaven above,
The home of endless day.

EVENING.

(Index of Tunes, LXXXII.)

166.

Tune.—"Lord Jesus Christ, my Life, my Light."

The hap - py fun - shine all is gone, The gloom - y

night comes swift - ly on; But shine Thou still, O

Christ our Light, Nor let us lose our - selves in night.

We thank Thee, Father, that this day
Thy angels watch'd around our way,
And free from harm and vexing fear,
Have led us on in safety here.

Lord, have we anger'd Thee to-day,
Remember not our sins, we pray,
But let Thy mercy o'er them sweep,
And give us calm and restful sleep.

Thy angels guard our sleeping hours,
And keep afar all evil Powers;
And Thou all pain and mischief ward
From soul and body, faithful Lord!

EVENING.

(CXIII.—„Werde munter mein Gemüthe.“)

167.

Original Tune.

Sink not yet, my foul, to flum - ber, Wake, my
All the mer - cies with - out num - ber That this heart, go forth and tell by - gone day be - fell; Tell how God hath kept a - far All things that a - gainst me war, Hath up - held me and de - fend - ed, And His grace my foul be - friend - ed.

EVENING.

Father, merciful and holy,
Thee to-night I praise and blefs,
Who to labour true and lowly
Grantest ever meet fucces;
Many a fin and many a woe,
Many a fierce and fubtle foe,
Hast Thou check'd that once alarm'd me,
So that nought to-day has harm'd me.

Now the light, that nature gladdens,
And the pomp of day is gone,
And my heart is tired and faddens
As the gloomy night comes on;
Ah then, with Thy changelefs light
Warm and cheer my heart to-night,
As the shadows round me gather
Keep me clofe to Thee, my Father.

Have I e'er from Thee departed,
Now I feek Thy face again,
And Thy Son, the loving-hearted,
Made our peace through bitter pain.
Yes, far greater than our fin,
Though it ftill be ftiong within,
Is the Love that fails us never,
Mercy that endures for ever.

Brightnefs of the eternal city!
Light of every faithful foul!
Safe beneath Thy sheltering pity,
Let the tempefts paff me roll:
Now it darkens far and near,
Still, my God, ftill be Thou here;
Thou canft comfort, and Thou only,
When the night is long and lonely.

E'en the twilight now hath vanifh'd,
Send Thy bleffing on my fleep,
Every fin and terror banifh'd,
Let my reft be calm and deep.
Soul and body, mind and health,
Wife and children, houfe and wealth,
Friend and foe, the fick, the ft ranger,
Keep Thou fafe from harm and danger.

O Thou mighty God, now hearken
To the prayer Thy child hath made;
Jefus, while the night-hours darken
Be Thou ftill my hope, my aid;
Holy Ghoft, on Thee I call,
Friend and Comforter of all,
Hear my earneft prayer, oh hear me!
Lord, Thou heareft, Thou art near me.

EVENING.

Shall have no re - turn - - ing.

This system contains the final two measures of the song. The melody continues in the treble clef, and the accompaniment continues in the bass clef. The lyrics are 'Shall have no re - turn - - ing.'.

EVENING.

The night is here,
Oh ! be Thou near,
Christ, make it light within me ;
Chafe the darkness from my heart
That to ill might win me.

The sun's sweet light
Is sunk in night ;
Oh Brightness uncreated,
Shine with joy on us who here
Long for Thee have waited.

Each living thing
Is slumbering,
While darkness round is closing ;
Work Thou silently in me
While I lie reposing.

Ah when shall day
Have perfect sway,
By night no more attended ?
When that fairest morn shall break
That shall ne'er be ended.

For Salem then
Shall ne'er again
Behold her brightness vanish,
Since the Lamb shall be her light,
And all night shall banish.

Oh were I there !
Where all the air
With lovely sounds is ringing,
Where the saints Thee, Holy Lord,
Evermore are singing !

8

Lord Jesus, Thou
My rest art now ;
Grant me to stand before Thee,
Radiant with Thy light to shine,
And for aye adore Thee !

EVENING.

take thee, And praise thy Ma - ker ere thou rest.

The fourth system of musical notation, which concludes the hymn. It continues the melody and bass line. The lyrics are written below the notes.

EVENING.

O Sun, where art thou vanish'd ?
The Night thy reign hath banish'd,
Thy ancient foe, the Night.
Farewell, a brighter glory
My Jesus sheddeth o'er me,
All clear within me shines His light.

The last faint beam is going,
The golden stars are glowing
In yonder dark-blue deep ;
And such the glory given
When called of God to heaven,
On earth no more we pine and weep.

4

The body hastes to slumber,
These garments now but cumber,
And as I lay them by
I ponder how the spirit
Puts off the flesh t' inherit
A shining robe with Christ on high.

Now thought and labour ceases,
For Night the tired releases
And bids sweet rest begin :
My heart, there comes a morrow
Shall set thee free from sorrow
And all the dreary toil of sin.

Ye aching limbs ! now rest you,
For toil hath sore oppress'd you,
Lie down, my weary head :
A sleep shall once o'ertake you
From which earth ne'er shall wake you,
Within a narrower, colder bed.

My heavy eyes are closing ;
When I lie deep reposing,
Soul, body, where are ye ?
To helpless sleep I yield them,
Oh let Thy mercy shield them,
Thou sleepless Eye, their guardian be !

8

My Jesus, stay Thou by me,
And let no foe come nigh me,
Safe shelter'd by Thy wing ;
But would the foe alarm me,
Oh let him never harm me,
But still Thine angels round me sing !

My loved ones, rest securely,
From every peril surely
Our God will guard your heads ;
And happy slumbers send you,
And bid His hosts attend you,
And golden-arm'd watch o'er your beds.

EVENING.

(XXII.—„Die Nacht ist kommen.“)

170.

Original Tune.

Now God be with us, for the night is clof - ing; The light and dark - nefs are of His dis-

pos - ing, And 'neath His sha - dow here to rest we

After the last verse only.

yield us, For He will shield us. A - men.

EVENING.

Let evil thoughts and spirits flee before us ;
Till morning cometh, watch, O Master, o'er us ;
In soul and body Thou from harm defend us,
Thine angels fend us.

Let pious thoughts be ours when sleep o'ertakes us,
Our earliest thoughts be Thine when morning wakes us ;
All day serve Thee, in all that we are doing
Thy praise pursuing.

As Thy beloved soothe the sick and weeping,
And bid the captive lose his griefs in sleeping ;
Widows and orphans, we to Thee commend them,
Do Thou befriend them.

We have no refuge ; none on earth to aid us,
Save Thee, O Father, who Thine own hast made us ;
But Thy dear presence will not leave them lonely,
Who seek Thee only.

Father, Thy name be praised, Thy kingdom given,
Thy will be done on earth as 'tis in heaven ;
Keep us in life, forgive our sins, deliver
Us now and ever.—Amen.

NEW YEAR.

(XIX.—, „Das alte Jahr vergangen ist.“)

171.

Original Tune.

The old year now hath pass'd a - way,

This block contains the first line of the hymn. It features a grand staff with a treble and bass clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a common time signature (C). The melody is written in the treble clef, and the bass line is in the bass clef. The lyrics are written below the notes.

We thank Thee, O our God, to - day,

This block contains the second line of the hymn. It continues the melody and bass line from the first line. The lyrics are written below the notes.

That Thou hast kept us through the year,

This block contains the third line of the hymn. It continues the melody and bass line. The lyrics are written below the notes.

When dan - ger and dif - fere were near.

This block contains the fourth line of the hymn. It concludes the melody and bass line. The lyrics are written below the notes.

NEW YEAR.

We pray Thee, O Eternal Son,
Who with the Father reign'ft as One,
To guard and rule Thy Chriftendom
Through all the ages yet to come.

3

Take not Thy faving Word away,
Our fouls' true comfort and their ftay ;
Abide with us, and keep us free
From errors, following only Thee.

Oh help us to forfake all fin,
A new and holier courfe begin,
Mark not what once was done amifs,
A happier, better year be this :

Wherein as Chriftians we may live,
Or die in peace that Thou canft give,
To rife again when Thou fhalt come,
And enter Thine eternal home.

There fhall we thank Thee, and adore,
With all the angels evermore ;
Lord Jefus Chrift, increafe our faith
To praife Thy name through life and death

NEW YEAR.

(Index of Tunes, cxv.)

172.

Tune.—"If thou but suffer God to guide thee."

Help us, O Lord, be - hold we en - ter
In Thee our hopes and thoughts now cen - tre,

Up - on an o - ther year to - day;
Re - new our cour - age for the way:

New life, new strength, new hap - pi - ness,

We ask of Thee,—oh hear and blefs!

NEW YEAR.

May every plan and undertaking
This year be all begun with Thee,
When I am sleeping or am waking,
Still let me know Thou art with me ;
Abroad do Thou my footsteps guide,
At home be ever at my side.

Be this a time of grace and pardon,
Thy rod I take with willing mind,
But suffer nought my heart to harden,
Oh let me now Thy mercy find ;
In Thee alone, my God, I live,
Thou only canst my sins forgive.

And may this year to me be holy,
Thy grace so fill my ev'ry thought
That all my life be pure and lowly
And truthful, as a Christian's ought ;
So make me while yet dwelling here
Pious and blest from year to year.

Jefus, be with me and direct me ;
Jefus, my plans and hopes inspire ;
Jefus, from tempting thoughts protect me ;
Jefus, be all my heart's desire ;
Jefus, be in my thoughts all day,
Nor suffer me to fall away !

And grant, Lord, when the year is over,
That it for me in peace may close ;
In all things care for me, and cover
My head in time of fear and woes ;
So may I, when my years are gone,
Appear with joy before Thy throne.

NEW YEAR.

(Index of Tunes, LXXI.)

173.

Tune.—"Ah! God, from heaven look down and see."

Oh wouldst Thou in Thy glo - ry come,
I count the mo - ment's wea - ry sum

As Thou, Lord, hast fore - told it! With Un - til we may be - hold it;

burn - ing lamp, the Church, Thy Bride, Is wait - ing for the ho - ly tide When Thou, Lord, wilt un - fold it.

NEW YEAR.

Yet I would leave it to Thy choice,
The hour when we shall meet Thee ;
Though Thou dost love that heart and voice
Should daily thus entreat Thee,
And henceforth all my course should be
Still looking on and up to Thee,
With heart prepared to greet Thee.

I joy that from Thy love divine
No power my soul can sever ;
That I may dare to call Thee mine,
My Lord, my Friend, for ever ;
That I, O Prince of Life, shall be Made wholly one in heaven with Thee,
In life that endeth never.

And therefore do my thanks o'erflow
That one more year is ended,
And of this Time, so poor, so slow,
Another step ascended ;
And with a heart that may not wait
I hasten towards the golden gate
Where long my hopes have tended.

And when the wearied hands give way,
And wearied knees are failing,
Then make Thy mighty arm my stay,
Though faith and hope seem quailing ;
That so my heart drink in new strength,
And fear no more the journey's length,
O'er doubt and pain prevailing.

Then on, my soul, with fearless faith,
Let nought to terror move thee,
Nor list what earthly pleasure saith,
When she would lure and prove thee ;
The eagles' wings of love and prayer
Will bear thee through life's toil and care
To Him who still doth love thee.

MARRIAGE.

(xcv.—„Seelenbräutigam.“)

174.

Je - fu, day by day Guide us on life's way; Nought of dan - gers will we rec - kon,

Sim - ply haste where Thou doft bec - kon, Lead us by the hand To our fa - ther - land.

MARRIAGE.

Hard should seem our lot,
Let us waver not,
Never murmur at our crosses
In dark days of grief and losses ;
'Tis through trial we
Here must pass to Thee.

When the heart must know
Pain for others' woe,
When beneath its own 'tis sinking,
Give us patience, hope unshrinking,
Fix our eyes, O Friend,
On our journey's end.

Thus our path shall be
Daily traced by Thee ;
Draw Thou nearer when 'tis rougher,
Help us most when most we suffer,
And when all is o'er,
Ope to us Thy door !

MARRIAGE. OR THE HOUSE.

(CXXI.—, „Wo Gott zum Haus nicht giebt sein' Günst.“)

175.

Oh blest the house, what-e'er be-fall, Where Je - fus

Christ is All in All; Yea, if He were not dwel - ling there, How poor and dark and void it were!

2 Oh blest that house where faith ye find,
And all within have set their mind
To trust their God and serve Him still,
And do in all His holy will.

3 Blest, where their prayers shall daily rise
As fragrant incense to the skies,
While in their lives the world is taught
That forms without the heart are nought.

4 Blest, where the busy hands fulfil
Their proper task with ready skill,
While through their different works ye see
One spirit run of unity.

5 Blest such a house, it prospers well,
In peace and joy the parents dwell,
And in their children's lot is shown
How richly God can bless His own.

6 Then here will I and mine to-day
A solemn covenant make, and say,—
Though all the world forsake Thy Word,
I and my house will serve the Lord.

MISSIONS.

(Index of Tunes, XXXIII.)

176.

Tune.—“Let the earth now praise the Lord.”

Spread, oh spread, thou mighty Word, Spread the kingdom of the Lord,

Where-so-e'er His breath has given Life to beings meant for heaven.

Tell them how the Father's will
Made the world, and keeps it still,
How He sent His Son to save
All who help and comfort crave.

Tell of our Redeemer's love,
Who for ever doth remove
By His holy sacrifice,
All the guilt that on us lies.

Tell them of the Spirit given
Now, to guide us up to heaven,
Strong and holy, just and true,
Working both to will and do.

Word of Life! most pure and strong,
Lo! for Thee the nations long;
Spread, till from its dreary night
All the world awakes to light.

Up, the ripening fields ye see,
Mighty shall the harvest be,
But the reapers still are few,
Great the work they have to do.

Lord of harvest, let there be
Joy and strength to work for Thee,
Till the nations far and near
See Thy Light, and learn Thy fear.

MISSIONS.

(LXXV.—„Nun preiset alle.“)

177.

Original Tune.

Now let us loud - ly Praise God, the Mer - ci - ful; Chri - ten - dom

The first system of the hymn is written in G major (one sharp) and 3/2 time. It consists of two staves, treble and bass, with a grand staff bracket on the left. The melody is in the treble staff, and the bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the treble staff.

proud - ly Tells of His glo - rious rule; Gent - ly He bids thee

The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the treble staff.

The third system continues the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the treble staff.

dore Him! Haste then, O Is - ra - el, now a - dore Him!

The fourth system concludes the hymn. The lyrics are written below the treble staff.

MISSIONS.

For the Lord reigneth
Over the universe,
All He sustaineth,
All things His praise rehearse ;
The host of angels round Him dwelling,
||: Pfalter and harp of His praise are telling. :||

Rise then, ye nations,
Cast off your mournfulness :
Into His pastures
Will ye not gladly press ?
For there His Word abroad is sounded,
||: Pardon for sinners, and grace unbounded. :||

Richly he feeds us,
Always and everywhere ;
Gently He leads us
With a true Father's care ;
The late and early rains He sends us,
||: Daily His blessing, His love attends us. :||

Sing we His praises
Who is thus merciful ;
Christendom raises
Songs to His glorious rule !
Rejoice ! no foe shall now alarm us,
||: He will protect us, and who can harm us ? :||

178.

Tune.—"Hark! a voice saith, All are mortal."

Je - su, when Thou once re - turn - edst,
Where His ho - ly will Thou learn - edst,

From the tem - ple of the Lord,
Glad - ly to Thy home re - stored,

Thou wast rea - dy to ful - fil,

As a child, Thy pa - rents' will;

SCHOOLS.

See Thy little flock dispering
 From their school with joyous hearts ;
 Here Thy lessons oft rehearsing,
 Train them for life's busy parts ;
 Lord, at home or by the way,
 Lonely, or in merry play,
 Be our Pattern ne'er forgot ;
 Friend of children, leave us not !

SCHOOLS.

(Index of Tunes, CXXI.)

179.

Tune.—"O blest the house, whate'er befall."

Lord Je - fus Christ, we come to Thee, For Thou hast

deign'd on earth to be A pi - ous and a

lov - ing child, Whom nev - er sin nor guilt de - filed.

We ask but one thing for our lot,
O Lord, deny Thy children not,—
Teach us to rest upon Thy will,
And take Thee for our Pattern still.

Oh put Thy Spirit in our breast,
Help us to learn with childlike zest,
'That we may lay the one true ground,
And evermore in Thee be found.

ON A JOURNEY.

(Index of Tunes, XXVIII.)

180.

Tune.—"Ere yet the dawn hath fill'd the skies."

In God's name let us on our way! The Fa - ther's help and round a - bout
grace we pray; His love shall guard us round a - bout
From foes with - in and harms with - out. Hal - le - lu - jah.

And Christ, be Thou our Friend and Guide,
Through all our wanderings at our side,
Help us all evil to withstand
That wars against Thy least command.
Hallelujah

3

The Holy Spirit o'er us brood
With all His gifts of richest good,
With hope and strength when dark our road,
And bring us home again in God!
Hallelujah.

HARVEST.

(Index of Tunes, I.XXVIII.)

181.

Tune.—"Oh would, my God, that I could praise Thee."

Come, Chris-tians, praise your Mak-er's good-ness,
To-day be-fore the Lord of har-vest

Re-joice in Him and in His gift;
In hap-py songs your voi-ces lift;

For He who cared for us of yore

Hath blest our fields and homes once more.

HARVEST.

Accept, O Lord, our thankful praises
For all our Father's blessing gives ;
May it increase our faith, and lead us
To praise Thee by obedient lives,
That every deed and word may prove
We feel and trust our Father's love.

Thou feedest us in pure compassion ;
Teach us to care for others' need ;
Let each, as he is able, comfort
The sick and poor, the hungry feed :
O Father Thou of all below,
On each, what most he needs, bestow.

Open Thy bounteous hands in blessing
Thus to refresh us, year by year ;
Provide for us through all life's journey,
And make us faithful stewards while here
Of all that to our care is given,
That greater gifts be ours in heaven.

Preserve to us what Thou hast sent us,
And grant us calm and peaceful days
And grateful hearts, that we may use it
In quiet gladness to Thy praise :
And while our bodies thus are fed,
O grant our souls the Living Bread !

WAR AND PEACE.

(XXIV.—„Du Friedesfürst, Herr Jesu Christ.“)

182.

Original Tune.

Lord Je - su Christ, the Prince of Peace, True
Migh - ty to help in life and death, O

God and Man art Thou! 'Tis through Thy name a - hear and help us now!

lone we claim The mer - cy of Thy Fa - ther!

The times are fore and perilous
With heavy woes and wars,
Whence no man can deliver us
But Thou! Oh plead our cause,
That God may lay His wrath away,
Nor deal with us in anger!

WAR AND PEACE.

We have deserved, and patiently
Would bear, whate'er Thou wilt,
But grace is mightier far with Thee
Than all our sin and guilt;
Forgive us then, dear Lord, again,
Thy love is ever faithful.

(Danger and grief around us stand,
When plagues are in the air;
But far more wretched is the land
When cruel war is there;
Men scorn the good, in reckless mood,
All holy things despising.

There law and judgment yield to force,
None asketh what is right;
Thy Word is hinder'd in its course,
And quench'd its blessed light;
Then drive afar this harmful war,
Help, save us from its terrors.)

And let Thy grace, O Lord, control
Our minds and hearts, that none
Should make a sport, that kills the soul,
Of evils war hath done.
'Tis Thou alone who from Thy throne
Canst rule us thus, and save us!

WAR AND PEACE.

(Index of Tunes, LXX.)

183.

Tune.—“Now thank we all our God.”

Lord God, we wor - ship and Thee ! In
We praise Thy love and pow'r, Whoſe

loud and hap - py cho - rus, To heav'n our ſong ſhall good - neſs reign - eth o'er us !

ſoar, For ev - er ſhall it be Re -

ſound - ing o'er and o'er ; Lord God, we wor - ſhip Thee !

WAR AND PEACE.

Lord God, we worship Thee !
For Thou our land defendest,
Thou pourest down Thy grace,
And strife and war Thou endest ;
Since golden Peace, O Lord,
Thou grantest us to see,
Our land with one accord,
Lord God, gives thanks to Thee !

Lord God, we worship Thee !
Thou didst indeed chastise us,
Yet still Thy anger spares,
And still Thy mercy tries us ;
Once more our Father's hand
Doth bid our sorrows flee,
And Peace rejoice our land ;
Lord God, we worship Thee.

Lord God, we worship Thee !
And pray Thee, who hast blest us,
That we may live in peace,
And none henceforth molest us ;
O crown us with Thy love ;
Fulfil our cry to Thee,
O Father, grant our prayer ;
Lord God, we worship Thee !

WAR AND PEACE.

(Index of Tunes, LXXIV.)

184.

Tune.—"My soul, now praise thy Maker."

Thank God it hath re - sound - ed, The blest - ed voice of joy and Peace!
And murder's reign is bound - ed, And spear and sword at last may cease.

Bright hope is break-ing o'er us, A - rise, my land, once more,

And sing in full-ton'd cho - - rus Thy hap - py songs of yore;

Oh raise thy heart to God and say: Thy covenants, Lord, en - dure,

WAR AND PEACE.

O welcome day, that brought us
This precious noble gift of Peace !
For war hath deeply taught us
What sorrows come where she doth cease ;
In her our God now layeth
All hope, all happiness ;
Who woundeth her, or slayeth,
Doth, like a madman, press
The arrow to his own heart's core,
And quench with impious hand
The golden torch of Peace once more,
That glads at last our land.

This ye could teach us only,
So dull and hard these hearts of ours,
Ye homes, now stripp'd and lonely,
Ye wasted cities, ruin'd towers ;
Ye fields, once fairly blooming,
With golden harvest graced,
Where forests now are glooming,
Or spreads a dreary waste ;
Ye graves, with corpses piled, where lies
Full many a hero brave,
Whose like no more shall meet our eyes,
Who died, yet could not save.

O man, with bitter mourning
Remember now the by-gone years,
When thou hast met God's warning
With careless scoff, not contrite tears ;
Yet like a loving Father
He lays aside His wrath,
And seeks with kindness rather
To lure thee to His path ;
He tries if love may yet constrain
The heart that hath withstood
His rod,—oh let Him not in vain
Now strive with Thee for good

Thou careless world, awaken !
Awake, awake, all ye that sleep,
Ere yet ye be o'ertaken
With ruin sudden, swift, and deep !
But he who knows Christ liveth,
May hope and fear no ill,
The Peace that now He giveth
Hath deeper meaning still,
For He will surely teach us this :
“ The end is nigh at hand,
When ye in perfect rest and peace
Before your God shall stand.”

IV. THE CLOSE.

I. FOR THE SICK AND DYING	185—194
2. THE LIFE TO COME	195—200

FOR THE SICK AND DYING.

(Index of Tunes, CXV.)

185.

Tune—"If thou but suffer God to guide thee."

I know the doom that must be - fall me, But know not
It may be that my God will call me To - day, to - when, or where, or how; Ere yet this pre - sent hour is mor - row, nay, or now;

fled This liv - ing bo - dy may be dead.

Lord, let me die to self each hour,
And at the last Thy presence give,
Then Death may try his utmost power,
He can but make me truly live;
Then welcome my last hour shall be
When, where, and how it pleases Thee.

FOR THE SICK AND DYING.

(xv.—„Christus der ist mein Leben.“)
 „Ach bleib' mit Deiner Gnade.“)

186.

Original Tune.

My life is hid in Je - fus, And death is gain to me; Then when - so - e'er He plea - - ses, I meet it will - ing - ly.

- 2 For Christ, my Lord and Brother,
 I leave this world so dim,
 And gladly seek that other
 Where I shall be with Him.
- 3 My woes are nearly over,
 Though long and dark the road;
 My sins His merits cover,
 And I have peace with God.
- 4 Then when my powers are failing,
 My breath comes heavily,
 And words are unavailing,
 Oh hear my sighs to Thee!

- 5 When mind, and thought, O Saviour,
 Are flickering like a light,
 That to and fro doth waver
 Ere 'tis extinguished quite;
- 6 In that last hour, oh grant me
 To slumber soft and still,
 No doubts to vex or haunt me,
 Safe anchor'd on Thy will;
- 7 And so to Thee still cleaving
 Through all death's agony,
 To fall asleep believing,
 And wake in heaven with Thee.

FOR THE SICK AND DYING.

(CXVI.—„Wer weiß wie nahe mir mein Ende.“)

187.

Original Tune.

The musical score is written for a piano accompaniment in a minor key (three flats) and common time (C). It consists of three systems of music, each with a treble and bass staff joined by a brace. The lyrics are written below the notes.

Who knows how near my end may be? Time
How swift - ly, ah! how sud - den - ly, May speeds a - way, and Death comes on; My God, my God, for Death be here, and Life be gone!
Je - su's sake I pray Thy peace may blefs my dy - ing day.

The world that smiled when morn was come
May change for me ere close of eve;
So long as earth is still my home
In peril of my death I live;
||: My God, ||: for Jesu's sake I pray
Thy peace may blefs my dying day.

FOR THE SICK AND DYING.

Teach me to ponder oft my end,
And ere the hour of death appears,
To cast my soul on Christ her Friend,
Nor spare repentant cries and tears;
My God, for Jesu's sake I pray
Thy peace may bless my dying day.

4

And let me now so order all,
That ever ready I may be
To say with joy, whate'er befall,
Lord, do Thou as Thou wilt with me;
My God, for Jesu's sake I pray
Thy peace may bless my dying day.

5

Let heaven to me be ever sweet,
And this world bitter let me find,
That I, 'mid all its toil and heat,
May keep eternity in mind;
My God, for Jesu's sake I pray
Thy peace may bless my dying day.

6

O Father, cover all my sins
With Jesu's merits, who alone
The pardon that I covet wins,
And makes His long-sought rest my own;
My God, for Jesu's sake I pray
Thy peace may bless my dying day.

7

His sorrows and His cross I know
Make death-beds soft, and light the grave,
They comfort in the hour of woe,
They give me all I fain would have;
My God, for Jesu's sake I pray
Thy peace may bless my dying day.

8

From Him can nought my soul divide,
Nor life nor death can part us now;
I lay my hand upon His side,
And say, My Lord and God art Thou;
My God, for Jesu's sake I pray
Thy peace may bless my dying day.

9

In holy baptism long ago
I join'd me to the living Vine,
Thou lovest me in Him, I know,
In Him Thou dost accept me Thine;
My God, for Jesu's sake I pray
Thy peace may bless my dying day.

10

And I have eaten of His flesh
And drunk His blood,—nor can I be Forsaken now, nor doubt afresh,
I am in Him and He in me;
My God, for Jesu's sake I pray
Thy peace may bless my dying day.

11

Then death may come or tarry yet,
I know in Christ I perish not,
He never will His own forget,
He gives me robes without a spot;
My God, for Jesu's sake I pray
Thy peace may bless my dying day.

12

And thus I live in God at peace,
And die without a thought of fear,
Content to take what God decrees,
For through His Son my faith is clear,
His grace shall be in death my stay,
And peace shall bless my dying day.

FOR THE SICK AND DYING.

(Index of Tunes, Lv.)

188.

Tune.—“Jefus Chrift, my fure Defence.”

Go and dig my grave to-day! Wea-ry
Now from earth I pafs a-way, Heav'n-ly of peace my ceafe-lefs roam-ing, An-gel voi-cés

a-waits my com-ing,

from a-bove Call me to their reft and love.

Go and dig my grave to-day!
Homeward now my journey tendeth,
And I put my ftaff away,
Here where all earth's labour endeth,
And I lay my weary head
In the only painlefs bed.

FOR THE SICK AND DYING.

- 3 What is there I yet should do
If in this dark vale I linger?
Proud our schemes, and fair to view,
Yet they melt beneath Time's finger
Like the sand before the wind,
That no power of man can bind.
- 4 Farewell earth, then! I am glad
That I now in peace may leave thee;
For thy very joys are sad,
And thy hopes do but deceive thee;
Fading is thy beauty's gleam,
False and transient as a dream.
- 5 Sun and moon and stars so bright,
Farewell all your golden splendour!
Here I loved you, but your light
Gladly will I now surrender
For the glories of that day,
Where ye all must fade away.
- 6 Farewell, O ye friends I love!
Though awhile ye journey grieving,
Comfort cometh from above
To the hearts in Christ believing;
Weep not o'er a passing show,
To th' eternal world I go.
- 7 Weep not that this earth I leave,
Mourn not that I am exchanging
Errors that here closely cleave,
Empty ghosts and shadows ranging
Through a world of nought and night,
For a land of truth and light.
- 8 Weep not! dearest to my heart
Is my Saviour, He doth cheer me;
And I know that I have part
In His pains, and He is near me;
For He shed His precious blood
For the whole world's highest good.
- 9 Weep not, my Redeemer lives!
From the dust, Hope ever vernal
Looks to Heaven and upward strives;
Fearless Faith and Love eternal
Now are softly whispering nigh,
"Child of God, fear not to die!"

FOR THE DYING.

(LXXXV.—„O Welt ich muß dich lassen.“
„Nun ruhen alle Wälder.“)

189.

Original Tune.

O world, I now must leave thee, But lit - tle doth it

The first system of the hymn is written in G major (one sharp) and common time. It consists of a treble and bass staff joined by a brace. The melody is in the treble staff, and the bass staff provides a simple harmonic accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the notes.

grieve me, I seek my na - tive land ;

The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics "grieve me, I seek my na - tive land ;" are written below the notes. The system ends with a double bar line.

The third system continues the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics "True life I there in - her - it, And here I yield my" are written below the notes. The system ends with a double bar line.

spi - rit With joy to God's all - gra - cious hand.

The fourth system concludes the hymn. The lyrics "spi - rit With joy to God's all - gra - cious hand." are written below the notes. The system ends with a double bar line.

FOR THE DYING.

So on His Word relying,
I know while I am dying
I soon shall see His face
Through Christ whose death hath bought me,
The Father's love He brought me,
And now prepares for me a place.

The grave hath lost its terrors
Since for my sins and errors
My Saviour doth atone :
My works can nought avail me,
But His work cannot fail me,
I rest in faith on Him alone.

My service cannot merit
That I should e'er inherit
Eternal life with Christ :
But He hath freely given
A share with Him in heaven
Of that fair heritage unpriced.

And so I hence am going
In peace, full surely knowing
With Him is perfect rest ;
I feel Death's icy finger,
My soul here cannot linger,
Nor would I stay—to go is best.

O world, I yet would teach thee
That Death will surely reach thee,
That thou must follow me ;
Then while thy days are lengthen'd,
Pray that thy faith be strengthen'd,
That God have mercy too on thee !

FOR THE SICK AND DYING.

(LXXXII.—, „O Jesu Christ mein Lebenslicht.“)

190.

Original Tune.

Lord Je - - fus Christ, my Life, my Light,

The first line of the hymn is written in G major (one sharp) and 3/2 time. It consists of two staves. The melody is on the upper staff, and the bass line is on the lower staff. The lyrics are: "Lord Je - - fus Christ, my Life, my Light,".

My strength by day, my trust by night,

The second line of the hymn continues the melody and bass line. The lyrics are: "My strength by day, my trust by night,".

On earth I'm but a pass - - ing guest,

The third line of the hymn continues the melody and bass line. The lyrics are: "On earth I'm but a pass - - ing guest,".

And fore - ly with my sins op - press'd.

The fourth line of the hymn concludes the melody and bass line. The lyrics are: "And fore - ly with my sins op - press'd.".

FOR THE SICK AND DYING.

Far off I see my fatherland,
Where through Thy grace I hope to stand,
But ere I reach that Paradise
A weary way before me lies.

My heart sinks at the journey's length,
My wasted flesh has little strength,
Only my soul still cries in me,
Lord, fetch me home, take me to Thee !

Oh let Thy sufferings give me power
To meet the last and darkest hour ;
Thy cross the staff whereon I lean,
My couch the grave where Thou hast been.

Since Thou hast died, the Pure, the Just,
I take my homeward way in trust,
The gates of heaven, Lord, open wide,
When here I may no more abide.

And when the last great Day is come,
And Thou our Judge shalt speak the doom,
Let me with joy behold the light,
And set me then upon Thy right.

Renew this wasted flesh of mine,
That like the sun it there may shine
Among the angels pure and bright,
Yea, like Thyself in glorious light.

Ah then I have my heart's desire,
When singing with the angels' choir,
Among the ransomed of Thy grace,
For ever I behold Thy face !

FOR THE DYING.

(LXIII.—, „Mach's mit mir Gott nach Deiner Güte.“)

191.

Original Tune.

Deal with me, God, in in mer - cy now,
Thine ear to me in pi - ty bow;

Oh help me in my ut - - ter woe,
When hence my foul must quick - ly go,

Re - ceive her, as her God and Friend,

For all is right if right the end.

FOR THE DYING.

Now, O my Lord, I follow Thee,
Safe where Thy steps I plainly trace ;
Ah, now Thou art not far from me,
Though Death is with me face to face,
And I must leave the friends most dear
Who loved me well and truly here.

The body calmly sleeps in earth,
To Thee the spirit spreads her wings,
And in Thy hands, a second birth
She finds in death, to life she springs ;
Here was a land of tears and woe,
Where toil and care are all we know.

Now Death and Satan, hell and sin,
And this world, all have lost their power,
The grace and hope Thou, Lord, didst win
For me, uphold me in this hour ;
For on the Son my debts were laid,
And He my ransom freely paid.

Why mourn, then, that I now go hence ?
Surely a blessed lot is mine ;
Clothed in His spotless innocence,
Before Him as a bride I shine ;
Farewell, thou evil world, farewell !
With God I rather choose to dwell.

FOR THE DYING.

192.

Tune.—"Our Father, Thou in heaven above."

O Lord my God, I cry to Thee, In

The first system of the hymn is written in G major (one sharp) and common time. It consists of two staves. The melody is in the treble clef, and the bass line is in the bass clef. The lyrics are: "O Lord my God, I cry to Thee, In".

The third system continues the melody and bass line. The lyrics are: "self I all com - mend, Oh swift - ly now Thine".

an - gel fend To guide me home, and cheer my heart,

The fourth system concludes the hymn. The lyrics are: "an - gel fend To guide me home, and cheer my heart,".

FOR THE DYING.

O Jesu Christ, Thou Lamb of God,
Once slain to take away our load,
Now let Thy cross, Thine agony,
Avail to save and solace me,
Thy death to open heaven, and there
Bid me the joy of angels share.

O Holy Spirit, at the end,
Sweet Comforter, be Thou my Friend !
When death and hell affail me sore,
Leave me, oh leave me, nevermore,
But bear me safely through that strife,
As Thou hast promised, into life !

FOR THE SICK AND DYING.

(CXII.—„Wenn ich in Todesnöthen bin.“)

193.

When my last hour is close at hand,
Do Thou, Lord Je - sus, by me stand,

And I must hence be - take me,
Nor let Thine aid for - sake me;
To Thy blest

hands I now com - mend My foul, at this my earth - ly end, And Thou wilt safe - ly keep it.

FOR THE SICK AND DYING.

My sins, dear Lord, disturb me fore,
My conscience cannot slumber,
But I will cleave to Thee the more,
Though they the sands outnumber;
I will remember Thou didst die,
Will think on Thy most bitter cry,
Thy sufferings shall uphold me.

That I was graft into the Vine,
Hence will I comfort borrow;
For Thou wilt surely keep me Thine
Through fear, and pain, and sorrow;
Yea, though I die, I die to Thee,
And Thou through death didst win for me
The right to life eternal.

Since Thou didst leave the grave again,
It cannot be my dwelling;
Thou art in heaven—this sooths my pain,
All fear of death dispelling,
For Thou wilt have me where Thou art,
And so with joy I can depart
To be with Thee for ever.

5

To Thee I now stretch out mine arms,
And gladly hence betake me;
I sleep at peace from all alarms,
No human voice can wake me.
But Christ is with me through the strife,
And He will bear me into life,
And open heaven before me.

FOR THE DYING.

(Index of Tunes, LXXVI.)

194.

Tune.—"Now that the sun doth shine no more."

My God, to Thee I now com-mend My soul, for Thou, O Lord,

Dost live and love me with-out end, And wilt per-form Thy word.

To whom else should I make my plea,
That heavenly life be mine?
All souls, my God, belong to Thee,
My soul is also Thine.

Thou gav'st my spirit at my birth,
Take back what Thou hast given;
And with the Lord I served on earth
Grant me to live in heaven.

4

Faith spreads her wings, she sees reveal'd
The shining walls above;
My spirit knows that she is seal'd,
Redeem'd from death by love

Thou my Deliverer wast of yore,
From sin Thou mad'st me free,
Now, faithful God, dost Thou once more
In death deliver me.

Thou liv'st and lovest without end,
And dost perform Thy word;
My passing soul I now commend
To Thee, my God and Lord!

THE LIFE TO COME.

THE LIFE TO COME.

- 2 Therefore, since my God doth choose it,
Willingly I yield my life,
Nor I grieve that I should lose it,
For with sorrows it was rife;
And my Saviour suffer'd here
That I might not faint nor fear,
Since for me He bore my load
And hath trod the same dark road.
- 3 For my sake He went before me,
And His death is now my gain;
Peace and hope He conquer'd for me,
So without regret or pain

From this land of toil and woe,
Glad to reach that blest abode
Where I shall behold my God.
- 4 There is joy beyond our telling
Where so many saints are gone;
Thousand thousands there are dwelling,
Worshipping before the throne,
There the seraphim on high
Brightly shine, and ever cry
"Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord!
Three in One for aye adored!"
- 5 O Jerusalem, how clearly
Dost Thou shine, Thou city fair!
Lo! I hear the tones more nearly,
Ever sweetly sounding there!
Oh what peace and joy hast thou!
Lo the sun is rising now,
And the breaking day I see
That shall never end for me!
- 6 Yea, I see what here was told me,
See that wondrous glory shine,
Feel the spotless robes enfold me,
Know a golden crown is mine;
So before the throne I stand
One amid that glorious band,
Gazing on that joy for aye
That shall never pass away!

THE LIFE TO COME.

Here as in a dungeon grief hath bound us,
Cares and fear and terrors still furround us,
Our best endeavour
But in toil and heart-ache issues ever.

While that ye are in your mansions resting,
Safe and free at last from all molesting,
No cross or sadness
There can hinder your untroubled gladness.

Christ doth wipe away all tears and crying,
Ye possess what we must seek with sighing ;
To you are chanted
Songs that ne'er to mortal ears were granted.

Oh who would not for that home of joyance
Gladly leave a land of dark annoyance ?
Who loves delaying
'Mid a world of shadows and decaying ?

Come, we pray Thee, from our post release us ;
Quickly guide us to Thy heaven, Lord Jesus :
In Thee the spirit
Can alone true joy and rest inherit !

THE LIFE TO COME.

There is peace the long-de - fir - ed, Lof-ty calm that nought can break:

The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the treble staff.

World, with thee is war and strife, Thou with cheat-ing hopes art rife,

The third system continues the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the treble staff.

But in heav'n is no al - loy, On - ly peace and love and joy.

The fourth system concludes the piece. The lyrics are written below the treble staff.

THE LIFE TO COME.

- 2 When I reach that home of gladness
I shall feel no more this load,
Feel no sickness, want, or sadness,
Resting in the arms of God.
In the world woes follow fast,
And a bitter death comes last,
But in heaven shall nought destroy
Endless peace and love and joy.
- 3 Here is nought but care and mourning,
Comes a joy, it will not stay ;
Fairly shines the sun at dawning,
Night will soon o'ercloud the day ;
World, with thee we weep and pine,
Gnawing care and grief are thine ;
But in heaven is no alloy,
Only peace and love and joy.
- 4 Well for him whom death has landed
Safely on yon blessed shore,
Where, in joyful worship banded,
Sing the faithful evermore ;
For the world hath strife and war,
All her works and hopes they mar,
But in heaven is no annoy,
Only peace and love and joy.
- 5 Time, thou speedest on but slowly,
Hours, how tardy is your pace,
Ere with Him, the High and Holy,
I hold converse face to face :
World, with partings thou art rife,
Fill'd with tears and storms and strife ;
But in heaven can nought destroy
Endless peace and love and joy.
- 6 Therefore will I now prepare me,
That my work may stand His doom,
And when all is sinking round me,
I may hear not " Go "—but " Come ! "
World, the voice of grief is here,
Outward seeming, care, and fear,
But in heaven is no alloy,
Only peace and love and joy !

THE LIFE TO COME.

Lift Thy hand to aid us, Father,
Look on us who widely roam,
And Thy scatter'd children gather
In their long'd-for promised home.
Steep and weary is the way,
Shorten Thou the sultry day :
Faithful warriors hast Thou found us,
Let Thy peace for aye surround us.

In that peace we reap in gladness
What was sown in tearful showers :
There the fruit of all our sadness
Ripens,—there the palm is ours ;
There our God upon His throne
Is our full reward alone.
They who all for God surrender,
Bring their sheaves in heavenly splendour.

THE LIFE TO COME.

Zion hears the watchmen finging,
And all her heart with joy is springing,
She wakes, she rises from her gloom ;
For her Lord comes down all-glorious,
The strong in grace, in truth victorious,
Her Star is risen, her Light is come !
Ah come, Thou blessed Lord,
O Jesus, Son of God,
Hallelujah !
We follow till the halls we see
Where Thou hast bid us sup with Thee.

Now let all the heavens adore Thee,
And men and angels sing before Thee,
With harp and cymbal's clearest tone ;
Of one pearl each shining portal,
Where we are with the choir immortal
Of angels round Thy dazzling throne ;
Nor eye hath seen, nor ear
Hath yet attain'd to hear
What there is ours,
But we rejoice, and sing to Thee
Our hymn of joy eternally.

„O Welt ich muß dich lassen," as it appears both in melody and harmony in the "Musæ Sionæ Michaelis' Prætorii," vol. viii. 1610.

O world, I now must leave thee, But lit - tle doth it grieve me,

The first system of the musical score is in C major, 4/4 time. It consists of two staves: a treble staff and a bass staff. The melody is in the treble staff, and the harmony is in the bass staff. The lyrics are written below the staves.

I seek my na - tive land; True life I there in - he - rit;

The second system of the musical score continues the melody and harmony. The lyrics are written below the staves.

And here I yield my spi - rit With joy to God's all gra - cious hand.

The third system of the musical score concludes the hymn. The lyrics are written below the staves.

Goudimel's Melody to Psalm xlii., "Comme on voit un cerf qui brâme," known in Germany under the title, „Freu dich sehr o meine Seele," as it is found, both in melody and harmony, in Samuel Marshall's edition of the Whole Book of Psalms. Basle, 1594.*

O my soul, be glad and cheer-ful,
From this earth so dark and tear-ful,
Now for-get thy mis-e-ry;
Christ the Lord is call-ing thee.

Out of for-rows, fears, and woe,
To that joy thou now shalt go;

Which our thought may pic-ture nev-er,
But we know it lasts for ev-er.

* In this reprint of Goudimel's Psalmody (French) 1565, the melody is, for the first time, given to the highest voice. In Goudimel's original work the melody is entrusted to the tenor, as was customary in his time.

Subsequently this tune (as above, without any alteration) appears to "Pſalm C. Jubilate Deo, J. H." in Sternhold and Hopkins' edition of the Whole Book of Pſalms, London, 1604, and later in Ravenscroft's "Whole Booke of Pſalmes, London, 1621;" set for four parts, once on the words of the 100th Pſalm, and a second time to harmonies by Ravenscroft, as given below. The melody is assigned to the Tenor, as was usually done at that period.

CANTUS.

Luther's tune and hymn „Wir glauben all an Einen Gott," as it appears for the first time in Johann Walter's „Geistliches Gesangbůchlein." Wittenberg, 1524. The harmonies are taken from the tune book published by command of the „Eisenach Kirchenconferenz," by G. v. Tucher and others (Stuttgart, 1854), and are probably selected from old editions.

We all be - lieve in One true God,

Mak-er of the earth and hea - ven; The Fa-ther, who to us in love

Hath the claim of chil-dren giv - en. He in soul and bo-dy feeds us,

This hymn and tune was intended by Luther to be sung as the Creed during the morning service, and remained in use as such for a long time. Though omitted by the Editors in the body of this work, being considered by them unsuitable for England, they have inserted it here as an interesting specimen of hymnology.

APPENDIX.

All we want His hand pro-vides us; Thro' all snares and per-ils leads us,

Watch - es that no harm be - tides us; He cares for us,

Cares for us by day and night, All things are go - vern'd by His might.

And we believe in Jesus Christ,
 His Only Son, our Lord, possessing
 An equal Godhead, throne and might,
 Through whom descends the Father's blessing;
 Conceived of the Holy Spirit,
 Born of Mary, virgin mother;
 That lost man might life inherit
 Made true man, our Elder Brother,
 Was crucified for sinful men,
 And raised by God to life again.

And we confess the Holy Ghost,
 Who from Son and Father floweth,
 The Comforter of fearful hearts,
 Who all precious gifts bestoweth;
 In whom all the Church hath union,
 Who maintains the Saints' Communion;
 We believe our sins forgiven,
 And that life with God in heaven,
 When we are raised again, shall be
 Our portion in eternity.

„Enchiridion, oder ein Handbucklein, einem jeglichen Christen fast nützlich bei sich zu haben; zur stetter Übung und Trachtung geistlicher Gesänge und Psalmen, rechtschaffen und kunstlich vertheutscht. MCCCCXXIIII.“ On the last page of the book: Gedruckt zu Erffordt (Erfurt) zum Schwarzen Horn, bei der Kremerbruden. MDXXIIII. Jar. (Containing No. XIV, XXXV, LVII, and others in the present work.)

(„Geistliche Lieder . . .“) ? The title page lost and title only conjectured. On the last page : Gedruckt zu Wittenberg, durch Joseph Klug. One edition, 1529, containing for the first time Luther's „Ein' feste Burg,“ No. XXVI. Another, 1535, containing No. XLVI, LXXI, &c. &c., in the present work.

- { a. „Ein neu Gesangbuchelein.“ MDXXXI. Edited by M. Weiss. And :
 - { b. „Ein Gesangbuch der Brüder in Böhmen und Mähren, die man aus Haß und Neid Picarden, Waldenser u. s. w. nennt. Von ihnen auf ein Neues (sonderlich vom Sacrament des Nachtmahls) gebessert, und etliche schöne neue Gesänge hinzugethan. MDXLIII. Gedruckt zu Nürnberg durch Joh. Glinther. 1544.“ Later edition of the first-named book of 1531. From it No. XVI, XX, LI, in this book. Another edition—considerably enlarged—of the above work, under a new title (Kirchengefang u. s. w.), appeared in 1566. From it No. XXII.

„Freuden=Spiegel des ewigen Lebens ; das ist : Gründliche Beschreibung des herrlichen Wesens im ewigen Leben u. s. w. ; aus Gottes Wort richtig und verständlich eingeführt u. s. w., durch Philippum Nicolai, der heiligen Schrift Doctor und Diener am Wort Gottes zu Hamburg. Gedruckt zu Frankfurt am Mayn. 1599.“ Reprinted 1617. (This was a tract written at a moment when the plague raged in the place where the author lived (Unna in Westphalia), and an appendix contains the two tunes and hymns introduced here under No. CVI and CXVII (200 and 149).

„Cantional, oder Gesangbuch Augsbürgischer Confession, in welchem des Herrn Dr. Martini Lutheri und andrer frommen Christen, auch des Autors eigene Lieder und Psalmen, samt etlichen Hymnis und Gebetlein u. s. w. So im Churfürstenthümern Sachsen, insonderheit aber in beiden Kirchen und Gemeinen allhier zu Leipzig gebräuchlich. Verfertigt, und mit 4, 5 und 6 Stimmen componiret, von Johan Hermano Schein, Grünhain, Directore der Music baselstien. 1627.“ A later edition of the same work slightly augmented. 1645. From this Cantional No. II, XI (LVII), LXIII. The greater part of Schein's work was subsequently incorporated in Gottfried Vopelius' „Neu Leipziger Gesangbuch u. s. w. Leipzig, 1682.“ From Vopelius No. LIX, CX in the present work.

„Geistliche Kirchen=Melodeien über die von Herrn D. Luthers selbst und andern vornehmen und gelehrten Leuten aufgesetzte geist= und trostreiche Gesänge und Psalmen. Der göttlichen Majestät zu Ehren und nützlichem Gebrauch seiner christl. Kirchen in 4 Vocal= und 2 Instrumental= Stimmen, als Violinen und Cornetten, übersezt von Johanne Crügern, Gub. Lusato, Directore der Musik in Berlin ad Div. Nicol. Cum privilegio. Leipzig, in Verlegung Daniel Reichels, Buchhändlers zu Berlin. Gedruckt bei Timotheo Ritschen. Anno Christi

1649." (From it No. XXXVI, LXX, LXXXVI, XCIV in this book.) Crüger's „Geistliche Kirchenmelodien," just named, is preceded in 1640 by his „Neues Vollkömmlisches Gesangbuch Augsbургischer Confession," and followed in 1658 by his "Praxis pietatis melica," the titles of both of which, being rather lengthy and bombastic, are not given here at full length. Of hymnological works of that period these are among the most important, and before the close of the 17th century the last-named had gone through nearly 30 editions. From these three works No. VII, XXIV, XXXVI, LIII, CIII, and others in this book.

„Geistreiches Gesang-Buch. Vormahls in Halle gedruckt, nun aber allhier mit Noten der unbekannten Melodien und 123 Liedern vermehret, wie auch von vielen im vorigen gefundenen Druckfehlern verbessert; zur Ermunterung gläubiger Seelen, mit einer von guten Freunden verlangten Vorrede Eberhard Phillip Zuehlens, jüngeren Stadtpredigers daselbst u. s. w. Darmstadt, im Drucke Sebastian Griebels. 1698." This book is generally quoted by the name of Zuehlen, who wrote the preface. No copy, and consequently no title, is known of the work to which it refers as its predecessor, and as having been printed at Halle. From it No. LXXVI, LXXIX, XCV, XCVI in this book.

- a. „Geistreiches Gesangbuch, der Kern alter und neuer Lieder. Wie auch die Noten der unbekannten Melodien, und dazu gehörige nützliche Register in sich haltend, samt einer Vorrede zur Erweckung heiliger Andacht u. s. w. Herausgegeben von Joh. Anast. Freylinghausen. Halle, im Waisenhanse. 1704."
- b. „Neues geistreiches Gesangbuch, auserlesene, so alte als neue, geistliche und liebliche Lieder, nebst den Noten der unbekannten Melodien in sich haltend u. s. w. Herausgegeben von Joh. Anast. Freylinghausen. Halle, im Waisenhanse. 1714." b forms the 2nd part of a, and after having separately gone through many editions their contents were united into one, and published together in 1741—two years after the death of the original editor—by his son-in-law G. A. Francke. From that period it appeared under the name „Joh. Anast. Freylinghausen's 2c. Geistreiches Gesangbuch u. s. w.," and contained about 1600 hymns to 600 tunes; it was reprinted at as late a date as 1771, and must doubtless be considered as the most important hymnological book of the 18th century. On its appearance it was looked upon as typifying the spirit pervading the class of Christians at that period, designated in Germany as the "Pietisten," and consequently became much attacked by the orthodox party, to the extent of the theological faculty of Wittenberg issuing an official warning against the use of the book (1716). From the different editions of Freylinghausen No. X, XXI, XXXIII, XLII, LVIII, and several others in the present work are taken.

61 Willkommen, Held im Streite.
 62 O auferstandener Siegesfürst.
 63 Siegesfürst und Ehrenkönig.
 64 Auf Christi Himmelfahrt allein.
 65 Himmelan geht unsre Bahn.
 66 Herr, auf Erden muß ich leiden.
 67 Mein Jesu, dem die Seraphinen.
 68 Zeuch uns nach dir.
 69 Heil'ger Geist, Du Tröster mein.
 70 O heil'ger Geist, fehr bei uns ein.
 71 Zeuch ein zu deinen Thoren.
 72 Komm, heil'ger Geist, Herre Gott.
 73 O du aller süßte Freude.
 74 Komm, o komm, du Geist des Lebens.
 75 Wir glauben all an Einen Gott.
 76 Hochheilige Dreieinigkeit.
 77 Wer sind die vor Gottes Throne.
 78 Mir nach, spricht Christus, unser Held.
 79 Mein Jesu, wie so groß die Lieb'.
 80 Herr Jesu, Licht der Heiden.
 81 Mit Fried' und Freud' fahr' ich dahin.
 82 Du kausche Seele du.
 83 Tröstet, tröstet meine Lieben.
 84 Mit Ernst, o Menschenkinder.
 85 Ehr und Dank sei Dir gesungen.
 86 Veni Creator Spiritus.
 87 Wach auf, du Geist der ersten Zeugen.
 88 Ihr Knecht' des Herren allegleich.
 89 Aus deiner Eltern Armen.
 90 Liebster Jesu, hier sind wir.
 91 Von des Himmels Thron.
 92 Ich bin getauft auf Deinen Namen.
 93 Schmücke dich, o liebe Seele.
 94 Wie wohl hast du gelabet.
 95 Wie könnt' ich sein vergessen.
 96 Nun laßt uns den Leib begraben.
 97 Hört auf mit Trauern und mit Klag'.
 98 Am Grabe steh'n wir stille.
 99 Aller Gläubigen Sammelplatz.
 100 O Jesu Christe, wahres Licht.
 101 Ach Gott, vom Himmel sieh darein.
 102 Dein Wort, o Herr, ist milder Thau.
 103 Erhalt uns, Herr, bei Deinem Wort.

104 Dies ist der Gemeinde Stärke.
 105 Herz und Herz vereint zusammen.
 106 Jesu, der Du bist alleine.
 107 Ach Gott und Herr.
 108 Hier lieg' ich, Herr, im Staube.
 109 Jesu, mein Erbarmen, höre.
 110 Ach was soll ich Sünder machen.
 111 O Durchbrecher aller Bande.
 112 Allein zu Dir, Herr Jesu Christ.
 113 O reines Wesen, lautr'e Quelle.
 114 Vater unser im Himmelreich.
 115 O Gott, Du frommer Gott.
 116 Ich ruf' zu Dir, Herr Jesu Christ.
 117 Dir, Dir, Jehovah, will ich singen.
 118 Nach Dir, o Gott, verlangt mich.
 119 Herzlich lieb hab' ich Dich, o Herr.
 120 In Dich hab' ich gehoffet, Herr.
 121 Ich weiß, mein Gott, daß all mein Thun.
 122 Sieh, hier bin ich, Ehrenkönig.
 123 Der Glaub' ist ein' lebendig' Kraft.
 124 Ein' feste Burg ist unser Gott.
 125 Mache dich, mein Geist, bereit.
 126 Brich durch, mein angesocht'nes Herz.
 127 Ich hab' mein' Sach' Gott heimgestellt.
 128 Ringe recht wenn Gottes Gnade.
 129 Höchster Priester, der Du Dich.
 130 Alles ist an Gottes Segen.
 131 Nun so will ich denn mein Leben.
 132 O der Alles hätt' verloren.
 133 Mein Gott, bei Dir ist alle Fülle.
 134 Wer nur den lieben Gott läßt walten.
 135 Was Gott thut das ist wohlgethan.
 136 Ach Gott, wie manches Herzeleid.
 137 Valet will ich dir geben.
 138 Meine Seele senket sich.
 139 Was von außen und von innen.
 140 Von Gott will ich nicht lassen.
 141 Wenn wir in höchsten Nöthen sein.
 142 Wenn ich in Angst und Noth.
 143 Warum betrübst du dich, mein Herz.
 144 O Christe Morgensterne.
 145 Wer Gott vertraut hat wohlgebaut.
 146 Sollt' es auch bisweilen scheinen.
